

Shop
First

ive, erriage
che ature

NG

S, N
TAL
ASS.

11 31

ks,
m until s, INS in
S!
AIN ST.,
ASS, am,

OUSE,

S

bers,

odes,
MER

y time

18, 1891.

ES

tens.

Wheat

ROCK.

re.,

me Salt.
Island.

OUR!

ll the market
be FIRST St.
KEL PLATE

N S!

el for a short ER in 200 lbs

PRICES.

11

ATES, LNER.

72-2

er.
nd
ys
mer.
ual
OCK
RE.
ny house.
We only and your we will RUSS. met as sol-
rks, 1899.
England,
ent patents to one who the first in tain a pa-Whose shall ne quick-quire to to the inven-ther or not and, if not, her precede. Patents tied in the and most and a year, resting inntific Amer-
52-53

The Journal.

FRIDAY EVENING, JANUARY 16, 1892.

PALMER NEWS.

The schools in this village will not begin next Monday.

It snows, for which all are grateful, and only hope it has come this time to Ethan Warner of Palmer, 85, mother of Ethan Warner of Palmer, died at Indian Orchard yesterday.

The Ladies' Reading Club will meet next Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. A. D. Willis on Thorndike street.

F. F. Mary has the contract to build a store and tenement block 22 by 60 on John Wilson at Thro' Rivers.

The Boston and Albany road has begun the work of replacing the wooden stringers of the Main street bridge over its tracks with iron ones.

The Maybach property on South Main and Maple streets was sold at auction yesterday and was bid in for the Palmer Savings bank.

The annual report of the Eastern Hampden Agricultural society is in the hands of the secretary, O. P. Allen, and is ready for distribution.

The will of George W. Wilcox, late of Palmer, has been presented for probate, and names Andrew A. Converse and Amy L. Wilcox as executors.

The mercury took a sudden drop last Saturday night, and Sunday morning it was down to 10° below zero, and frozen water pipes were the rule.

N. Whitton and G. H. Ellis claim to have carried off the honors in a series of brush with Monson horses on Main street in that village Monday afternoon.

Cashman & Dwyer have opened a new fish market in the basement of the Lawrence block, occupying the premises formerly used by G. A. Hill as a meat market.

The sleighing was pretty good the first of the week, and the laymen reaped a harvest Sunday, but the thaw and rain of Tuesday have forced a return to wheels again.

Asenath T. Brown of Palmer, whose petition for separate support from her husband, Talon Brown, was denied by the probate court, has appealed to the superior court.

A. J. Mayhew has compromised with his creditors for 25 cents on the dollar, and will open his undertaking rooms on South Main street again next week, moving his stock to the Cunningham block.

Miss C. A. Marsh of Amherst has been engaged as assistant in the play house Wednesday evening in spite of the storm, and gave the best ministered entertainment ever seen in town. The stage setting and the costumes in the first part were rich and handsome, the music good and the singing excellent. The various acts in the second part were well rendered, especially that of the performing dogs, while the transformation of the stage at the end was a weird scene, the effect of which was greatly heightened by colored lights.

The annual meeting of the W. C. T. U. was held in the parlors of the Congregational church Tuesday afternoon, and the following officers were elected: President, Mrs. Hubbard Lawrence; vice president, Mrs. Joseph Kennerly; corresponding secretary, Mrs. W. H. Hitchcock; recording secretary, Mrs. M. M. Watson; treasurer, Mrs. C. E. Dwyer; superintendent Sunday school work, Mrs. J. W. Shaw; secretary, Mrs. C. E. Dwyer; temperance instruction, Mrs. John Breckinridge; superintendent narcotics, Mrs. Mary Blanchard; superintendent literature, Mrs. H. Chapman; flower mission, Mrs. S. R. Lawrence; Mrs. H. T. Huntington.

Officers Healey and Merriam made a successful run on K. L. Ferry in the Cross block, which he was selling on the sly, but he was not disturbed and so had grown somewhat careless. When the officers entered the front door Ferry was talking with two men at one end of the bar, while at the other two were talking with a bottle. One of the two talking with Perry said: "We haven't had our drink yet," whereupon he remarked: "Well, I'll get it for you," and stepped along to get the bottle just as the officers entered. It contained nearly a quart of whiskey. The case will be heard in the district court the 23d.

The incorporators of the Palmer Savings Bank made choice of these officers Monday afternoon: President, James H. Shaw; vice presidents, Enos Calkins of Palmer, George Moore of Thorndike and T. D. Potter of Springfield; treasurer, L. E. Moore; trustees, Enos Calkins, James B. Shaw, George Moore, S. S. Toft, C. B. Fiske, H. G. Loomis, O. P. Allen, L. E. Moore, T. D. Potter, H. P. Holden, E. G. Hastings, Amos Andrews and Andrew Pinner; auditors, C. B. Fiske and C. R. Newell. The bank has deposits of $260,243, a guarantee fund of $28,250, and undivided profits of $19,020.

The Latest Fad. The manager of the opera house has secured one of the best attractions on the road for Wednesday evening next, the Dalys, in the funniest of farce comedies, "The Latest Fad," introducing the wonderful dancers, Lizzie Daly and Little Vinnie Daly, supported by a great company, with new songs, dances, comedy music and new vaudeville. A full bill of the company appeared in all of the principal cities of the country, and is strictly first-class. The Philadelphia Evening of Nov. 17, 1901, says:

"The Latest Fad" affords Lizzie Daly an opportunity to exhibit her marvellous skill as an acrobat, and she is certainly enabled to have about her several lions, and to perform with downy clever and pretty girls. Little Vinnie Daly is the star of the evening, her dancing being simply marvellous skill for her age. But Vinnie is not a child of the old block. There was, apparently, nothing which Miss Daly could do in the way of dancing that she could not repeat with equal grace and facility. The songs, dances, and the variety of the program, during the entertainment were all bright and pleasing and were all well received.

Personal. Mrs. B. W. Manger is dangerously ill with diphtheria.

Miss Mary Smith of Lanesboro is the guest of W. W. Leach.

Dea. Lydia Minnow is quite sick at his home on Central street.

Mrs. A. J. Northrop has been among the severely sick ones this week.

Mrs. Marshall Shaw is caring for her mother in Brimfield, who is very sick.

Cambridge Mountain, engineer on the New London Northern road, is laid up with the grippe.

Merrill Carver and Frank Carpenter are away from their work with the prevailing complaint.

Willard Talbot of Boston, formerly at Colby's bakery, spent Sunday with his family on Central street.

John Lyman has moved his family back to town, and will live in G. W. Lyman's two-story house on Pleasant street.

Mrs. C. B. Fiske was prostrated two weeks ago by a severe attack of pneumonia in the stomach, followed by inflammation of the liver, but is now convalescing.

Mrs. H. G. Loomis has been dangerously sick with pneumonia this week. Mr. Loomis is suffering from the grippe, and their oldest daughter, Clara, has the scarlet fever.

At the Churches. There will be preaching in the Advent chapel next Sunday by F. W. Dwyer.

Rev. H. O. Mayhew of Hingham will preach in St. Paul's Universalist church next Sunday.

Rev. H. W. Pope of the Congregational church will exchange pulpits with Rev. J. A. Day of Honesville next Sunday.

The Christian Endeavor society of St. Paul's Universalist church will hold a social in the church parlors this evening.

H. F. Moulton has signified his acceptance of his call to St. Paul's Universalist church, and it is expected his formal letter will be read from the pulpit next Sunday.

An adjourned meeting of the Baptist church Monday evening Rev. A. W. Weeks withdrew his resignation and consented to remain as pastor. The church voted to accept his resignation and to call him to the pastorate.

At the annual meeting of the Congregational parish Monday evening O. P. Allen was elected clerk to fill the vacancy caused by the death of David Knox, who has served the parish for the past three years. E. Park was elected treasurer, and last year's parish committee, L. E. Chandler, W. A. Brackenridge and S. H. Brown, chosen to serve another year; a new officer, auditor, was decided upon, and L. E. Moore was chosen. A committee consisting of O. P. Allen, H. C. H. Wilkins and S. H. Hillyer was appointed to draft resolutions upon the death of David Knox. The appropriations were $2500, and it was voted to pay the parsonage.

State Primary School Notes. Rev. T. C. Martin of Monson spoke to the children last Sabbath morning.

Mrs. Elizabeth Evans, one of the trustees, made a short talk to the school last Friday.

Miss Hannah of Boston, assistant of Miss Hughes, the state agent, spent Wednesday night at the institution.

Miss Sadie Price was called to Warsaw by telegram Tuesday on account of the sickness of her mother.

The children of the hospital gave a good entertainment, to which the officers received a cordial invitation, the other evening.

The children have been remarkably healthy during the winter; scarcely a scholar has been absent from school on account of sickness.

Dr. Morgan of Springfield and Dr. Holbrook of Palmer performed successful operations upon the eyes of several children last Friday.

Eight children have been admitted to the institution during the week, five from Westfield and three from Nantucket. Those from Westfield were in a deplorable condition, their clothes and faces showing a great severity of water in that region.

The friends of J. G. Brown were glad to hear of his recovery from the grippe.

The children of the Massachusetts Reformatory, made vacant by the death of Col. Gardner Tufts. Those who have visited the reformatory and seen him in his office as deputy could not fail to recognize the reformatory as a place where he was held by the prisoners. Mr. Scott came to this institution when 19 years of age, and was a successful officer in the different departments he was called to fill, viz: Watchman, supervisor and assistant superintendent.

Among the Societies. There will be an Old Fellows' social at the house of G. D. Kennerly on Park street next morning evening.

The opera house was well filled last Friday night at the public installation of the Old Fellows, the ceremony being performed by District Deputy Grand Master Danahy and District Deputy Grand Master Danahy.

The singing by the Cecilia Quartette of Worcester, and the reading of Miss Stella Haynes of the same city gave variety to the programme, and after the exercises in the opera house were over there was an Old Fellows' social in the rooms of the Commercial hotel.

Julia H. Henry, warden, Mrs. Nellie Henry; conductor, Mrs. Attie Butler; O. G. R. A. McQuaid; J. G. R. S. A. McQuaid; R. S. N. G. George Gray; L. S. N. G. Mrs. Josie Hani; R. S. V. G. Mrs. Sarah Gray; L. S. G. Mrs. Emily Smith; conductor, Mrs. L. S. G. Mrs. Emily Smith; organist, Mrs. Annie Moore.

Before an altogether too small audience, on account, probably, of the rough night, the interesting ceremony of the installation of the new officers of the W. C. T. U. was held in the parlors of the Congregational church Tuesday evening.

The singing by the Cecilia Quartette of Worcester, and the reading of Miss Stella Haynes of the same city gave variety to the programme, and after the exercises in the opera house were over there was an Old Fellows' social in the rooms of the Commercial hotel.

Julia H. Henry, warden, Mrs. Nellie Henry; conductor, Mrs. Attie Butler; O. G. R. A. McQuaid; J. G. R. S. A. McQuaid; R. S. N. G. George Gray; L. S. N. G. Mrs. Josie Hani; R. S. V. G. Mrs. Sarah Gray; L. S. G. Mrs. Emily Smith; conductor, Mrs. L. S. G. Mrs. Emily Smith; organist, Mrs. Annie Moore.

Before an altogether too small audience, on account, probably, of the rough night, the interesting ceremony of the installation of the new officers of the W. C. T. U. was held in the parlors of the Congregational church Tuesday evening.

The singing by the Cecilia Quartette of Worcester, and the reading of Miss Stella Haynes of the same city gave variety to the programme, and after the exercises in the opera house were over there was an Old Fellows' social in the rooms of the Commercial hotel.

Julia H. Henry, warden, Mrs. Nellie Henry; conductor, Mrs. Attie Butler; O. G. R. A. McQuaid; J. G. R. S. A. McQuaid; R. S. N. G. George Gray; L. S. N. G. Mrs. Josie Hani; R. S. V. G. Mrs. Sarah Gray; L. S. G. Mrs. Emily Smith; conductor, Mrs. L. S. G. Mrs. Emily Smith; organist, Mrs. Annie Moore.

Before an altogether too small audience, on account, probably, of the rough night, the interesting ceremony of the installation of the new officers of the W. C. T. U. was held in the parlors of the Congregational church Tuesday evening.

The singing by the Cecilia Quartette of Worcester, and the reading of Miss Stella Haynes of the same city gave variety to the programme, and after the exercises in the opera house were over there was an Old Fellows' social in the rooms of the Commercial hotel.

Julia H. Henry, warden, Mrs. Nellie Henry; conductor, Mrs. Attie Butler; O. G. R. A. McQuaid; J. G. R. S. A. McQuaid; R. S. N. G. George Gray; L. S. N. G. Mrs. Josie Hani; R. S. V. G. Mrs. Sarah Gray; L. S. G. Mrs. Emily Smith; conductor, Mrs. L. S. G. Mrs. Emily Smith; organist, Mrs. Annie Moore.

Before an altogether too small audience, on account, probably, of the rough night, the interesting ceremony of the installation of the new officers of the W. C. T. U. was held in the parlors of the Congregational church Tuesday evening.

The singing by the Cecilia Quartette of Worcester, and the reading of Miss Stella Haynes of the same city gave variety to the programme, and after the exercises in the opera house were over there was an Old Fellows' social in the rooms of the Commercial hotel.

Julia H. Henry, warden, Mrs. Nellie Henry; conductor, Mrs. Attie Butler; O. G. R. A. McQuaid; J. G. R. S. A. McQuaid; R. S. N. G. George Gray; L. S. N. G. Mrs. Josie Hani; R. S. V. G. Mrs. Sarah Gray; L. S. G. Mrs. Emily Smith; conductor, Mrs. L. S. G. Mrs. Emily Smith; organist, Mrs. Annie Moore.

Before an altogether too small audience, on account, probably, of the rough night, the interesting ceremony of the installation of the new officers of the W. C. T. U. was held in the parlors of the Congregational church Tuesday evening.

The singing by the Cecilia Quartette of Worcester, and the reading of Miss Stella Haynes of the same city gave variety to the programme, and after the exercises in the opera house were over there was an Old Fellows' social in the rooms of the Commercial hotel.

Julia H. Henry, warden, Mrs. Nellie Henry; conductor, Mrs. Attie Butler; O. G. R. A. McQuaid; J. G. R. S. A. McQuaid; R. S. N. G. George Gray; L. S. N. G. Mrs. Josie Hani; R. S. V. G. Mrs. Sarah Gray; L. S. G. Mrs. Emily Smith; conductor, Mrs. L. S. G. Mrs. Emily Smith; organist, Mrs. Annie Moore.

Before an altogether too small audience, on account, probably, of the rough night, the interesting ceremony of the installation of the new officers of the W. C. T. U. was held in the parlors of the Congregational church Tuesday evening.

The singing by the Cecilia Quartette of Worcester, and the reading of Miss Stella Haynes of the same city gave variety to the programme, and after the exercises in the opera house were over there was an Old Fellows' social in the rooms of the Commercial hotel.

Julia H. Henry, warden, Mrs. Nellie Henry; conductor, Mrs. Attie Butler; O. G. R. A. McQuaid; J. G. R. S. A. McQuaid; R. S. N. G. George Gray; L. S. N. G. Mrs. Josie Hani; R. S. V. G. Mrs. Sarah Gray; L. S. G. Mrs. Emily Smith; conductor, Mrs. L. S. G. Mrs. Emily Smith; organist, Mrs. Annie Moore.

Before an altogether too small audience, on account, probably, of the rough night, the interesting ceremony of the installation of the new officers of the W. C. T. U. was held in the parlors of the Congregational church Tuesday evening.

The singing by the Cecilia Quartette of Worcester, and the reading of Miss Stella Haynes of the same city gave variety to the programme, and after the exercises in the opera house were over there was an Old Fellows' social in the rooms of the Commercial hotel.

Julia H. Henry, warden, Mrs. Nellie Henry; conductor, Mrs. Attie Butler; O. G. R. A. McQuaid; J. G. R. S. A. McQuaid; R. S. N. G. George Gray; L. S. N. G. Mrs. Josie Hani; R. S. V. G. Mrs. Sarah Gray; L. S. G. Mrs. Emily Smith; conductor, Mrs. L. S. G. Mrs. Emily Smith; organist, Mrs. Annie Moore.

Before an altogether too small audience, on account, probably, of the rough night, the interesting ceremony of the installation of the new officers of the W. C. T. U. was held in the parlors of the Congregational church Tuesday evening.

and the climate of the state being particularly adapted to the industry. To prevent the abandonment of farms he would have the farmer use more intelligence in his husbandry, making the work of the farm; give him a share in the live stock that he could call his own, and his produce, so that he would feel a more interest in the place. Good roads would be more desirable to live on, and it was suggested that the state bear one-half the cost of better roads. Another cause of abandonment was the distance from villages and the lack of society, which in some places in the west is obviated by building the houses in a cluster or village, and have the farms around it. A discussion followed, in which as a reason for deserting the farms the inequality of the earnings of a farmer and the cost of the land was mentioned. It was suggested that the state bear one-half the cost of better roads. Another cause of abandonment was the distance from villages and the lack of society, which in some places in the west is obviated by building the houses in a cluster or village, and have the farms around it. A discussion followed, in which as a reason for deserting the farms the inequality of the earnings of a farmer and the cost of the land was mentioned. It was suggested that the state bear one-half the cost of better roads. Another cause of abandonment was the distance from villages and the lack of society, which in some places in the west is obviated by building the houses in a cluster or village, and have the farms around it. A discussion followed, in which as a reason for deserting the farms the inequality of the earnings of a farmer and the cost of the land was mentioned. It was suggested that the state bear one-half the cost of better roads. Another cause of abandonment was the distance from villages and the lack of society, which in some places in the west is obviated by building the houses in a cluster or village, and have the farms around it. A discussion followed, in which as a reason for deserting the farms the inequality of the earnings of a farmer and the cost of the land was mentioned. It was suggested that the state bear one-half the cost of better roads. Another cause of abandonment was the distance from villages and the lack of society, which in some places in the west is obviated by building the houses in a cluster or village, and have the farms around it. A discussion followed, in which as a reason for deserting the farms the inequality of the earnings of a farmer and the cost of the land was mentioned. It was suggested that the state bear one-half the cost of better roads. Another cause of abandonment was the distance from villages and the lack of society, which in some places in the west is obviated by building the houses in a cluster or village, and have the farms around it. A discussion followed, in which as a reason for deserting the farms the inequality of the earnings of a farmer and the cost of the land was mentioned. It was suggested that the state bear one-half the cost of better roads. Another cause of abandonment was the distance from villages and the lack of society, which in some places in the west is obviated by building the houses in a cluster or village, and have the farms around it. A discussion followed, in which as a reason for deserting the farms the inequality of the earnings of a farmer and the cost of the land was mentioned. It was suggested that the state bear one-half the cost of better roads. Another cause of abandonment was the distance from villages and the lack of society, which in some places in the west is obviated by building the houses in a cluster or village, and have the farms around it. A discussion followed, in which as a reason for deserting the farms the inequality of the earnings of a farmer and the cost of the land was mentioned. It was suggested that the state bear one-half the cost of better roads. Another cause of abandonment was the distance from villages and the lack of society, which in some places in the west is obviated by building the houses in a cluster or village, and have the farms around it. A discussion followed, in which as a reason for deserting the farms the inequality of the earnings of a farmer and the cost of the land was mentioned. It was suggested that the state bear one-half the cost of better roads. Another cause of abandonment was the distance from villages and the lack of society, which in some places in the west is obviated by building the houses in a cluster or village, and have the farms around it. A discussion followed, in which as a reason for deserting the farms the inequality of the earnings of a farmer and the cost of the land was mentioned. It was suggested that the state bear one-half the cost of better roads. Another cause of abandonment was the distance from villages and the lack of society, which in some places in the west is obviated by building the houses in a cluster or village, and have the farms around it. A discussion followed, in which as a reason for deserting the farms the inequality of the earnings of a farmer and the cost of the land was mentioned. It was suggested that the state bear one-half the cost of better roads. Another cause of abandonment was the distance from villages and the lack of society, which in some places in the west is obviated by building the houses in a cluster or village, and have the farms around it. A discussion followed, in which as a reason for deserting the farms the inequality of the earnings of a farmer and the cost of the land was mentioned. It was suggested that the state bear one-half the cost of better roads. Another cause of abandonment was the distance from villages and the lack of society, which in some places in the west is obviated by building the houses in a cluster or village, and have the farms around it. A discussion followed, in which as a reason for deserting the farms the inequality of the earnings of a farmer and the cost of the land was mentioned. It was suggested that the state bear one-half the cost of better roads. Another cause of abandonment was the distance from villages and the lack of society, which in some places in the west is obviated by building the houses in a cluster or village, and have the farms around it. A discussion followed, in which as a reason for deserting the farms the inequality of the earnings of a farmer and the cost of the land was mentioned. It was suggested that the state bear one-half the cost of better roads. Another cause of abandonment was the distance from villages and the lack of society, which in some places in the west is obviated by building the houses in a cluster or village, and have the farms around it. A discussion followed, in which as a reason for deserting the farms the inequality of the earnings of a farmer and the cost of the land was mentioned. It was suggested that the state bear one-half the cost of better roads. Another cause of abandonment was the distance from villages and the lack of society, which in some places in the west is obviated by building the houses in a cluster or village, and have the farms around it. A discussion followed, in which as a reason for deserting the farms the inequality of the earnings of a farmer and the cost of the land was mentioned. It was suggested that the state bear one-half the cost of better roads. Another cause of abandonment was the distance from villages and the lack of society, which in some places in the west is obviated by building the houses in a cluster or village, and have the farms around it. A discussion followed, in which as a reason for deserting the farms the inequality of the earnings of a farmer and the cost of the land was mentioned. It was suggested that the state bear one-half the cost of better roads. Another cause of abandonment was the distance from villages and the lack of society, which in some places in the west is obviated by building the houses in a cluster or village, and have the farms around it. A discussion followed, in which as a reason for deserting the farms the inequality of the earnings of a farmer and the cost of the land was mentioned. It was suggested that the state bear one-half the cost of better roads. Another cause of abandonment was the distance from villages and the lack of society, which in some places in the west is obviated by building the houses in a cluster or village, and have the farms around it. A discussion followed, in which as a reason for deserting the farms the inequality of the earnings of a farmer and the cost of the land was mentioned. It was suggested that the state bear one-half the cost of better roads. Another cause of abandonment was the distance from villages and the lack of society, which in some places in the west is obviated by building the houses in a cluster or village, and have the farms around it. A discussion followed, in which as a reason for deserting the farms the inequality of the earnings of a farmer and the cost of the land was mentioned. It was suggested that the state bear one-half the cost of better roads. Another cause of abandonment was the distance from villages and the lack of society, which in some places in the west is obviated by building the houses in a cluster or village, and have the farms around it. A discussion followed, in which as a reason for deserting the farms the inequality of the earnings of a farmer and the cost of the land was mentioned. It was suggested that the state bear one-half the cost of better roads. Another cause of abandonment was the distance from villages and the lack of society, which in some places in the west is obviated by building the houses in a cluster or village, and have the farms around it. A discussion followed, in which as a reason for deserting the farms the inequality of the earnings of a farmer and the cost of the land was mentioned. It was suggested that the state bear one-half the cost of better roads. Another cause of abandonment was the distance from villages and the lack of society, which in some places in the west is obviated by building the houses in a cluster or village, and have the farms around it. A discussion followed, in which as a reason for deserting the farms the inequality of the earnings of a farmer and the cost of the land was mentioned. It was suggested that the state bear one-half the cost of better roads. Another cause of abandonment was the distance from villages and the lack of society, which in some places in the west is obviated by building the houses in a cluster or village, and have the farms around it. A discussion followed, in which as a reason for deserting the farms the inequality of the earnings of a farmer and the cost of the land was mentioned. It was suggested that the state bear one-half the cost of better roads. Another cause of abandonment was the distance from villages and the lack of society, which in some places in the west is obviated by building the houses in a cluster or village, and have the farms around it. A discussion followed, in which as a reason for deserting the farms the inequality of the earnings of a farmer and the cost of the land was mentioned. It was suggested that the state bear one-half the cost of better roads. Another cause of abandonment was the distance from villages and the lack of society, which in some places in the west is obviated by building the houses in a cluster or village, and have the farms around it. A discussion followed, in which as a reason for deserting the farms the inequality of the earnings of a farmer and the cost of the land was mentioned. It was suggested that the state bear one-half the cost of better roads. Another cause of abandonment was the distance from villages and the lack of society, which in some places in the west is obviated by building the houses in a cluster or village, and have the farms around it. A discussion followed, in which as a reason for deserting the farms the inequality of the earnings of a farmer and the cost of the land was mentioned. It was suggested that the state bear one-half the cost of better roads. Another cause of abandonment was the distance from villages and the lack of society, which in some places in the west is obviated by building the houses in a cluster or village, and have the farms around it. A discussion followed, in which as a reason for deserting the farms the inequality of the earnings of a farmer and the cost of the land was mentioned. It was suggested that the state bear one-half the cost of better roads. Another cause of abandonment was the distance from villages and the lack of society, which in some places in the west is obviated by building the houses in a cluster or village, and have the farms around it. A discussion followed, in which as a reason for deserting the farms the inequality of the earnings of a farmer and the cost of the land was mentioned. It was suggested that the state bear one-half the cost of better roads. Another cause of abandonment was the distance from villages and the lack of society, which in some places in the west is obviated by building the houses in a cluster or village, and have the farms around it. A discussion followed, in which as a reason for deserting the farms the inequality of the earnings of a farmer and the cost of the land was mentioned. It was suggested that the state bear one-half the cost of better roads. Another cause of abandonment was the distance from villages and the lack of society, which in some places in the west is obviated by building the houses in a cluster or village, and have the farms around it. A discussion followed, in which as a reason for deserting the farms the inequality of the earnings of a farmer and the cost of the land was mentioned. It was suggested that the state bear one-half the cost of better roads. Another cause of abandonment was the distance from villages and the lack of society, which in some places in the west is obviated by building the houses in a cluster or village, and have the farms around it. A discussion followed, in which as a reason for deserting the farms the inequality of the earnings of a farmer and the cost of the land was mentioned. It was suggested that the state bear one-half the cost of better roads. Another cause of abandonment was the distance from villages and the lack of society, which in some places in the west is obviated by building the houses in a cluster or village, and have the farms around it. A discussion followed, in which as a reason for deserting the farms the inequality of the earnings of a farmer and the cost of the land was mentioned. It was suggested that the state bear one-half the cost of better roads. Another cause of abandonment was the distance from villages and the lack of society, which in some places in the west is obviated by building the houses in a cluster or village, and have the farms around it. A discussion followed, in which as a reason for deserting the farms the inequality of the earnings of a farmer and the cost of the land was mentioned. It was suggested that the state bear one-half the cost of better roads. Another cause of abandonment was the distance from villages and the lack of society, which in some places in the west is obviated by building the houses in a cluster or village, and have the farms around it. A discussion followed, in which as a reason for deserting the farms the inequality of the earnings of a farmer and the cost of the land was mentioned. It was suggested that the state bear one-half the cost of better roads. Another cause of abandonment was the distance from villages and the lack of society, which in some places in the west is obviated by building the houses in a cluster or village, and have the farms around it. A discussion followed, in which as a reason for deserting the farms the inequality of the earnings of a farmer and the cost of the land was mentioned. It was suggested that the state bear one-half the cost of better roads. Another cause of abandonment was the distance from villages and the lack of society, which in some places in the west is obviated by building the houses in a cluster or village, and have the farms around it. A discussion followed, in which as a reason for deserting the farms the inequality of the earnings of a farmer and the cost of the land was mentioned. It was suggested that the state bear one-half the cost of better roads. Another cause of abandonment was the distance from villages and the lack of society, which in some places in the west is obviated by building the houses in a cluster or village, and have the farms around it. A discussion followed, in which as a reason for deserting the farms the inequality of the earnings of a farmer and the cost of the land was mentioned. It was suggested that the state bear one-half the cost of better roads. Another cause of abandonment was the distance from villages and the lack of society, which in some places in the west is obviated by building the houses in a cluster or village, and have the farms around it. A discussion followed, in which as a reason for deserting the farms the inequality of the earnings of a farmer and the cost of the land was mentioned. It was suggested that the state bear one-half the cost of better roads. Another cause of abandonment was the distance from villages and the lack of society, which in some places in the west is obviated by building the houses in a cluster or village, and have the farms around it. A discussion followed, in which as a reason for deserting the farms the inequality of the earnings of a farmer and the cost of the land was mentioned. It was suggested that the state bear one-half the cost of better roads. Another cause of abandonment was the distance from villages and the lack of society, which in some places in the west is obviated by building the houses in a cluster or village, and have the farms around it. A discussion followed, in which as a reason for deserting the farms the inequality of the earnings of a farmer and the cost of the land was mentioned. It was suggested that the state bear one-half the cost of better roads. Another cause of abandonment was the distance from villages and the lack of society, which in some places in the west is obviated by building the houses in a cluster or village, and have the farms around it. A discussion followed, in which as a reason for deserting the farms the inequality of the earnings of a farmer and the cost of the land was mentioned. It was suggested that the state bear one-half the cost of better roads. Another cause of abandonment was the distance from villages and the lack of society, which in some places in the west is obviated by building the houses in a cluster or village, and have the farms around it. A discussion followed, in which as a reason for deserting the farms the inequality of the earnings of a farmer and the cost of the land was mentioned. It was suggested that the state bear one-half the cost of better roads. Another cause of abandonment was the distance from villages and the lack of society, which in some places in the west is obviated by building the houses in a cluster or village, and have the farms around it. A discussion followed, in which as a reason for deserting the farms the inequality of the earnings of a farmer and the cost of the land was mentioned. It was suggested that the state bear one-half the cost of better roads. Another cause of abandonment was the distance from villages and the lack of society, which in some places in the west is obviated by building the houses in a cluster or village, and have the farms around it. A discussion followed, in which as a reason for deserting the farms the inequality of the earnings of a farmer and the cost of the land was mentioned. It was suggested that the state bear one-half the cost of better roads. Another cause of abandonment was the distance from villages and the lack of society, which in some places in the west is obviated by building the houses in a cluster or village, and have the farms around it. A discussion followed, in which as a reason for deserting the farms the inequality of the earnings of a farmer and the cost of the land was mentioned. It was suggested that the state bear one-half the cost of better roads. Another cause of abandonment was the distance from villages and the lack of society, which in some places in the west is obviated by building the houses in a cluster or village, and have the farms around it. A discussion followed, in which as a reason for deserting the farms the inequality of the earnings of a farmer and the cost of the land was mentioned. It was suggested that the state bear one-half the cost of better roads. Another cause of abandonment was the distance from villages and the lack of society, which in some places in the west is obviated by building the houses in a cluster or village, and have the farms around it. A discussion followed, in which as a reason for deserting the farms the inequality of the earnings of a farmer and the cost of the land was mentioned. It was suggested that the state bear one-half the cost of better roads. Another cause of abandonment was the distance from villages and the lack of society, which in some places in the west is obviated by building the houses in a cluster or village, and have the farms around it. A discussion followed, in which as a reason for deserting the farms the inequality of the earnings of a farmer and the cost of the land was mentioned. It was suggested that the state bear one-half the cost of better roads. Another cause of abandonment was the distance from villages and the lack of society, which in some places in the west is obviated by building the houses in a cluster or village, and have the farms around it. A discussion followed, in which as a reason for deserting the farms the inequality of the earnings of a farmer and the cost of the land was mentioned. It was suggested that the state bear one-half the cost of better roads. Another cause of abandonment was the distance from villages and the lack of society, which in some places in the west is obviated by building the houses in a cluster or village, and have the farms around it. A discussion followed, in which as a reason for deserting the farms the inequality of the earnings of a farmer and the cost of the land was mentioned. It was suggested that the state bear one-half the cost of better roads. Another cause of abandonment was the distance from villages and the lack of society, which in some places in the west is obviated by building the houses in a cluster or village, and have the farms around it. A discussion followed, in which as a reason for deserting the farms the inequality of the earnings of a farmer and the cost of the land was mentioned. It was suggested that the state bear one-half the cost of better roads. Another cause of abandonment was the distance from villages and the lack of society, which in some places in the west is obviated by building the houses in a cluster or village, and have the farms around it. A discussion followed, in which as a reason for deserting the farms the inequality of the earnings of a farmer and the cost of the land was mentioned. It was suggested that the state bear one-half the cost of better roads. Another cause of abandonment was the distance from villages and the lack of society, which in some places in the west is obviated by building the houses in a cluster or village, and have the farms around it. A discussion followed, in which as a reason for deserting the farms the inequality of the earnings of a farmer and the cost of the land was mentioned. It was suggested that the state bear one-half the cost of better roads. Another cause of abandonment was the distance from villages and the lack of society, which in some places in the west is obviated by building the houses in a cluster or village, and have the farms around it. A discussion followed, in which as a reason for deserting the farms the inequality of the earnings of a farmer and the cost of the land was mentioned. It was suggested that the state bear one-half the cost of better roads. Another cause of abandonment was the distance from villages and the lack of society, which in some places in the west is obviated by building the houses in a cluster or village, and have the farms around it. A discussion followed, in which as a reason for deserting the farms the inequality of the earnings of a farmer and the cost of the land was mentioned. It was suggested that the state bear one-half the cost of better roads. Another cause of abandonment was the distance from villages and the lack of society, which in some places in the west is obviated by building the houses in a cluster or village, and have the farms around it. A discussion followed, in which as a reason for deserting the farms the inequality of the earnings of a farmer and the cost of the land was mentioned. It was suggested that the state bear one-half the cost of better roads. Another cause of abandonment was the distance from villages and the lack of society, which in some places in the west is obviated by building the houses in a cluster or village, and have the farms around it. A discussion followed, in which as a reason for deserting the farms the inequality of the earnings of a farmer and the cost of the land was mentioned. It was suggested that the state bear one-half the cost of better roads. Another cause of abandonment was the distance from villages and the lack of society, which in some places in the west is obviated by building the houses in a cluster or village, and have the farms around it. A discussion followed, in which as a reason for deserting the farms the inequality of the earnings of a farmer and the cost of the land was mentioned. It was suggested that the state bear one-half the cost of better roads. Another cause of abandonment was the distance from villages and the lack of society, which in some places in the west is obviated by building the houses in a cluster or village, and have the farms around it. A discussion followed, in which as a reason for deserting the farms the inequality of the earnings of a farmer and the cost of the land was mentioned. It was suggested that the state bear one-half the cost of better roads. Another cause of abandonment was the distance from villages and the lack of society, which in some places in the west is obviated by building the houses in a cluster or village, and have the farms around it. A discussion followed, in which as a reason for deserting the farms the inequality of the earnings of a farmer and the cost of the land was mentioned. It was suggested that the state bear one-half the cost of better roads. Another cause of abandonment was the distance from villages and the lack of society, which in some places in the west is obviated by building the houses in a cluster or village, and have the farms around it. A discussion followed, in which as a reason for deserting the farms the inequality of the earnings of a farmer and the cost of the land was mentioned. It was suggested that the state bear one-half the cost of better roads. Another cause of abandonment was the distance from villages and the lack of society, which in some places in the west is obviated by building the houses in a cluster or village, and have the farms around it. A discussion followed, in which as a reason for deserting the farms the inequality of the earnings of a farmer and the cost of the land was mentioned. It was suggested that the state bear one-half the cost of better roads. Another cause of abandonment was the distance from villages and the lack of society, which in some places in the west is obviated by building the houses in a cluster or village, and have the farms around it. A discussion followed, in which as a reason for deserting the farms the inequality of the earnings

VOL. XLII.

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY EVENING

C. B. FISKE & CO.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.—Two dollars a year, in advance. Single copies, 5 cents. For those who wish to receive the paper by mail, the price is $2.50 a year, in advance. For those who wish to receive the paper by mail, the price is $2.50 a year, in advance.

ADVERTISING.—One inch of twelve lines of type, for the first week, $1.00; for each subsequent week, 50 cents. For those who wish to receive the paper by mail, the price is $2.50 a year, in advance. For those who wish to receive the paper by mail, the price is $2.50 a year, in advance.

LOCAL BUSINESS DIRECTORY.

PALMER.

ALLEN, O. F., Wholesale and Retail Druggist and Apothecary.

BARTON, J. C., Dealer in Watches, Clocks, and Jewelry.

BILL, C. A., Fresh and Salt Beef, Pork, Ham, and Cured Meats.

BROWN, C. A., Hardware, Furnishings, Groceries, Raisins, Oils and Glass.

BROWN, S. H., Trucking, Light and Heavy Hauling, and Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CARPENTER, Mrs. J. E., Millinery and Fancy Goods.

CHANDLER, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK & HASTINGS, Wholesale Dealers in All Kinds of Groceries.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

SORE THROAT

Remedies for colds, coughs, asthma, and even consumption, in the early stages, yield to AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. Singers, actors, and others, public speakers, clergymen, teachers, and all who are liable to disorder of the vocal organs, find a sure remedy in this wonderful and well-known preparation. As an emergency medicine, in cases of croup, whooping cough, etc., it should be in every household.

"Two years ago I suffered severely from an attack of croup, and it was only by the use of this medicine that I was cured."

—J. E. CHANDLER.

(Entered at Post Office as second class matter.)

LOCAL BUSINESS DIRECTORY.

PALMER.

ALLEN, O. F., Wholesale and Retail Druggist and Apothecary.

BARTON, J. C., Dealer in Watches, Clocks, and Jewelry.

BILL, C. A., Fresh and Salt Beef, Pork, Ham, and Cured Meats.

BROWN, C. A., Hardware, Furnishings, Groceries, Raisins, Oils and Glass.

BROWN, S. H., Trucking, Light and Heavy Hauling, and Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CARPENTER, Mrs. J. E., Millinery and Fancy Goods.

CHANDLER, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK & HASTINGS, Wholesale Dealers in All Kinds of Groceries.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

CLARK, J. B., Dealer in all kinds of Coal.

LEGRO & LYND, DRUGGISTS.

Buy and Sell Pure

Drugs, Medicines and Chemicals

Knowing that one's life and the physician's success depend largely upon the purity and potency of drugs, we have and shall continue to keep only the best.

Prescriptions Prepared by Registered Pharmacists.

Patent Medicines, Baby Foods, Beef Extracts, Nurse Bottles and Feedings, Hair Restoratives, Hair Colors, Condition Powders, Family Syringes and Fountain Syringes, Hot Water Bags, etc.

And if sweet little eyes grow heavy Before the mother's love, In the kiss of good night, Blessing is dropped the brow above, Next day I will hear the question, "Pray, when did you kiss me?" fall From the rosy lips of the baby, Sweet as an angel's call.

Sitting with pipe and slippers, I listen, and overhead I hear the prattle of children Merrily going by, And every now and then, On his rosy and ivory throne, As I reign in my little kingdom, With every heart my own.

—Margaret's Father.

TOILET SOAPS.

A large line of Imported Toilet Brushes and Hair Brushes.

We have the BEST

FINE PERFUMES

TOILET SOAPS.

A large line of Imported Toilet Brushes and Hair Brushes.

The Journal.

FRIDAY EVENING, JANUARY 29, 1922.

LOCAL NOTICES.

That wonderful old save, Ken-Kom, for sale at Stoues. Try it. Save 25 percent of cost.

PALMER NEWS.

Miss Carrie Fish is taking hand lessons. Mrs. Rose Carter has gone to Orange to visit friends.

Miss Martha Eastman is gaining after a trying illness.

Mrs. O. M. Kinnor offers her fine street property for sale.

F. W. Dummell will preach at the Advent chapel next Sunday.

Mrs. Joseph King has sold her farm near West Brimfield to Porter Plympton.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Weld started Monday for a visit with friends in New York city.

The day of prayer for schools and colleges was observed at the Congregational church last evening.

J. A. Palmer has purchased two wood lots on East Hill in Monson, on the Keop and Tanager farms.

Rev. Pleasant Hunter of Newark, N. J., formerly of Palmer, has declined his recent call to Harlem.

C. F. Gardner suffered a relapse from the grippe the first of the week, but is now recovering once more.

Rev. J. H. Holden has bought of Mary E. Sedgwick a wood and pasture lot near the Kerigan farm at Forest Lake.

Rev. J. F. Albion was installed as pastor of the First Universalist church at Fitchburg last Friday evening.

C. T. Brainerd commenced cutting ice yesterday. It is of good clear quality some seven or eight inches thick.

A party of young ladies gave Clarence Wing a year party at his home on West Main street Tuesday evening.

Emil Varney of Zuchowitz's conservatory of music, Springfield, will preside at the organ in St. Paul's church Sunday.

The physical culture class will meet with Mrs. Rufus Flynt at her home on Central street to-morrow afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Calvin and Miss Phoebe Hastings entertain a party of about 20 young friends at their home on West Main street this evening.

A large photograph, a very true likeness of Miss Beatrice Priest, is on exhibition in the window of Lettie & Lynde's drug store.

R. A. Moffatt has taken the tenement of Joseph Holbrook, formerly occupied by Mrs. Willard, and moved his family there this week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Leach attended the wedding of Samuel E. Fletcher and Miss Alice Sutcliffe, Mrs. Leach's sister, at Monson Tuesday.

The board of health has appointed Officer Havelley to see that its orders in regard to the scarlet fever cases are obeyed, and he will begin his duties to-morrow.

Miss Julia A. Allen of Palmer was one of 10 young ladies who graduated at the Westfield Normal school last Friday. The subject of her essay was "The Thyrist."

When the 1.28 p. m. express from Chicago is more than an hour late a special is run through from Albany, which has occurred nearly every day this week.

Mr. Woodhead, of the firm of Woodhead & Wood, who have bought the photograph business of the late George Wilcox, has taken A. E. Park's tenement on Pine street.

The tenth annual meeting of the Academic and High School Teachers' Association will be held in the high school hall at Westfield next Friday, with sessions at 10 a. m. and 2 p. m.

A carload of western horses for M. V. B. Pearson & Son, of Newbury, Ct., arrived Wednesday morning and were cared for at Marcy's stables, being shipped to their destination at night.

A disconsolate-looking man and a happy looking crowd formed an interesting tableau outside one of the hotel on Main street at noon today, when the painter stepped into his own paint pot.

The result of the voting contest for the most popular fireman now stands: F. N. Allen, J. M. Dawson, 15; C. McManaway, 15; J. T. Donovan, 15; W. S. French, 7; J. S. Barrett, 5; A. E. Fitch, 2; W. H. Laird, 1.

George Thayer, living near Foster's Mills, died suddenly yesterday afternoon. While cutting ice he was caught in a pair of his belt and went to the house lay down on the lounge, passing away in twenty minutes.

A portion of the supports of the floor in Cushing's wire nail factory gave way beneath the weight of wire Tuesday, allowing the floor to settle and the chairs and wire were soon removed and no serious damage was done.

Sherman Converse of the Commercial Endowment Association installed officers last evening and received a visit from Supreme Recorder Eaton, who addressed the members concerning the objects and aims of the order.

Lizzie Riskton, about 16 years old, had her left arm broken between the elbow and wrist at the carpet mill Wednesday forenoon. A skein of yarn which was hanging on her arm caught on a shaft, drawing the arm over and breaking it.

A Palmer man who happened to travel in the same car with ex-President Cleveland a week ago last Sunday, while the latter was on his way south for a hunting trip, says that Mr. Cleveland spent nearly the whole day playing cards.

D. L. Richards, who has taken Everett Sedgwick's place as express messenger on the Ware River road, has taken the house on Central street recently vacated by Dr. Flynn, and will move in as soon as the necessary repairs have been made.

Owing to sickness in the family of the speaker who had been engaged to address the farmers' institute under the auspices of the Eastern Hampshire Agricultural Society next Tuesday, the institute has been postponed one week, to Feb. 9.

Woodhead & Wood, who have a gallery at Gilbertville, have bought the photograph car on Commercial street of the George W. Wilcox estate, and will be ready for customers the first of next week. They will also do copying and picture framing.

The mercury took a sudden drop of about 15 to zero in a little over an hour Tuesday morning, and a cold wind spring up which continued through Wednesday, taxing furnace fires and heating apparatus to the utmost, and hurrying many water pipes.

At the meeting and banquet of the Amherst College Alumni at Holyoke last Friday evening H. C. Strong of this place was appointed chairman of a committee to draft resolutions on the death of Judge William Allen of Northampton and E. W. Bond of Springfield.

A pleasant party gathered at the home of Station Agent C. E. Fish last evening to celebrate the fifth birthday of his daughter Annie. The guests assembled early in the evening, and games, cards and music were played and ice cream and other refreshments enjoyed. The party numbered about 20 and kept it lively until a late hour.

The annual meeting of the Ladies' society of the Baptist church was held Wednesday afternoon, when the following officers were chosen: President, Mrs. Ella Washburn; vice president, Mrs. Everett Butler; treasurer, Mrs. C. B. Fiske; secretary, Mrs. A. E. Fitch; collectors, Mrs. A. A. McQuaid, Mrs. George Camp. A pleasant social followed in the evening.

It seems hardly credible that a case of desolate want should exist in so small a town as Palmer, and yet a case of that kind was reported by a man who is well known in the town.

The man was a stranger, and his name was not given, but he was a man of about 40 years of age, and was very thin and pale.

He was found by a man who is well known in the town, and he was taken to the house of a friend, where he was cared for for a few days.

The man was very weak and ill, and he was unable to do any work, and he was very poor, and he was very much distressed.

He was found by a man who is well known in the town, and he was taken to the house of a friend, where he was cared for for a few days.

The man was very weak and ill, and he was unable to do any work, and he was very poor, and he was very much distressed.

He was found by a man who is well known in the town, and he was taken to the house of a friend, where he was cared for for a few days.

The man was very weak and ill, and he was unable to do any work, and he was very poor, and he was very much distressed.

He was found by a man who is well known in the town, and he was taken to the house of a friend, where he was cared for for a few days.

The man was very weak and ill, and he was unable to do any work, and he was very poor, and he was very much distressed.

He was found by a man who is well known in the town, and he was taken to the house of a friend, where he was cared for for a few days.

The man was very weak and ill, and he was unable to do any work, and he was very poor, and he was very much distressed.

He was found by a man who is well known in the town, and he was taken to the house of a friend, where he was cared for for a few days.

The man was very weak and ill, and he was unable to do any work, and he was very poor, and he was very much distressed.

He was found by a man who is well known in the town, and he was taken to the house of a friend, where he was cared for for a few days.

The man was very weak and ill, and he was unable to do any work, and he was very poor, and he was very much distressed.

He was found by a man who is well known in the town, and he was taken to the house of a friend, where he was cared for for a few days.

The man was very weak and ill, and he was unable to do any work, and he was very poor, and he was very much distressed.

He was found by a man who is well known in the town, and he was taken to the house of a friend, where he was cared for for a few days.

The man was very weak and ill, and he was unable to do any work, and he was very poor, and he was very much distressed.

He was found by a man who is well known in the town, and he was taken to the house of a friend, where he was cared for for a few days.

The man was very weak and ill, and he was unable to do any work, and he was very poor, and he was very much distressed.

He was found by a man who is well known in the town, and he was taken to the house of a friend, where he was cared for for a few days.

The man was very weak and ill, and he was unable to do any work, and he was very poor, and he was very much distressed.

He was found by a man who is well known in the town, and he was taken to the house of a friend, where he was cared for for a few days.

The man was very weak and ill, and he was unable to do any work, and he was very poor, and he was very much distressed.

He was found by a man who is well known in the town, and he was taken to the house of a friend, where he was cared for for a few days.

The man was very weak and ill, and he was unable to do any work, and he was very poor, and he was very much distressed.

He was found by a man who is well known in the town, and he was taken to the house of a friend, where he was cared for for a few days.

The man was very weak and ill, and he was unable to do any work, and he was very poor, and he was very much distressed.

He was found by a man who is well known in the town, and he was taken to the house of a friend, where he was cared for for a few days.

The man was very weak and ill, and he was unable to do any work, and he was very poor, and he was very much distressed.

He was found by a man who is well known in the town, and he was taken to the house of a friend, where he was cared for for a few days.

The man was very weak and ill, and he was unable to do any work, and he was very poor, and he was very much distressed.

He was found by a man who is well known in the town, and he was taken to the house of a friend, where he was cared for for a few days.

The man was very weak and ill, and he was unable to do any work, and he was very poor, and he was very much distressed.

He was found by a man who is well known in the town, and he was taken to the house of a friend, where he was cared for for a few days.

The man was very weak and ill, and he was unable to do any work, and he was very poor, and he was very much distressed.

He was found by a man who is well known in the town, and he was taken to the house of a friend, where he was cared for for a few days.

The man was very weak and ill, and he was unable to do any work, and he was very poor, and he was very much distressed.

He was found by a man who is well known in the town, and he was taken to the house of a friend, where he was cared for for a few days.

The man was very weak and ill, and he was unable to do any work, and he was very poor, and he was very much distressed.

He was found by a man who is well known in the town, and he was taken to the house of a friend, where he was cared for for a few days.

The man was very weak and ill, and he was unable to do any work, and he was very poor, and he was very much distressed.

He was found by a man who is well known in the town, and he was taken to the house of a friend, where he was cared for for a few days.

The man was very weak and ill, and he was unable to do any work, and he was very poor, and he was very much distressed.

He was found by a man who is well known in the town, and he was taken to the house of a friend, where he was cared for for a few days.

The man was very weak and ill, and he was unable to do any work, and he was very poor, and he was very much distressed.

He was found by a man who is well known in the town, and he was taken to the house of a friend, where he was cared for for a few days.

The man was very weak and ill, and he was unable to do any work, and he was very poor, and he was very much distressed.

He was found by a man who is well known in the town, and he was taken to the house of a friend, where he was cared for for a few days.

The man was very weak and ill, and he was unable to do any work, and he was very poor, and he was very much distressed.

He was found by a man who is well known in the town, and he was taken to the house of a friend, where he was cared for for a few days.

The man was very weak and ill, and he was unable to do any work, and he was very poor, and he was very much distressed.

He was found by a man who is well known in the town, and he was taken to the house of a friend, where he was cared for for a few days.

The man was very weak and ill, and he was unable to do any work, and he was very poor, and he was very much distressed.

He was found by a man who is well known in the town, and he was taken to the house of a friend, where he was cared for for a few days.

The man was very weak and ill, and he was unable to do any work, and he was very poor, and he was very much distressed.

He was found by a man who is well known in the town, and he was taken to the house of a friend, where he was cared for for a few days.

The man was very weak and ill, and he was unable to do any work, and he was very poor, and he was very much distressed.

He was found by a man who is well known in the town, and he was taken to the house of a friend, where he was cared for for a few days.

The man was very weak and ill, and he was unable to do any work, and he was very poor, and he was very much distressed.

He was found by a man who is well known in the town, and he was taken to the house of a friend, where he was cared for for a few days.

The man was very weak and ill, and he was unable to do any work, and he was very poor, and he was very much distressed.

He was found by a man who is well known in the town, and he was taken to the house of a friend, where he was cared for for a few days.

The man was very weak and ill, and he was unable to do any work, and he was very poor, and he was very much distressed.

He was found by a man who is well known in the town, and he was taken to the house of a friend, where he was cared for for a few days.

The man was very weak and ill, and he was unable to do any work, and he was very poor, and he was very much distressed.

He was found by a man who is well known in the town, and he was taken to the house of a friend, where he was cared for for a few days.

The man was very weak and ill, and he was unable to do any work, and he was very poor, and he was very much distressed.

He was found by a man who is well known in the town, and he was taken to the house of a friend, where he was cared for for a few days.

The man was very weak and ill, and he was unable to do any work, and he was very poor, and he was very much distressed.

He was found by a man who is well known in the town, and he was taken to the house of a friend, where he was cared for for a few days.

The man was very weak and ill, and he was unable to do any work, and he was very poor, and he was very much distressed.

He was found by a man who is well known in the town, and he was taken to the house of a friend, where he was cared for for a few days.

The man was very weak and ill, and he was unable to do any work, and he was very poor, and he was very much distressed.

He was found by a man who is well known in the town, and he was taken to the house of a friend, where he was cared for for a few days.

The man was very weak and ill, and he was unable to do any work, and he was very poor, and he was very much distressed.

He was found by a man who is well known in the town, and he was taken to the house of a friend, where he was cared for for a few days.

The man was very weak and ill, and he was unable to do any work, and he was very poor, and he was very much distressed.

He was found by a man who is well known in the town, and he was taken to the house of a friend, where he was cared for for a few days.

The man was very weak and ill, and he was unable to do any work, and he was very poor, and he was very much distressed.

He was found by a man who is well known in the town, and he was taken to the house of a friend, where he was cared for for a few days.

The man was very weak and ill, and he was unable to do any work, and he was very poor, and he was very much distressed.

He was found by a man who is well known in the town, and he was taken to the house of a friend, where he was cared for for a few days.

The man was very weak and ill, and he was unable to do any work, and he was very poor, and he was very much distressed.

He was found by a man who is well known in the town, and he was taken to the house of a friend, where he was cared for for a few days.

The man was very weak and ill, and he was unable to do any work, and he was very poor, and he was very much distressed.

He was found by a man who is well known in the town, and he was taken to the house of a friend, where he was cared for for a few days.

The man was very weak and ill, and he was unable to do any work, and he was very poor, and he was very much distressed.

He was found by a man who is well known in the town, and he was taken to the house of a friend, where he was cared for for a few days.

The man was very weak and ill, and he was unable to do any work, and he was very poor, and he was very much distressed.

He was found by a man who is well known in the town, and he was taken to the house of a friend, where he was cared for for a few days.

The man was very weak and ill, and he was unable to do any work, and he was very poor, and he was very much distressed.

He was found by a man who is well known in the town, and he was taken to the house of a friend, where he was cared for for a few days.

People who deal with travelling specialists of any kind are extremely liable to be deceived by the promises of any professional man who is "up" in his profession is able to make a living at it without traveling about the country.

Dr. Henry was a specialist in the matter of the eyes, and has been gulling people hereabouts. With a plausible statement he would get permission to examine a person's eyes, and if possible sell them a pair of spectacles, succeeding in disposing of several pairs in the western part of the town.

He pretended to perform an operation on the eyes of Mrs. George Fleming. The price at the hospital was $120, but as it had been done at her own house he would call it $75.

She had lost $20, saved for the purchase of a cow, and this she gave him. The rascal wanted her to borrow the balance, but she refused. Persons who purchased of him were told to call on Dr. Stove and have their money refunded if the spectacles were not satisfactory, but it is needless to say that the Doctor knows nothing of the fellow. The owners are seeking an intimate acquaintance with the chap.

Although it was announced that the schools would begin last Monday, so many people felt uncertain about the wisdom of the move and so great was the scare regarding the scarlet fever that it was decided not to open them, and the state board of health was asked to visit Palmer and look into the matter.

Dr. Abbott, secretary of the board, came Monday, and the question was discussed in the court room in the afternoon, the physicians of the village, board of health, school committee and others being present. There seemed to be difference of opinion among the physicians as to the danger of any alarm of epidemic of the disease, and it was brought out that there were only seven cases in town at that time, three of these practically recovered. Dr. Abbott stated that in large cities, where the danger of contagion was much greater than in the small towns, schools were not closed for even severe epidemics of scarlet fever, and if the board of health here would closely quarantine the children in families where the disease made its appearance, there was no reason why the schools might not resume classes at any time, or have resumed them previously.

It has been desired for a long time to make the order of service at St. Paul's Universalist church a brighter and more interesting one, and the following order will be used for the present, and continued should it meet the approval of the church and congregation:

Organ Voluntary.....Minister

Opening Sentences of Scripture.....Minister

Responsive Words.....Minister and People

Prayer.....Minister and People

Lesson from the Scriptures.....Choir

Prayer.....Choir

Response.....Choir

Sermon.....Minister

Lord's Prayer.....Choir

Prayer.....Minister

Prayer.....Minister

Prayer.....Minister

Prayer.....Minister

Prayer.....Minister

Prayer.....Minister

Prayer.....Minister

Prayer.....Minister

Prayer.....Minister

Prayer.....Minister

Prayer.....Minister

Prayer.....Minister

Prayer.....Minister

Prayer.....Minister

Prayer.....Minister

Prayer.....Minister

Prayer.....Minister

Prayer.....Minister

Prayer.....Minister

Prayer.....Minister

Prayer.....Minister

Prayer.....Minister

Prayer.....Minister

Prayer.....Minister

Prayer.....Minister

Prayer.....Minister

Prayer.....Minister

Prayer.....Minister

Prayer.....Minister

Prayer.....Minister

Prayer.....Minister

Prayer.....Minister

Prayer.....Minister

Prayer.....Minister

Prayer.....Minister

Prayer.....Minister

Prayer.....Minister

Prayer.....Minister

Prayer.....Minister

Prayer.....Minister

Prayer.....Minister

Prayer.....Minister

Prayer.....Minister

Prayer.....Minister

Prayer.....Minister

Prayer.....Minister

Prayer.....Minister

Prayer.....Minister

Prayer.....Minister

Prayer.....Minister

Prayer.....Minister

Prayer.....Minister

Prayer.....Minister

Prayer.....Minister

Prayer.....Minister

Prayer.....Minister

Prayer.....Minister

Prayer.....Minister

Prayer.....Minister

Prayer.....Minister

NEIGHBORHOOD NOTES.

MONSON.

M. Noble is seriously ill at his home on Bridge street.

G. H. Newton is one of the latest sufferers with the gripe.

Mr. Dr. Brown of Norwich, Ct., is visiting Miss Nellie F. Supler.

Lockwell's People's Theater Company will play a week at Central Hall soon.

A musical entertainment will be given in the Methodist church vestry next Monday evening.

Mr. Taft of New York city was in town over Sunday, visiting his daughter, who is studying with Rev. James Tufts.

Mrs. W. P. Mattson of Springfield will present Mrs. Jarley's works at the Universalist church next Tuesday evening.

H. Chapin, secretary of the St. John's regiment, has been attending the meeting of the regimental secretaries at Hartford this week.

The children of St. Patrick's Sunday school gave the opera of "The Three Little Kittens" in Central Hall last evening, followed by a social dance.

The members of the Phila May Concert Company, who came to give a concert under the auspices of the senior class, were entertained as follows: Mr. Louis Miller and Miss Phila May by E. F. Morris, Miss Stanley by Hon. W. N. Plyn, Mr. Manning by the club at Hamilton Hall.

Rev. Mr. Hubbard of Lake Charles, La., preached last Sunday for Rev. Mr. Hatch. He was a very attractive speaker and clearly emphasized the worth of character in his stirring words. He visited the academy on Monday morning and spoke a few minutes in a very practical way to the students.

The will of John Deneen, late of Monson, has been filed for probate, Johanna Cady being named as executrix. All the real and personal property is bequeathed to the widow, and also over death the balance is a bequest equally among Mrs. Matthew Green, Johanna Cuddy, Mrs. Patrick McDonald, Mrs. John Hayes and John Deneen, Jr.

The will of D. W. Ellis & Sons is being equipped with a new system of fire alarm which does away with the necessity of a watchman. Every few feet through the building is placed a thermostat containing a chemical which melts at 140°, and the melting out of this causes the connection of wires which ring an alarm on the outside.

In the houses of D. W. Ellis, A. D. Ellis and W. J. Hicketts.

There was a large audience at the mock breach of promise trial in Memorial Hall last Friday evening, and the Grand Jury posed quite amusing and the jury composed of such persons as John L. Sullivan, Benjamin Harrison, Ben. Butler, George Cleveland, Lucy Stone, Dr. John Walker, Lydia Pinkham, and others, finally brought in a verdict that each side should pay $25 cents to the court.

One of the most prominent Irish citizens of the town, John L. Murphy, died yesterday at the age of 67, after a short illness with pneumonia. Mr. Murphy came to this country in 1849, after having served in the British army. He was one of the best of his kind in his town, and was correspondent for several religious papers. Mr. Murphy was a prominent member of the Catholic society and held at the time of his death the office of secretary of the St. Vincent de Paul society. His funeral will take place at the Catholic church tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock. The burial will be in the Catholic cemetery.

The Phila May concert given in the academy chapel Wednesday evening was a success, auspices of the senior class was a success every way. Mr. Manning's piano playing was indeed fine, and was encored. Mr. Miller, the lyric tenor, rendered his solos in a most satisfactory manner, and was of course encored. Phila May's singing was excellent. Her first selection showed her remarkable voice and was encored; responding she sang the familiar "Annie Laurie" in a most charming way. All her selections were well rendered. Miss Stanley's readings were received with much applause, and she sang in general a decided success, and all seemed well pleased indeed with the entertainment. The senior class netted quite a little sum, which will go into the class treasury to help defray gratulating expenses next June.

BRIMFIELD.

Dr. B. V. Savina's house caught fire from a fireplace about 7 o'clock Wednesday morning, and the interior was so badly burned that it will not pay to repair it. Mrs. Savina was sick in bed at the time, but was safely removed. The most of the furniture was saved, and the loss will be about $4000. The house had recently been purchased by Dr. Savina, who made extensive alterations and finely furnished it.

HAMPDEN.

One hundred new books have been added to the library by the town since Jan. 1st, and will be ready for delivery to-morrow. Since the opening of the library August 1, 1891, 160 persons have taken out 1079 books, an addition to the general knowledge of the friends of literature have been donated, the donors being Rev. Calvin Stebbins, Worcester, Francis C. Sessions, Columbus, O., Mrs. John Q. Adams, Mrs. S. C. Stanton, Hampden. The total number of books in the circulating department at the close of the year is 225.

BELCHERTOWN.

C. D. Henry's Theatre Company is playing a week's engagement at the town hall. The play last Friday evening was not very largely attended.

Miss Ida Fuller was given a surprise party by a number of her friends last Friday evening, at the home of G. A. Keith.

The largest poultry farm in town is that of Eugene Randall, which calls East Valley Poultry Farm. J. W. Jackson has named his Crystal Lake Poultry Farm.

Apprentice Walker, who died at his home in Worcester Monday, was a brother of the late Mrs. Eliza Blackmer of Belchertown, and the last of the family of fourteen of the late Nathaniel Walker.

WEST WARREN.

The Cooperative Association has declared a dividend of 10 per cent.

Mrs. William Webster is able to be out, and is confined to bed.

No. 2 Mill stopped a part of the day Wednesday on account of anchor ice.

Mr. Estey, station agent for the Boston and Albany Railroad, is about to leave his place here.

Mrs. Ellbridge Howe of East Brookfield spent Sunday with her cousin, Miss L. Dodge.

A fire started in the spinning room of the No. 1 mill Saturday, and a few pairs of water extinguished the blaze before much damage had been done.

Misses Julia and Belle Howe and Miss Jessie Sargent of East Brookfield, and Miss Sallie Stearns of Upton are visiting friends in town.

LUDLOW CENTER.

Mrs. Emily Phipps, aged 87 years, died Monday.

This last could snap promises to make the ivy ready for harvest.

The children of Otis Tilly at Ludlow City are sick with scarlet fever, and the schools in that district have been closed for a week past.

Rev. Mr. Durgin has returned to his work here, but his wife remains for the present taking care of the children left motherless by the death of her sister.

The Christian Crusaders have just finished a week at the Congregational church, and will leave this vicinity. They began at the Methodist church in November, and since have been at North Wilbraham, Ludlow Mills, and the Congregational church at the Center. In their meetings over 150 persons have professed conversion. The Christian people have become much attached to them and are anxious to have them stay. They expect to go next to Northwick, Ct.

NORTH WILBRAHAM.

Miss Tony Todd of Springfield is at Mrs. E. W. Wall's for a few weeks' visit.

H. E. Gates has recovered from the gripe and started on the road again this week.

The snuffing face of Constable Cooley is seen on the street once more, after his recent illness with the gripe.

A. D. King is around once more attending to customers at the fish market, having recovered from his recent severe illness.

The boarding house belonging to the Wilbraham Woolen Co., at East Wilbraham, was destroyed by fire Friday evening.

Hardly anything was saved. Mr. Noble, who kept the house, losing nearly all of his furniture, besides a sum of money. LeRoy Noble also lost about $75 in money. Cause of fire unknown.

An alarm of fire sounded Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock, caused by the burning of the house of A. D. Tufts of Ludlow, which was totally consumed. Mr. Tufts loses nearly all his furniture also. Insurance on house $1000, on furniture $1000. Dexter has found temporary shelter in the house of Mrs. Mary Egan.

HOLLAND.

No more fears about a severity in the ice crop, and many are busy preparing for the harvest.

There has been a good deal of fishing done on the different ponds in town the past few days, and we hear with good success.

Charles T. Roper has just received a pension. He served in different branches of the army during the entire rebellion, and never received from the strain to his constitution in the service. He has been entirely incapacitated to do any work for over a year, and a great part of the time confined to the house.

Last Thursday as Mrs. F. D. Doolittle, with her daughter, were on their way to Union, Ct., to visit another daughter, they came very near having what might have been a serious accident. As they were driving along over a retired and very rough road, and just emerging from a dense forest, their horse was startled by a sound not unlike the crack of a pistol, but they immediately ascertained that the forward axle of the vehicle had broken, but as the horse was gentle they feared no injury, and by the kindness of a farmer who lived near by their vehicle was transferred to a wagon of his and they pursued their way in safety.

WILBRAHAM.

Mrs. A. L. Merriam and daughter Mary are spending several weeks in Springfield with friends.

The Ladies' Benevolent Society of the Congregational church met with Mrs. Anson South Thursday afternoon and evening.

The day of prayer for the sick was observed at the academy Thursday evening by a prayer and conference meeting in the reading room at Rich Hall in the forenoon, and in the afternoon Rev. Frederick Woods of Westfield preached in the Memorial church, where union services were held.

One of the most prominent Irish citizens of the town, John L. Murphy, died yesterday at the age of 67, after a short illness with pneumonia. Mr. Murphy came to this country in 1849, after having served in the British army. He was one of the best of his kind in his town, and was correspondent for several religious papers. Mr. Murphy was a prominent member of the Catholic society and held at the time of his death the office of secretary of the St. Vincent de Paul society. His funeral will take place at the Catholic church tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock. The burial will be in the Catholic cemetery.

The Phila May concert given in the academy chapel Wednesday evening was a success, auspices of the senior class was a success every way. Mr. Manning's piano playing was indeed fine, and was encored. Mr. Miller, the lyric tenor, rendered his solos in a most satisfactory manner, and was of course encored. Phila May's singing was excellent. Her first selection showed her remarkable voice and was encored; responding she sang the familiar "Annie Laurie" in a most charming way. All her selections were well rendered. Miss Stanley's readings were received with much applause, and she sang in general a decided success, and all seemed well pleased indeed with the entertainment. The senior class netted quite a little sum, which will go into the class treasury to help defray gratulating expenses next June.

BRIMFIELD.

Dr. B. V. Savina's house caught fire from a fireplace about 7 o'clock Wednesday morning, and the interior was so badly burned that it will not pay to repair it. Mrs. Savina was sick in bed at the time, but was safely removed. The most of the furniture was saved, and the loss will be about $4000. The house had recently been purchased by Dr. Savina, who made extensive alterations and finely furnished it.

HAMPDEN.

One hundred new books have been added to the library by the town since Jan. 1st, and will be ready for delivery to-morrow. Since the opening of the library August 1, 1891, 160 persons have taken out 1079 books, an addition to the general knowledge of the friends of literature have been donated, the donors being Rev. Calvin Stebbins, Worcester, Francis C. Sessions, Columbus, O., Mrs. John Q. Adams, Mrs. S. C. Stanton, Hampden. The total number of books in the circulating department at the close of the year is 225.

BELCHERTOWN.

C. D. Henry's Theatre Company is playing a week's engagement at the town hall. The play last Friday evening was not very largely attended.

Miss Ida Fuller was given a surprise party by a number of her friends last Friday evening, at the home of G. A. Keith.

The largest poultry farm in town is that of Eugene Randall, which calls East Valley Poultry Farm. J. W. Jackson has named his Crystal Lake Poultry Farm.

Apprentice Walker, who died at his home in Worcester Monday, was a brother of the late Mrs. Eliza Blackmer of Belchertown, and the last of the family of fourteen of the late Nathaniel Walker.

WEST WARREN.

The Cooperative Association has declared a dividend of 10 per cent.

Mrs. William Webster is able to be out, and is confined to bed.

No. 2 Mill stopped a part of the day Wednesday on account of anchor ice.

Mr. Estey, station agent for the Boston and Albany Railroad, is about to leave his place here.

Mrs. Ellbridge Howe of East Brookfield spent Sunday with her cousin, Miss L. Dodge.

A fire started in the spinning room of the No. 1 mill Saturday, and a few pairs of water extinguished the blaze before much damage had been done.

Misses Julia and Belle Howe and Miss Jessie Sargent of East Brookfield, and Miss Sallie Stearns of Upton are visiting friends in town.

LUDLOW CENTER.

Mrs. Emily Phipps, aged 87 years, died Monday.

This last could snap promises to make the ivy ready for harvest.

The children of Otis Tilly at Ludlow City are sick with scarlet fever, and the schools in that district have been closed for a week past.

Rev. Mr. Durgin has returned to his work here, but his wife remains for the present taking care of the children left motherless by the death of her sister.

ball; board of trustees, Fred W. Kimball, E. J. Buck, E. Fairbanks, W. B. Ramsdell, M. Burroughs; clerk, E. C. Sawyer. The statement of the bank at the close of business January 23, is as follows:—Liabilities: Deposits, $265,307; guarantee fund, $300; interest 1866; profit and loss, $922; total, $275,527. Assets: Bank stock, $48,989; United bonds, $25,811; loans on railroad stock, $50; loans on real estate, $10,448; loans on personal security, $48,892; loans to towns, $2,420; expense account, 412; office fixtures, 600; deposits in bank on interest, 14,878; cash on hand, 1786; total, $275,527.

WARE.

Patrick Mooney died of pneumonia Sunday morning. He was taken from the lockup to Mrs. Hart's boarding house.

There is an attempt being made to organize in Ware the Improved Order of Red Men. Mark Sherwin has the charter list.

J. P. Poro has under his direction the organization of a local minstrel company which is to give an entertainment at the Town Hall Easter week.

The remains of Mrs. LeRoy Cary were brought to Ware for burial, the funeral services being held at the residence of her son, H. O. Cary, on Saturday last.

The European trip that it was expected John P. Robinson would take is decided off, as he does not feel that he can leave this at the busiest time of the year.

The violin recital by the pupils of Miss Fannie Stimpson on Tuesday evening was a most enjoyable occasion, and showed a great advancement of the pupils, two of whom took part.

This Company recently commenced making some new and very handsome patterns of awnings in various colors and new shades. They are now making between 20 and 40 different patterns.

The marble works of the late Patrick Mooney, which are to be sold, offer a good business opening to some one who is a good workman and has the enterprise to do the best work at reasonable prices.

Invitations have been issued to the marriage of George H. Tiffany of W. H. Richardson, to take place next Tuesday at the home of the bride's parents on High street at two o'clock p. m.

The entertainment to have been given in the Firemen's Hall this evening has been postponed on account of the fact that some of those who were near having what might have been a serious accident. As they were driving along over a retired and very rough road, and just emerging from a dense forest, their horse was startled by a sound not unlike the crack of a pistol, but they immediately ascertained that the forward axle of the vehicle had broken, but as the horse was gentle they feared no injury, and by the kindness of a farmer who lived near by their vehicle was transferred to a wagon of his and they pursued their way in safety.

WILBRAHAM.

Mrs. A. L. Merriam and daughter Mary are spending several weeks in Springfield with friends.

The Ladies' Benevolent Society of the Congregational church met with Mrs. Anson South Thursday afternoon and evening.

The day of prayer for the sick was observed at the academy Thursday evening by a prayer and conference meeting in the reading room at Rich Hall in the forenoon, and in the afternoon Rev. Frederick Woods of Westfield preached in the Memorial church, where union services were held.

One of the most prominent Irish citizens of the town, John L. Murphy, died yesterday at the age of 67, after a short illness with pneumonia. Mr. Murphy came to this country in 1849, after having served in the British army. He was one of the best of his kind in his town, and was correspondent for several religious papers. Mr. Murphy was a prominent member of the Catholic society and held at the time of his death the office of secretary of the St. Vincent de Paul society. His funeral will take place at the Catholic church tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock. The burial will be in the Catholic cemetery.

The Phila May concert given in the academy chapel Wednesday evening was a success, auspices of the senior class was a success every way. Mr. Manning's piano playing was indeed fine, and was encored. Mr. Miller, the lyric tenor, rendered his solos in a most satisfactory manner, and was of course encored. Phila May's singing was excellent. Her first selection showed her remarkable voice and was encored; responding she sang the familiar "Annie Laurie" in a most charming way. All her selections were well rendered. Miss Stanley's readings were received with much applause, and she sang in general a decided success, and all seemed well pleased indeed with the entertainment. The senior class netted quite a little sum, which will go into the class treasury to help defray gratulating expenses next June.

BRIMFIELD.

Dr. B. V. Savina's house caught fire from a fireplace about 7 o'clock Wednesday morning, and the interior was so badly burned that it will not pay to repair it. Mrs. Savina was sick in bed at the time, but was safely removed. The most of the furniture was saved, and the loss will be about $4000. The house had recently been purchased by Dr. Savina, who made extensive alterations and finely furnished it.

HAMPDEN.

One hundred new books have been added to the library by the town since Jan. 1st, and will be ready for delivery to-morrow. Since the opening of the library August 1, 1891, 160 persons have taken out 1079 books, an addition to the general knowledge of the friends of literature have been donated, the donors being Rev. Calvin Stebbins, Worcester, Francis C. Sessions, Columbus, O., Mrs. John Q. Adams, Mrs. S. C. Stanton, Hampden. The total number of books in the circulating department at the close of the year is 225.

BELCHERTOWN.

C. D. Henry's Theatre Company is playing a week's engagement at the town hall. The play last Friday evening was not very largely attended.

Miss Ida Fuller was given a surprise party by a number of her friends last Friday evening, at the home of G. A. Keith.

The largest poultry farm in town is that of Eugene Randall, which calls East Valley Poultry Farm. J. W. Jackson has named his Crystal Lake Poultry Farm.

Apprentice Walker, who died at his home in Worcester Monday, was a brother of the late Mrs. Eliza Blackmer of Belchertown, and the last of the family of fourteen of the late Nathaniel Walker.

WEST WARREN.

The Cooperative Association has declared a dividend of 10 per cent.

Mrs. William Webster is able to be out, and is confined to bed.

No. 2 Mill stopped a part of the day Wednesday on account of anchor ice.

Mr. Estey, station agent for the Boston and Albany Railroad, is about to leave his place here.

Mrs. Ellbridge Howe of East Brookfield spent Sunday with her cousin, Miss L. Dodge.

A fire started in the spinning room of the No. 1 mill Saturday, and a few pairs of water extinguished the blaze before much damage had been done.

Misses Julia and Belle Howe and Miss Jessie Sargent of East Brookfield, and Miss Sallie Stearns of Upton are visiting friends in town.

LUDLOW CENTER.

Mrs. Emily Phipps, aged 87 years, died Monday.

This last could snap promises to make the ivy ready for harvest.

The children of Otis Tilly at Ludlow City are sick with scarlet fever, and the schools in that district have been closed for a week past.

Rev. Mr. Durgin has returned to his work here, but his wife remains for the present taking care of the children left motherless by the death of her sister.

among the members of the workers has also been helpful; the thought of having a little place that we speak of as ours, the home feeling it has engendered, has had a consolidating influence on the band. We are sorry that we have not been able to put this hall to use, as we could and certainly would, do if circumstances permitted. For instance, from the fifth to the fifteenth of January we provided a place of shelter for 51 poor men belonging to the class commonly known as tramps, but we had to discontinue them in our hall. I hope no one will think we were moved to this effort in a purely humanitarian sense, but rather as using this means in order to reach them with something better than a place to sleep in or to have their hunger appeased; probably 40 to 50 of these men pass through our town every week,—men in a few years means thousands,—and just how many of them have been reminded by God's people in this place that they have immortal souls to be saved, that all the blessed promises of God's word are theirs, that through Christ we cannot say, "If you have tried to show them that Christ died for them, that they have a higher place in this world than they are now leading,—in short that they should be men, and make the most of themselves,—and above all, that they are connected to the strength to do all this. In the few days we were enabled to read God's word to 51 poor fellows who probably never heard that word read, and that they have bowed with us in prayer and praise, and that they have been reminded by God's word to do all this. In the few days we were enabled to read God's word to 51 poor fellows who probably never heard that word read, and that they have bowed with us in prayer and praise, and that they have been reminded by God's word to do all this.

WARE.

Patrick Mooney died of pneumonia Sunday morning. He was taken from the lockup to Mrs. Hart's boarding house.

There is an attempt being made to organize in Ware the Improved Order of Red Men. Mark Sherwin has the charter list.

J. P. Poro has under his direction the organization of a local minstrel company which is to give an entertainment at the Town Hall Easter week.

The remains of Mrs. LeRoy Cary were brought to Ware for burial, the funeral services being held at the residence of her son, H. O. Cary, on Saturday last.

The European trip that it was expected John P. Robinson would take is decided off, as he does not feel that he can leave this at the busiest time of the year.

The violin recital by the pupils of Miss Fannie Stimpson on Tuesday evening was a most enjoyable occasion, and showed a great advancement of the pupils, two of whom took part.

This Company recently commenced making some new and very handsome patterns of awnings in various colors and new shades. They are now making between 20 and 40 different patterns.

The marble works of the late Patrick Mooney, which are to be sold, offer a good business opening to some one who is a good workman and has the enterprise to do the best work at reasonable prices.

Invitations have been issued to the marriage of George H. Tiffany of W. H. Richardson, to take place next Tuesday at the home of the bride's parents on High street at two o'clock p. m.

The entertainment to have been given in the Firemen's Hall this evening has been postponed on account of the fact that some of those who were near having what might have been a serious accident. As they were driving along over a retired and very rough road, and just emerging from a dense forest, their horse was startled by a sound not unlike the crack of a pistol, but they immediately ascertained that the forward axle of the vehicle had broken, but as the horse was gentle they feared no injury, and by the kindness of a farmer who lived near by their vehicle was transferred to a wagon of his and they pursued their way in safety.

WILBRAHAM.

Mrs. A. L. Merriam and daughter Mary are spending several weeks in Springfield with friends.

The Ladies' Benevolent Society of the Congregational church met with Mrs. Anson South Thursday afternoon and evening.

The day of prayer for the sick was observed at the academy Thursday evening by a prayer and conference meeting in the reading room at Rich Hall in the forenoon, and in the afternoon Rev. Frederick Woods of Westfield preached in the Memorial church, where union services were held.

One of the most prominent Irish citizens of the town, John L. Murphy, died yesterday at the age of 67, after a short illness with pneumonia. Mr. Murphy came to this country in 1849, after having served in the British army. He was one of the best of his kind in his town, and was correspondent for several religious papers. Mr. Murphy was a prominent member of the Catholic society and held at the time of his death the office of secretary of the St. Vincent de Paul society. His funeral will take place at the Catholic church tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock. The burial will be in the Catholic cemetery.

The Phila May concert given in the academy chapel Wednesday evening was a success, auspices of the senior class was a success every way. Mr. Manning's piano playing was indeed fine, and was encored. Mr. Miller, the lyric tenor, rendered his solos in a most satisfactory manner, and was of course encored. Phila May's singing was excellent. Her first selection showed her remarkable voice and was encored; responding she sang the familiar "Annie Laurie" in a most charming way. All her selections were well rendered. Miss Stanley's readings were received with much applause, and she sang in general a decided success, and all seemed well pleased indeed with the entertainment. The senior class netted quite a little sum, which will go into the class treasury to help defray gratulating expenses next June.

BRIMFIELD.

Dr. B. V. Savina's house caught fire from a fireplace about 7 o'clock Wednesday morning, and the interior was so badly burned that it will not pay to repair it. Mrs. Savina was sick in bed at the time, but was safely removed. The most of the furniture was saved, and the loss will be about $4000. The house had recently been purchased by Dr. Savina, who made extensive alterations and finely furnished it.

HAMPDEN.

One hundred new books have been added to the library by the town since Jan. 1st, and will be ready for delivery to-morrow. Since the opening of the library August 1, 1891, 160 persons have taken out 1079 books, an addition to the general knowledge of the friends of literature have been donated, the donors being Rev. Calvin Stebbins, Worcester, Francis C. Sessions, Columbus, O., Mrs. John Q. Adams, Mrs. S. C. Stanton, Hampden. The total number of books in the circulating department at the close of the year is 225.

BELCHERTOWN.

C. D. Henry's Theatre Company is playing a week's engagement at the town hall. The play last Friday evening was not very largely attended.

Miss Ida Fuller was given a surprise party by a number of her friends last Friday evening, at the home of G. A. Keith.

The largest poultry farm in town is that of Eugene Randall, which calls East Valley Poultry Farm. J. W. Jackson has named his Crystal Lake Poultry Farm.

Apprentice Walker, who died at his home in Worcester Monday, was a brother of the late Mrs. Eliza Blackmer of Belchertown, and the last of the family of fourteen of the late Nathaniel Walker.

WEST WARREN.

The Cooperative Association has declared a dividend of 10 per cent.

Mrs. William Webster is able to be out, and is confined to bed.

No. 2 Mill stopped a part of the day Wednesday on account of anchor ice.

Mr. Estey, station agent for the Boston and Albany Railroad, is about to leave his place here.

Mrs. Ellbridge Howe of East Brookfield spent Sunday with her cousin, Miss L. Dodge.

A fire started in the spinning room of the No. 1 mill Saturday, and a few pairs of water extinguished the blaze before much damage had been done.

Misses Julia and Belle Howe and Miss Jessie Sargent of East Brookfield, and Miss Sallie Stearns of Upton are visiting friends in town.

LUDLOW CENTER.

Mrs. Emily Phipps, aged 87 years, died Monday.

This last could snap promises to make the ivy ready for harvest.

The children of Otis Tilly at Ludlow City are sick with scarlet fever, and the schools in that district have been closed for a week past.

Rev. Mr. Durgin has returned to his work here, but his wife remains for the present taking care of the children left motherless by the death of her sister.

As the name indicates, Hall's Vegetable Sillian Hair Renewer is a renewer of the hair, including its growth, health, youthful color and beauty. It will please you.

Is He Your Friend?

Is the family doctor your friend? How many unnecessary visits does he make you? How many days does he keep you sick that you ought to be at work, and do he know how many hard-earned dollars does he extort from you? Would it not be better for you to place your trust in Sulphur Bitters? Try them, they will be a true friend, saving you long sickness and a large bill, which you have hitherto paid to some avaricious doctor.—Editorial Journal.

The Housekeeper's Friend.

A friend in need is a friend indeed, and such a friend you will always find in Sulphur Bitters. They cured me of dyspepsia when I had given up life in despair and was almost at death's door. They are a true friend of the sick.—Mrs. R. C. Rogers, Hartford,

Castoria

For Infants and Children.
Castoria promotes Digestion, and overcomes Flatulency, Constipation, Sour Stomach, Diarrhoea, and Feverishness. Thus the child is rendered healthy and its sleep natural. Castoria contains no Morphine or other narcotic property.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as a superior to any preparation known to me."
—H. J. A. MURPHY, M.D., N. Y.
111 South Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"I use Castoria in my practice, and find it especially adapted to children."
—J. C. MORTON, M.D., N. Y.
107 St. Ave., New York.

"From personal knowledge and observation I can say that Castoria is a safe and reliable remedy for children, and its use is a great relief to the mother."
—J. C. MORTON, M.D., N. Y.
107 St. Ave., New York.

THE CENTRAL OFFICE, 77 Murray Street, N. Y.

BOSTON & MAINE R. R.

SOUTHERN DIVISION
(CENTRAL MASSACHUSETTS)

WINTER ARRANGEMENT, OCTOBER 4, 1891.

TRAINS LEAVE WARE:

GOING EAST
FOR Boston—6:00, 7:00, 8:15 a.m.; 3:15, 4:20 p.m.

GOING WEST
FOR Worcester—7:00, 8:15 a.m.; 3:15 p.m. Sundays, 7:00 a.m.

RETURNS—Leave Worcester 8:50 a.m.; 2:25, 4:00, 6:20 p.m.

FOR Oakdale, Hudson and Waltham—7:00, 8:15 a.m.; 3:15 p.m. Sundays, 7:00 a.m.

FOR Springfield, Hartford and New Haven—7:00, 8:15 a.m.; 3:15 p.m. Sundays, 7:00 a.m.

GOING WEST
FOR Boston—6:00, 7:00, 8:15 a.m.; 3:15, 4:20 p.m.

GOING EAST
FOR Worcester—7:00, 8:15 a.m.; 3:15 p.m. Sundays, 7:00 a.m.

RETURNS—Leave Worcester 8:50 a.m.; 2:25, 4:00, 6:20 p.m.

FOR Oakdale, Hudson and Waltham—7:00, 8:15 a.m.; 3:15 p.m. Sundays, 7:00 a.m.

FOR Springfield, Hartford and New Haven—7:00, 8:15 a.m.; 3:15 p.m. Sundays, 7:00 a.m.

GOING WEST
FOR Boston—6:00, 7:00, 8:15 a.m.; 3:15, 4:20 p.m.

GOING EAST
FOR Worcester—7:00, 8:15 a.m.; 3:15 p.m. Sundays, 7:00 a.m.

RETURNS—Leave Worcester 8:50 a.m.; 2:25, 4:00, 6:20 p.m.

FOR Oakdale, Hudson and Waltham—7:00, 8:15 a.m.; 3:15 p.m. Sundays, 7:00 a.m.

FOR Springfield, Hartford and New Haven—7:00, 8:15 a.m.; 3:15 p.m. Sundays, 7:00 a.m.

GOING WEST
FOR Boston—6:00, 7:00, 8:15 a.m.; 3:15, 4:20 p.m.

GOING EAST
FOR Worcester—7:00, 8:15 a.m.; 3:15 p.m. Sundays, 7:00 a.m.

RETURNS—Leave Worcester 8:50 a.m.; 2:25, 4:00, 6:20 p.m.

FOR Oakdale, Hudson and Waltham—7:00, 8:15 a.m.; 3:15 p.m. Sundays, 7:00 a.m.

FOR Springfield, Hartford and New Haven—7:00, 8:15 a.m.; 3:15 p.m. Sundays, 7:00 a.m.

GOING WEST
FOR Boston—6:00, 7:00, 8:15 a.m.; 3:15, 4:20 p.m.

GOING EAST
FOR Worcester—7:00, 8:15 a.m.; 3:15 p.m. Sundays, 7:00 a.m.

RETURNS—Leave Worcester 8:50 a.m.; 2:25, 4:00, 6:20 p.m.

FOR Oakdale, Hudson and Waltham—7:00, 8:15 a.m.; 3:15 p.m. Sundays, 7:00 a.m.

FOR Springfield, Hartford and New Haven—7:00, 8:15 a.m.; 3:15 p.m. Sundays, 7:00 a.m.

GOING WEST
FOR Boston—6:00, 7:00, 8:15 a.m.; 3:15, 4:20 p.m.

GOING EAST
FOR Worcester—7:00, 8:15 a.m.; 3:15 p.m. Sundays, 7:00 a.m.

RETURNS—Leave Worcester 8:50 a.m.; 2:25, 4:00, 6:20 p.m.

FOR Oakdale, Hudson and Waltham—7:00, 8:15 a.m.; 3:15 p.m. Sundays, 7:00 a.m.

FOR Springfield, Hartford and New Haven—7:00, 8:15 a.m.; 3:15 p.m. Sundays, 7:00 a.m.

GOING WEST
FOR Boston—6:00, 7:00, 8:15 a.m.; 3:15, 4:20 p.m.

GOING EAST
FOR Worcester—7:00, 8:15 a.m.; 3:15 p.m. Sundays, 7:00 a.m.

RETURNS—Leave Worcester 8:50 a.m.; 2:25, 4:00, 6:20 p.m.

FOR Oakdale, Hudson and Waltham—7:00, 8:15 a.m.; 3:15 p.m. Sundays, 7:00 a.m.

FOR Springfield, Hartford and New Haven—7:00, 8:15 a.m.; 3:15 p.m. Sundays, 7:00 a.m.

GOING WEST
FOR Boston—6:00, 7:00, 8:15 a.m.; 3:15, 4:20 p.m.

GOING EAST
FOR Worcester—7:00, 8:15 a.m.; 3:15 p.m. Sundays, 7:00 a.m.

RETURNS—Leave Worcester 8:50 a.m.; 2:25, 4:00, 6:20 p.m.

FOR Oakdale, Hudson and Waltham—7:00, 8:15 a.m.; 3:15 p.m. Sundays, 7:00 a.m.

FOR Springfield, Hartford and New Haven—7:00, 8:15 a.m.; 3:15 p.m. Sundays, 7:00 a.m.

GOING WEST
FOR Boston—6:00, 7:00, 8:15 a.m.; 3:15, 4:20 p.m.

GOING EAST
FOR Worcester—7:00, 8:15 a.m.; 3:15 p.m. Sundays, 7:00 a.m.

RETURNS—Leave Worcester 8:50 a.m.; 2:25, 4:00, 6:20 p.m.

FOR Oakdale, Hudson and Waltham—7:00, 8:15 a.m.; 3:15 p.m. Sundays, 7:00 a.m.

FOR Springfield, Hartford and New Haven—7:00, 8:15 a.m.; 3:15 p.m. Sundays, 7:00 a.m.

GOING WEST
FOR Boston—6:00, 7:00, 8:15 a.m.; 3:15, 4:20 p.m.

GOING EAST
FOR Worcester—7:00, 8:15 a.m.; 3:15 p.m. Sundays, 7:00 a.m.

RETURNS—Leave Worcester 8:50 a.m.; 2:25, 4:00, 6:20 p.m.

FOR Oakdale, Hudson and Waltham—7:00, 8:15 a.m.; 3:15 p.m. Sundays, 7:00 a.m.

FOR Springfield, Hartford and New Haven—7:00, 8:15 a.m.; 3:15 p.m. Sundays, 7:00 a.m.

GOING WEST
FOR Boston—6:00, 7:00, 8:15 a.m.; 3:15, 4:20 p.m.

GOING EAST
FOR Worcester—7:00, 8:15 a.m.; 3:15 p.m. Sundays, 7:00 a.m.

RETURNS—Leave Worcester 8:50 a.m.; 2:25, 4:00, 6:20 p.m.

FOR Oakdale, Hudson and Waltham—7:00, 8:15 a.m.; 3:15 p.m. Sundays, 7:00 a.m.

FOR Springfield, Hartford and New Haven—7:00, 8:15 a.m.; 3:15 p.m. Sundays, 7:00 a.m.

GOING WEST
FOR Boston—6:00, 7:00, 8:15 a.m.; 3:15, 4:20 p.m.

GOING EAST
FOR Worcester—7:00, 8:15 a.m.; 3:15 p.m. Sundays, 7:00 a.m.

RETURNS—Leave Worcester 8:50 a.m.; 2:25, 4:00, 6:20 p.m.

FOR Oakdale, Hudson and Waltham—7:00, 8:15 a.m.; 3:15 p.m. Sundays, 7:00 a.m.

FOR Springfield, Hartford and New Haven—7:00, 8:15 a.m.; 3:15 p.m. Sundays, 7:00 a.m.

GOING WEST
FOR Boston—6:00, 7:00, 8:15 a.m.; 3:15, 4:20 p.m.

GOING EAST
FOR Worcester—7:00, 8:15 a.m.; 3:15 p.m. Sundays, 7:00 a.m.

RETURNS—Leave Worcester 8:50 a.m.; 2:25, 4:00, 6:20 p.m.

FOR Oakdale, Hudson and Waltham—7:00, 8:15 a.m.; 3:15 p.m. Sundays, 7:00 a.m.

FOR Springfield, Hartford and New Haven—7:00, 8:15 a.m.; 3:15 p.m. Sundays, 7:00 a.m.

GOING WEST
FOR Boston—6:00, 7:00, 8:15 a.m.; 3:15, 4:20 p.m.

GOING EAST
FOR Worcester—7:00, 8:15 a.m.; 3:15 p.m. Sundays, 7:00 a.m.

RETURNS—Leave Worcester 8:50 a.m.; 2:25, 4:00, 6:20 p.m.

FOR Oakdale, Hudson and Waltham—7:00, 8:15 a.m.; 3:15 p.m. Sundays, 7:00 a.m.

FOR Springfield, Hartford and New Haven—7:00, 8:15 a.m.; 3:15 p.m. Sundays, 7:00 a.m.

GOING WEST
FOR Boston—6:00, 7:00, 8:15 a.m.; 3:15, 4:20 p.m.

GOING EAST
FOR Worcester—7:00, 8:15 a.m.; 3:15 p.m. Sundays, 7:00 a.m.

RETURNS—Leave Worcester 8:50 a.m.; 2:25, 4:00, 6:20 p.m.

FOR Oakdale, Hudson and Waltham—7:00, 8:15 a.m.; 3:15 p.m. Sundays, 7:00 a.m.

FOR Springfield, Hartford and New Haven—7:00, 8:15 a.m.; 3:15 p.m. Sundays, 7:00 a.m.

GOING WEST
FOR Boston—6:00, 7:00, 8:15 a.m.; 3:15, 4:20 p.m.

GOING EAST
FOR Worcester—7:00, 8:15 a.m.; 3:15 p.m. Sundays, 7:00 a.m.

RETURNS—Leave Worcester 8:50 a.m.; 2:25, 4:00, 6:20 p.m.

FOR Oakdale, Hudson and Waltham—7:00, 8:15 a.m.; 3:15 p.m. Sundays, 7:00 a.m.

FOR Springfield, Hartford and New Haven—7:00, 8:15 a.m.; 3:15 p.m. Sundays, 7:00 a.m.

GOING WEST
FOR Boston—6:00, 7:00, 8:15 a.m.; 3:15, 4:20 p.m.

GOING EAST
FOR Worcester—7:00, 8:15 a.m.; 3:15 p.m. Sundays, 7:00 a.m.

RETURNS—Leave Worcester 8:50 a.m.; 2:25, 4:00, 6:20 p.m.

FOR Oakdale, Hudson and Waltham—7:00, 8:15 a.m.; 3:15 p.m. Sundays, 7:00 a.m.

Johnnie's Growth.

Lay away the little shirt waist that our darling boy once wore, in the ragged gossamer shirt, the little vest, the little trousers, the little shoes, the little socks, the little hats, the little everything. For the fact is most apparent—Johnnie's growth is now.

Lay aside the knickerbockers with the fringe around the knees; Take the marbles from the pocket; All the strings and neckties; Put him into a pair of trousers; Or the boy will have a row; For our darling has grown—Johnnie's growth is now.

AMONG THE PARAGRAPHERS.

The clock struck twelve, he said "Good-night!" "Good-night, my dear," said she. Then to the door she turned and parted just at three.

—New York Herald.

Man—"Why don't you follow some trade?"

Trump—"I did, but I never caught up with it."—Artisan.

The penance may not be inclined to gossip, but he has to spread his little-colored tail about the neighborhood.—Elmira Gazette.

"Skill waiting for your ship to come in, eh?" "Oh, they've come. Whole fleet of 'em. All handshakes."—Indianapolis Journal.

The Sweet Girl Graduate—"And what do you think, Maud?" Then he winked at her with his other eye. "His other eye?" "His other eye, of course."—Life.

Children are happy because they never worry about tomorrow. You can't be young again, but you can be as happy as a child if you will adopt its plan.—Atlantic Globe.

"Do you notice how often engineers display a fondness for their engines?" "Well, do not the engines return it by having a tender attachment for the men?"—Baltimore American.

"There was a man in front of my house yesterday with an infernal machine," said Barker. "How terrible!" said Miss Mellow. "What did it look like?" "Like any other hand organ."—Harper's Bazar.

Enough to Keep Him Busy. Wife—"I've got to go to a dress reform meeting to-night."

Mr. Sim—"I'll go with you. I have several buttons to sew on."—Comic Review.

"I suppose that cross little lady sister of yours is a climax to your troubles, eh, Tom?"

"Not exactly a climax, sir," replied the dignified Tom; "I should rather call her a cry-sis."—Baltimore American.

Photographer—"Is there any particular way in which you would like to be taken?"

Mr. Sim—"Yes, sir. If there's no objection, I'd like to be taken a light cream color."—Smith, G. & Co's Monthly.

Highly Recommended. "Good morning, Brodew. I see that you still have that bad cold."

"Yes, I'm pretty miserable." "You ought to try Smith's Bitters for the cold."

"I have tried it, but it doesn't seem to do much good."—New York Sun.

"You spend all your time with that Gordon girl. Why did you insist on my marrying you when I told you I could never marry her?"

"Well, I knew I could undertake that job myself."—Epoch.

Jimmy—"Pa, I wish I could be a pirate and sail the Spanish main and such things."

Mr. Sebring—"Well, you just take this bottle of Smith's Bitters and sail the Spanish main and such things."

"I'll sail the Spanish main and such things, but I'll sail the Spanish main and such things."

"I'll sail the Spanish main and such things, but I'll sail the Spanish main and such things."

"I'll sail the Spanish main and such things, but I'll sail the Spanish main and such things."

"I'll sail the Spanish main and such things, but I'll sail the Spanish main and such things."

"I'll sail the Spanish main and such things, but I'll sail the Spanish main and such things."

"I'll sail the Spanish main and such things, but I'll sail the Spanish main and such things."

"I'll sail the Spanish main and such things, but I'll sail the Spanish main and such things."

"I'll sail the Spanish main and such things, but I'll sail the Spanish main and such things."

"I'll sail the Spanish main and such things, but I'll sail the Spanish main and such things."

"I'll sail the Spanish main and such things, but I'll sail the Spanish main and such things."

"I'll sail the Spanish main and such things, but I'll sail the Spanish main and such things."

"I'll sail the Spanish main and such things, but I'll sail the Spanish main and such things."

"I'll sail the Spanish main and such things, but I'll sail the Spanish main and such things."

"I'll sail the Spanish main and such things, but I'll sail the Spanish main and such things."

"I'll sail the Spanish main and such things, but I'll sail the Spanish main and such things."

"I'll sail the Spanish main and such things, but I'll sail the Spanish main and such things."

"I'll sail the Spanish main and such things, but I'll sail the Spanish main and such things."

"I'll sail the Spanish main and such things, but I'll sail the Spanish main and such things."

"I'll sail the Spanish main and such things, but I'll sail the Spanish main and such things."

"I'll sail the Spanish main and such things, but I'll sail the Spanish main and such things."

"I'll sail the Spanish main and such things, but I'll sail the Spanish main and such things."

"I'll sail the Spanish main and such things, but I'll sail the Spanish main and such things."

"I'll sail the Spanish main and such things, but I'll sail the Spanish main and such things."

"I'll sail the Spanish main and such things, but I'll sail the Spanish main and such things."

"I'll sail the Spanish main and such things, but I'll sail the Spanish main and such things."

"I'll sail the Spanish main and such things, but I'll sail the Spanish main and such things."

"I'll sail the Spanish main and such things, but I'll sail the Spanish main and such things."

"I'll sail the Spanish main and such things, but I'll sail the Spanish main and such things."

"I'll sail the Spanish main and such things, but I'll sail the Spanish main and such things."

"I'll sail the Spanish main and such things, but I'll sail the Spanish main and such things."

"I'll sail the Spanish main and such things, but I'll sail the Spanish main and such things."

"I'll sail the Spanish main and such things, but I'll sail the Spanish main and such things."

"I'll sail the Spanish main and such things, but I'll sail the Spanish main and such things."

"I'll sail the Spanish main and such things, but I'll sail the Spanish main and such things."

"I'll sail the Spanish main and such things, but I'll sail the Spanish main and such things."

"I'll sail the Spanish main and such things, but I'll sail the Spanish main and such things."

"I'll sail the Spanish main and such things, but I'll sail the Spanish main and such things."

"I'll sail the Spanish main and such things, but I'll sail the Spanish main and such things."

"I'll sail the Spanish main and such things, but I'll sail the Spanish main and such things."

"I'll sail the Spanish main and such things, but I'll sail the Spanish main and such things."

"I'll sail the Spanish main and such things, but I'll sail the Spanish main and such things."

"I'll sail the Spanish main and such things, but I'll sail the Spanish main and such things."

"I'll sail the Spanish main and such things, but I'll sail the Spanish main and such things."

"I'll sail the Spanish main and such things, but I'll sail the Spanish main and such things."

"I'll sail the Spanish main and such things, but I'll sail the Spanish main and such things."

"I'll sail the Spanish main and such things, but I'll sail the Spanish main and such things."

"I'll sail the Spanish main and such things, but I'll sail the Spanish main and such things."

"I'll sail the Spanish main and such things, but I'll sail the Spanish main and such things."

"I'll sail the Spanish main and such things, but I'll sail the Spanish main and such things."

"I'll sail the Spanish main and such things, but I'll sail the Spanish main and such things."

"I'll sail the Spanish main and such things, but I'll sail the Spanish main and such things."

"I'll sail the Spanish main and such things, but I'll sail the Spanish main and such things."

"I'll sail the Spanish main and such things, but I'll sail the Spanish main and such things."

"I'll sail the Spanish main and such things, but I'll sail the Spanish main and such things."

"I'll sail the Spanish main and such things, but I'll sail the Spanish main and such things."

"I'll sail the Spanish main and such things, but I'll sail the Spanish main and such things."

"I'll sail the Spanish main and such things, but I'll sail the Spanish main and such things."

"I'll sail the Spanish main and such things, but I'll sail the Spanish main and such things."

"I'll sail the Spanish main and such things, but I'll sail the Spanish main and such things."

"I'll sail the Spanish main and such things, but I'll sail the Spanish main and such things."

"I'll sail the Spanish main and such things, but I'll sail the Spanish main and such things."

"I'll sail the Spanish main and such things, but I'll sail the Spanish main and such things."

"I'll sail the Spanish main and such things, but I'll sail the Spanish main and such things."

"I'll sail the Spanish main and such things, but I'll sail the Spanish main and such things."

"I'll sail the Spanish main and such things, but I'll sail the Spanish main and such things."

"I'll sail the Spanish main and such things, but I'll sail the Spanish main and such things."

"I'll sail the Spanish main and such things, but I'll sail the Spanish main and such things."

Out of Sorts

Describe a feeling peculiar to persons of dyspepsia, or caused by change of climate, or of life. The stomach is out of order, the head aches or does not feel right.

The Nerves

seem strained to their utmost, the mind is confused and irritable. This condition finds an excellent corrective in Hood's Sarsaparilla, which, by its regulating and tonic powers, soon cures restores harmony to the system, gives strength of mind, nerves and body, while it also purifies the blood and removes all trace of scrofula, salt rheum, etc.

Indigestion

Sick Headache

"Hood's Sarsaparilla has given me great satisfaction. I have been troubled at times with indigestion, accompanied by sick headache. It always affords immediate relief."

Hood's Sarsaparilla

certainly does all that is claimed for it.—W. D. Brock, Ticket Broker, Middle St., Portland, Me. HOOD'S PILLS cure liver bile, constipation, indigestion, jaundice, sick headache, indigestion.

The Hartford Safety.

THE HARTFORD

LADIES' SAFETY.

PRICE $100.

REV. CHARLES HADDOX SPURROCK, the noted English divine, died Sunday night at the age of 58.

JAMES G. BLAKE was 62 years old last Sunday, with an apparent prospect for a good many years to come.

ACCORDING to the count of last December's vote in the cities it is shown that an average of 29 per cent of the voters on the list did not vote at all on the license question. The average was 30 per cent and the no vote 35 per cent.

THAT electricity seems to be the coming power for railroads there can be little doubt. General Manager Almsbury of the Central Railroad reports that his company will probably run trains by that power before the world's fair is at an end.

THE Boston Typographical Union wants the state to set up a printing office of its own, instead of letting the work go on a contract basis. It is a very old union. The government printing office at Washington is a good illustration of how much money can be spent for a very little work, and Massachusetts hasn't any funds to throw away at that manner.

SOME women have an unswerving devotion for the man they call husband, no matter how great a brute he may be. As for instance the Boston woman whose husband deliberately saturated her clothing with kerosene and then set them on fire, she refused to testify in any way against the fellow and the end only got one year in the house of correction.

THE Foley liquor bill, recently introduced in the New York Legislature, is quite a nature. It provides for the sale of liquors 15 hours out of the 24 in the week, makes it a misdemeanor for any officer to enter a place where liquor is sold at times when it is forbidden by law, or to allow liquor or secure information upon which to base possession. Its passage would mean freedom for the entire state.

IT is reported that the managers of the Louisiana Lottery Company have given up their attempt to secure a new lease of life from the state, and will go out of the business when their present charter expires in 1894. The management by Congress of the anti-lottery postal law, which the supreme court has just declared constitutional, the war against it in all parts of the country, and the fact that the new charter would cost $1,250,000 a year, doubtless had much to do with the decision.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., tried to have a sensation Sunday when a large schooner from St. John's N. B., sailed into the harbor flying the British jack unaccompanied by the stars and stripes. There was great indignation for a time, crowds of people gathered on the wharves and the militia were for tearing it down at once, but good judgment prevailed and it was finally learned that there was no law to compel vessels coming into the port to fly the American flag in connection with their own, though it has become the custom so to do.

THE United States supreme court rendered a decision Monday upholding the constitutionality of the anti-lottery postal act, which prohibited the sending through the mails of newspapers containing lottery advertisements. The decision was that the power vested in Congress to establish post offices and post roads, and to regulate the mail, was the entire postal system of the country and designated what may and what may not be excluded. The power granted Congress was complete and carried with it the power to forbid the use of the mails in aid of the perpetration of crime. The immorality, the injury, the abridgment of the freedom of the press, for the reason that the government does not prohibit communication by other means, but simply through the government agencies which it controls.

THE lawful governor of Nebraska is James E. Boyd, according to a recent decision of the United States supreme court. Boyd was elected by 1000 plurality in November 1880, but the next May the state supreme court ousted him by a vote of 2 to 1 on the ground that he was an alien at the time of his election because his father, in October, 1839, had been unable to produce his naturalization papers, both father and son having been born in Ireland. The chief Boyd wanted to show that in 1849 he had declared his intention to become a citizen, but the record of the completion of the naturalization process could not be found. In the mean time he had been officially recognized as a citizen of Ohio, had voted at elections for years and had held various petty offices, and the court decided that the mere failure to produce the record of his final naturalization does not warrant the conclusion that he was still an alien, in view of the record of his having once declared his intentions and of his having exercised all the rights of citizenship.

SHORT NEWS NOTES.
Peter Gillman was drowned Sunday while skating at Stafford Springs, Ct.
A girl of 16 was married to a clergyman of 40 at Danbury, Ct., Sunday evening.
The Methodist church at Middlebury, Vt., was burned last Saturday, the loss being $100,000.
Andrew Borjesen was hanged at Litchfield, Ct., last Friday for the murder of his wife.
Mr. and Mrs. Solomon L. Taylor of Hingham celebrated their 64th year of married life last Saturday.
The 25th anniversary of the Vermont department of the Grand Army was held at Montpelier last week.
Bridgeport, Ct., led its sixtieth birthday free within two weeks Sunday night, a large band being invited.
A crowded tenement house was burned at New York Sunday, two lives being lost and several persons seriously injured.
A new bank, the New National, is to be opened in Holyoke March 1st with a capital of $100,000 and a paid-in surplus of $50,000.
Ex-Lieut. Gov. Oscar Knapp of Hallowell, Me., was killed by a dropped dead of heart disease in the depot at Portland Monday.
Another dividend of 20 per cent is to be paid on the claims against the Maverick National Bank of Boston, making 60 per cent thus far.
A stay of proceedings has been granted in the case of Dr. Graves at Denver, Colo., sentenced to hang for poisoning Mrs. Harnack.
Alexander Grant, Jr., who made the first pair of peg-legs in Massachusetts, whittling out the pegs by hand, died at West Medway Tuesday.
A large number of the prisoners at Deer Island started a riot Wednesday morning, but it was soon quelled by the use of police from Boston.
One of the new battle ships now being built for the navy is to be named the Massachusetts, in honor of the Massachusetts town of that name.
Miss Clara Harlow, president of the Red Cross society, suggests that Philadelphia, Pa., and Boston raise $25,000 each for the Russian famine sufferers.
Ex-Gov. Hilditch of Springfield has been appointed a special agent of the United States marshal to prosecute the Maverick National Bank officers at Boston.
It is reported that John Roy, ex-president of the Adams Express Company, has formed a new company to be known as the Pennsylvania Railroad Express Company.
A special commission of expert engineers has recommended that the city of Worcester be abolished. The total expense of the change is estimated at $2,000,000.
The records show that 177 passengers and 220 employees were killed in railroad accidents last year, 118 passengers and 147 employees being injured. One hundred of the 177 passengers lost their lives in nine accidents.
Carlyle W. Harris, the New York medical student who has been in trial for the murder of his schoolgirl wife, Helen Potts, by poisoning, has been found guilty of murder in the first degree. He has been sentenced to hang by the electric chair and is expected to die within a few days.

LOCAL NOTES.

Will the people of Palmer who have stayed out of the city to see that they are returned at once. H. Merrill.

PALMER NEWS.

G. M. Shaw has moved his family to West Brimfield.

C. A. Brown is confined to his house with rheumatism.

Mrs. O. M. Kimmy has purchased a house in Springfield.

Mrs. Henry Atkins has gone to Boston for a visit of several weeks.

H. D. Converse and wife have returned from their wedding trip.

Mrs. G. C. Ellis has recovered from a severe attack of the grippe.

Joseph Provost has sold his horse and carriage to Bondville residents.

Palmer lodge of Odd Fellows will initiate four candidates this evening.

Mrs. L. E. Child returned Wednesday from her visit in St. Louis.

Only one new case of scarlet fever has been reported in this village this week.

Mrs. John Tyler of Fox avenue has gone to visit her sister in New York state.

Walter E. Kinney of Springfield spent Sunday with his mother on Pine street.

Miss Gertrude Browning has left her position in the store of Mrs. L. E. Carpenter.

William Merriam is adding another story to the wing of his house on Pleasant street.

C. K. Gamwell has sold his brood mare and two colts to A. B. Merrill for about $800.

Agent Edson of the State Board of Education made a call on the high school Monday.

Woodhead & Wood have their photograph gallery on Commercial street ready for business.

G. W. Fly has paid the fire district $1000 of back taxes, leaving only $500 or $600 unpaid.

Rev. Mr. Torsell of Southbridge will preach in St. Paul's Universalist church next Sunday.

Dr. William Hubbard attended a meeting of the state board of agriculture at Boston Wednesday.

Dr. C. W. Cross has been confined to his house this week by an attack of muscular rheumatism.

W. H. Hitebeck is putting an Economy heater into the house of George Hastings on Pleasant street.

Miss Jennie Williston of Holyoke spent Sunday with W. M. Allen at his home on Pleasant street.

Miss C. A. Marsh of Amherst, the new assistant teacher of the high school, began her duties Monday.

Mrs. R. C. Wing returned to town Monday sick with inflammatory rheumatism, and is at Mrs. C. N. Coleman's.

C. L. Alexander was thrown from his carriage on Brimfield hill Monday afternoon and his hip somewhat injured.

The Willis Fuller place in South Brimfield has been sold to Patrick Kennedy of Bondville for about $1000.

The physical culture class meets Tuesday afternoon at 4:30 with Mrs. G. H. Wilkins on Pleasant street.

On account of the storm Tuesday evening the regular session of the dancing school was postponed until last evening.

G. F. Eskine of Boston, formerly of Palmer, has been a guest of George W. Randall a few days this week.

The slight snow of Tuesday brought out the sleighs in full force Wednesday, though the sleighing wasn't first-class.

Hugh Hanley, Fred Hovey and H. P. Longley have in claims for $15, $20 and $25 sick benefits from the Iron Hall.

C. E. Fuller was called to Lendow, Vt., Monday, by the illness of his mother, who died soon after his reaching there.

The Ladies' Reading Club met Tuesday afternoon at Mrs. C. Ellis. Next week it will meet with Mrs. H. B. Knox.

Miss Nettie Coleman is taking a vacation from work in S. H. Hellyar & Co.'s store, and is visiting her aunt in Springfield.

The dancing class will go to Ware next Monday evening to attend a reception given by Mrs. Day's class in that place.

The public library, which has been closed a week on account of the scarlet fever scare, was opened to the public again yesterday.

The last of the 1891 fire district taxes have been paid this week, the interest on delinquencies bringing the amount up to $4149.21.

Will State, a brickman on the Boston and Albany road, sprained his ankle in the yard here last Friday by a misstep on top of a car.

Oscar Kinney, employed by A. E. Park, is on the sick list, and F. E. Cady is temporarily back at his old position on the order team.

The regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held in the parlors of the Congregational church next Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Miss Addie Rogers was obliged to be absent from her post as teacher in the grammar school Wednesday and Thursday on account of sickness.

Last Friday was the Chinese New Year's, but as there was only one inmate in the Chinese laundry here the celebration was not very great.

C. L. Alexander has moved his stock of paper hangings from W. R. Milligan's to R. J. Henry's store on the corner of Main and Central streets.

There will be a service at the Baptist church Sunday evening in memory of the late Rev. C. H. Spurgeon, the distinguished London clergyman.

Tuesday was Candlemas Day, and as it was a good bright day, according to the old saying we may look for the greater half of the winter yet to come.

Owen Sullivan, an inmate of the poor farm since June, coming here from the Soldiers' Home at Chelsea, has been placed to board with Mrs. Bridget Kiemevan.

Mrs. E. L. Davis went to Boston Wednesday on business connected with the Woman's Relief Corps, and to attend a meeting of the Soldiers' Home fair committee.

W. Hunt of the New London Northern Railroad has taken the house formerly occupied by E. P. Hall, corner of Thorndike street and Post avenue, and moved into it.

C. L. Alexander & Co. are shipping about 1000 cords of wood from State Line to the brick yard at Amherst, and later in the spring about 700 cords more will follow.

A party of Sunday school scholars and other invited guests were entertained in a pleasant manner at the home of Mrs. H. A. Northrop on Central street Wednesday evening.

C. T. Brainerd has his ice houses about 1000 yards of ice averaging about 9 inches thick. H. A. Northrop has not yet commenced cutting, but expects to begin Monday.

Rev. J. W. Tack, formerly pastor of the Congregational church at Ludlow Center and later at Thorndike, is suffering from a stroke of paralysis at his home in Springfield.

A. L. Hills, who has mourned long and sincerely the death of "Net", his Italian greyhound, has at last consoled himself with a black and tan, purchased in Hartford Wednesday.

L. A. Royce & Co. are filling their ice house at Forest Lake, in anticipation of the coming winter. They expect to cut about 100 tons for their own and other people's use.

A. H. Willis returned from his Western trip last night, having sufficiently recovered from the injury received in the recent railroad accident to be able to travel, though he is yet far from well.

Palmer people will have an opportunity to see Richard Golden in "Old Jed Prouty" at the opera house April 21st. The play and company is one which is seldom seen in such small towns as this.

Mark Bentley, who died Monday at Three Rivers, was employed as a freeman at the state primary school some 12 or more years ago, and was severely injured at one time by an explosion of gas.

F. D. Barton of this village and James Tilley of Thorndike, members of Sherman Conclave of the Commercial Endowment Association, have received checks for $40 and $80 for sick benefits.

The children of Frank Lester, who formerly lived here, have been granted a pension of $12 per month. They now live in Ludlow. George Evans has also received a pension of $12 a month.

The buying committee of the public library is making up a list of new books to be purchased soon, and persons who desire any special work should give notice to the library or to D. P. Allen at once.

About 40 of the friends of John Flood, living just beyond the Fly bridge on the road to Monson, made him a call last evening and enjoyed themselves immensely with games, dancing, refreshments, etc.

E. Brown fell on an icy sidewalk while on his way to his business this morning and received injuries to his hip which will keep him in the house for a few days, though no serious trouble is anticipated.

Judge George Robinson, Grand Vice President of the Royal Arcanum of Massachusetts, spent last week at Boston on business of the order which devolved on him by the death of Charles F. Loring, the Grand Regent.

The new dimes, quarters and halves have made their appearance in town through the Palmer National Bank. The dime is a handsome coin, but oh, dear! just look at the position of the eagle on the quarters.

According to the weather prophet there were two blizzards due last week, one Thursday night and the other Saturday, with snow which would completely block travel, but as yet they don't seem to materialize.

J. P. Lynde attended the reunion of class of '86 of Massachusetts Institute of Technology, held at Young's Hotel, Boston, Wednesday. The Boston Globe says that among the attendees was one Prof. J. P. Lynde.

The Y. P. S. C. E. topic at the Congregational church next Sunday evening is "Seek ye the Lord. When? How? Isa. 55:6, 7; Luke 13:34. At St. Paul's Universalist church, "That charity that suffereth long," 1 Cor. 13:4.

The overseers of the poor state that on account of so much sickness the calls upon them for aid have been somewhat greater this year than last, and that the expenses of their department will show an increase over the amount of last year.

The services in connection with Young People's Sunday, at St. Paul's Universalist church last Sabbath, drew large congregations both morning and evening. The noon service was especially well attended, and promptly responded to. In the evening the audience was disappointed by the absence, through sickness, of Mrs. Rufus Flynt. Miss Elizabeth Wasson and Miss Eliza Moffatt gave selections in her place. The report received from the church is that the service was a success in the local society, and in invitation is out for any and all to become members. The organ volunteers of Emil Yasser of Springfield were a revelation of what there is in that instrument in the hands of so skillful a performer.

James Reed, who for the past few years has resided at home at the Works House, died Monday from the effects of the grippe, and the funeral was Wednesday at noon, Rev. H. W. Pope of the Congregational church officiating. On account of his short stature Mr. Reed was more familiarly called "Little Reed," which name he has been known by since childhood. He formerly lived in the family of Mary Morgan, and was a great horseman, owning at times quite a number of fine animals, being known far and near as a horse dealer. In his younger days the carrying of weights in races was not practiced, and Mr. Reed's right wrist was much sought after as a driver, at which he was quite skillful. At the time of his death he was 38 years old, and about five years ago he came to Palmer to be cared for by Mr. and Mrs. Woods during his remaining days.

Arthur Andrews is attending school at Monson Academy.

The funeral of John H. Smith, who died last week, has been held this week with good effect.

Dr. E. Gable returned from his home in Pennsylvania Monday.

The legislative committee, with the trustees, visited this institution yesterday.

Rev. H. W. Pope spoke at the children in the church last Sabbath morning upon the "Duties of Life."

Miss Grace Andrews will spend Friday and Saturday with her friend, Miss Grace Spencer, in Holyoke.

We are glad to learn that Charles Hart, formerly clerk of this institution, but recently clerk at the Massachusetts Reformatory under Col. Gardner Tufts, has been appointed to the office of deputy superintendent J. F. Scott.

M. E. Tucker, formerly manual training school at Palmer, is now studying medicine at a medical college in Baltimore, has been appointed assistant superintendent at the Maternity Hospital in Baltimore.

An Alarm of Fire-Two Teams Collided. A nearly fatal fall.

An alarm from box 62 at 8:10 Saturday night called the fire department out for a run to Tenneyville, only to find that its services were not needed. Some grass along the road was on fire, and the fire was quickly extinguished by the team and the wind was blowing from the west.

A meeting of friends and associates of the late Col. Gardner Tufts was held at the state house in Boston Sunday to consider the subject of a suitable memorial to him.

A large number of letters from eminent men were read expressing an interest in the aim. A memorial volume, a monument, a statue, and various other plans were discussed, and a finance committee and a committee on the general plan were appointed.

The annual meeting of the Ladies' Mission Circle of the Baptist church was held with Mrs. G. W. Camp Wednesday afternoon and the following officers were chosen: President, Mrs. A. W. Weeks; vice president, Mrs. E. C. Campbell; treasurer, Mrs. Ella Washburn; secretary, Miss Flora Fiske.

The probate of the will of the late George W. Camp was held at the house of Mrs. G. W. Camp Wednesday afternoon, and the following officers were chosen: President, Mrs. A. W. Weeks; vice president, Mrs. E. C. Campbell; treasurer, Mrs. Ella Washburn; secretary, Miss Flora Fiske.

The probate of the will of the late George W. Camp was held at the house of Mrs. G. W. Camp Wednesday afternoon, and the following officers were chosen: President, Mrs. A. W. Weeks; vice president, Mrs. E. C. Campbell; treasurer, Mrs. Ella Washburn; secretary, Miss Flora Fiske.

The probate of the will of the late George W. Camp was held at the house of Mrs. G. W. Camp Wednesday afternoon, and the following officers were chosen: President, Mrs. A. W. Weeks; vice president, Mrs. E. C. Campbell; treasurer, Mrs. Ella Washburn; secretary, Miss Flora Fiske.

The probate of the will of the late George W. Camp was held at the house of Mrs. G. W. Camp Wednesday afternoon, and the following officers were chosen: President, Mrs. A. W. Weeks; vice president, Mrs. E. C. Campbell; treasurer, Mrs. Ella Washburn; secretary, Miss Flora Fiske.

The probate of the will of the late George W. Camp was held at the house of Mrs. G. W. Camp Wednesday afternoon, and the following officers were chosen: President, Mrs. A. W. Weeks; vice president, Mrs. E. C. Campbell; treasurer, Mrs. Ella Washburn; secretary, Miss Flora Fiske.

The probate of the will of the late George W. Camp was held at the house of Mrs. G. W. Camp Wednesday afternoon, and the following officers were chosen: President, Mrs. A. W. Weeks; vice president, Mrs. E. C. Campbell; treasurer, Mrs. Ella Washburn; secretary, Miss Flora Fiske.

The probate of the will of the late George W. Camp was held at the house of Mrs. G. W. Camp Wednesday afternoon, and the following officers were chosen: President, Mrs. A. W. Weeks; vice president, Mrs. E. C. Campbell; treasurer, Mrs. Ella Washburn; secretary, Miss Flora Fiske.

The probate of the will of the late George W. Camp was held at the house of Mrs. G. W. Camp Wednesday afternoon, and the following officers were chosen: President, Mrs. A. W. Weeks; vice president, Mrs. E. C. Campbell; treasurer, Mrs. Ella Washburn; secretary, Miss Flora Fiske.

The probate of the will of the late George W. Camp was held at the house of Mrs. G. W. Camp Wednesday afternoon, and the following officers were chosen: President, Mrs. A. W. Weeks; vice president, Mrs. E. C. Campbell; treasurer, Mrs. Ella Washburn; secretary, Miss Flora Fiske.

The probate of the will of the late George W. Camp was held at the house of Mrs. G. W. Camp Wednesday afternoon, and the following officers were chosen: President, Mrs. A. W. Weeks; vice president, Mrs. E. C. Campbell; treasurer, Mrs. Ella Washburn; secretary, Miss Flora Fiske.

The probate of the will of the late George W. Camp was held at the house of Mrs. G. W. Camp Wednesday afternoon, and the following officers were chosen: President, Mrs. A. W. Weeks; vice president, Mrs. E. C. Campbell; treasurer, Mrs. Ella Washburn; secretary, Miss Flora Fiske.

The probate of the will of the late George W. Camp was held at the house of Mrs. G. W. Camp Wednesday afternoon, and the following officers were chosen: President, Mrs. A. W. Weeks; vice president, Mrs. E. C. Campbell; treasurer, Mrs. Ella Washburn; secretary, Miss Flora Fiske.

The probate of the will of the late George W. Camp was held at the house of Mrs. G. W. Camp Wednesday afternoon, and the following officers were chosen: President, Mrs. A. W. Weeks; vice president, Mrs. E. C. Campbell; treasurer, Mrs. Ella Washburn; secretary, Miss Flora Fiske.

The probate of the will of the late George W. Camp was held at the house of Mrs. G. W. Camp Wednesday afternoon, and the following officers were chosen: President, Mrs. A. W. Weeks; vice president, Mrs. E. C. Campbell; treasurer, Mrs. Ella Washburn; secretary, Miss Flora Fiske.

The probate of the will of the late George W. Camp was held at the house of Mrs. G. W. Camp Wednesday afternoon, and the following officers were chosen: President, Mrs. A. W. Weeks; vice president, Mrs. E. C. Campbell; treasurer, Mrs. Ella Washburn; secretary, Miss Flora Fiske.

The probate of the will of the late George W. Camp was held at the house of Mrs. G. W. Camp Wednesday afternoon, and the following officers were chosen: President, Mrs. A. W. Weeks; vice president, Mrs. E. C. Campbell; treasurer, Mrs. Ella Washburn; secretary, Miss Flora Fiske.

The probate of the will of the late George W. Camp was held at the house of Mrs. G. W. Camp Wednesday afternoon, and the following officers were chosen: President, Mrs. A. W. Weeks; vice president, Mrs. E. C. Campbell; treasurer, Mrs. Ella Washburn; secretary, Miss Flora Fiske.

The probate of the will of the late George W. Camp was held at the house of Mrs. G. W. Camp Wednesday afternoon, and the following officers were chosen: President, Mrs. A. W. Weeks; vice president, Mrs. E. C. Campbell; treasurer, Mrs. Ella Washburn; secretary, Miss Flora Fiske.

The probate of the will of the late George W. Camp was held at the house of Mrs. G. W. Camp Wednesday afternoon, and the following officers were chosen: President, Mrs. A. W. Weeks; vice president, Mrs. E. C. Campbell; treasurer, Mrs. Ella Washburn; secretary, Miss Flora Fiske.

The probate of the will of the late George W. Camp was held at the house of Mrs. G. W. Camp Wednesday afternoon, and the following officers were chosen: President, Mrs. A. W. Weeks; vice president, Mrs. E. C. Campbell; treasurer, Mrs. Ella Washburn; secretary, Miss Flora Fiske.

The probate of the will of the late George W. Camp was held at the house of Mrs. G. W. Camp Wednesday afternoon, and the following officers were chosen: President, Mrs. A. W. Weeks; vice president, Mrs. E. C. Campbell; treasurer, Mrs. Ella Washburn; secretary, Miss Flora Fiske.

The probate of the will of the late George W. Camp was held at the house of Mrs. G. W. Camp Wednesday afternoon, and the following officers were chosen: President, Mrs. A. W. Weeks; vice president, Mrs. E. C. Campbell; treasurer, Mrs. Ella Washburn; secretary, Miss Flora Fiske.

The probate of the will of the late George W. Camp was held at the house of Mrs. G. W. Camp Wednesday afternoon, and the following officers were chosen: President, Mrs. A. W. Weeks; vice president, Mrs. E. C. Campbell; treasurer, Mrs. Ella Washburn; secretary, Miss Flora Fiske.

The probate of the will of the late George W. Camp was held at the house of Mrs. G. W. Camp Wednesday afternoon, and the following officers were chosen: President, Mrs. A. W. Weeks; vice president, Mrs. E. C. Campbell; treasurer, Mrs. Ella Washburn; secretary, Miss Flora Fiske.

The probate of the will of the late George W. Camp was held at the house of Mrs. G. W. Camp Wednesday afternoon, and the following officers were chosen: President, Mrs. A. W. Weeks; vice president, Mrs. E. C. Campbell; treasurer, Mrs. Ella Washburn; secretary, Miss Flora Fiske.

Last November some cotton warp was reported to enter the room through them, though as they were at a considerable distance from the closets and close to a door leading out to the playground it is not probable that it did to any extent. Some months ago Mr. Knox, the principal of the school, called at times to deliver an impression on one of the rooms and requested that a lattice be put in the sides of one of the passages. This was done and no further trouble was experienced. The air openings referred to have been bricked up, as well as the ones above on that end of the building, which led to the upper room, and so all possible danger avoided, there not being nearly so much cause for apprehension in this quarter as in the case of numerous residences about the town.

THREE RIVERS.
Paul Christmann, a Dane who has not been long in this country, had an experience last week Thursday which will be remembered for some time. While taking a bath in the Three Rivers pool, a tip-up showed signs that something was at the bait in the water, and Christmann hastened to pull up the fish. He never before saw a fish like the one he had on the line. It was about eight inches long, covered with a dark brown fur, with a tail totally different from any which fish are generally supposed to wear. He didn't want to lose his game, however, and so attempted to stamp the life out of it, but the muskrat fought back, Christmann tripped and fell, and for a time it was doubtful which would get the better of the serbants, but the Dane finally got the better of the animal and succeeded in giving it a quick death.

THORNDIKE.
Jerry Broschman, who has been sick with the grippe, is now able to be about again. A number from this place are to become members of Court Bondsville Foresters soon. A number from this place will attend the Foresters' fair at Bondville next Tuesday evening. Skating is enjoyed during the day and evening by a large number of persons on the No. 1 mill pond.

A new door has been cut on the west side of Union Hall, so as to reach the newly-erected fire escape.

Mrs. Corneilus Sullivan, formerly a resident of this place, is visiting friends here. Mrs. Sullivan resides with her family in Connecticut.

George Matthews of this place and Miss Maude Bondville were married on Monday morning at the French Catholic church at Three Rivers.

Dennis F. Sullivan, who has been at work in New York city, has accepted a position in the office of the Thorndike company, Thomas Chapman having severed his connection with the company.

According to all reports it would be well for the school committee to appoint a transient officer in this place, that scholars may attend school. Since Mr. Hanks moved away there is no one to look after the school interests in this place. Perhaps it is business-like to have things run this way, but there are some who think otherwise.

J. P. Luman, W. J. McCormick, J. J. Taylor and R. F. Wiley are to assist at the fair at Bondville, and on Thursday evening Miss Minnie Roman, Miss Nellie Crowley, John Dawson, Edward Carroll, J. F. Luman and W. J. McCormick will give the entertainment. A. has will be run for the who wish to attend on either of the above nights.

BONDVILLE.
Miss Jessie Ryther was home from Monson last Sunday.

The gripe has about left us, and we hope will not return.

Two new cases of scarlet fever are reported in town since last week.

Michael W. Austin, employed in Worcester, is home visiting friends.

Twelve new members were initiated at the Foresters' meeting Thursday night.

Miss Ida Clark of Northampton has been the guest of Miss Gracie Ryther this week.

Rev. Michael Griffin celebrated mass at St. Bartholomew's church on Tuesday, it being the Feast of the Purification.

Messrs. Merrill & Briggs are comfortably installed in their new quarters opposite Clark & Hastings's market.

Castoria

For Infants and Children.
Castoria promotes Digestion, and overcomes Flatulency, Constipation, Sour Stomach, Diarrhea, and Feverishness. Thus the child is rendered healthy and its sleep natural. Castoria contains no Morphine or other narcotic property.

"Castoria is well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any purgative known to me." H. A. Ayer, M.D., 111 South Oxford St., Boston, N. Y.

"I use Castoria in my practice, and find it specially adapted to affections of the bowels." J. C. Jackson, M.D., 1057 21 Ave., New York.

"From personal knowledge and observation I can say that Castoria is a reliable and reliable remedy for all the ailments of children." J. C. Jackson, M.D., 1057 21 Ave., New York.

THE CENTRAL COMPANY, 77 Murray Street, N. Y.

BOSTON & MAINE R.R.

SOUTHERN DIVISION
(CENTRAL MASSACHUSETTS)

WINTER ARRANGEMENT, OCTOBER 4, 1891.

TRAINS LEAVE WARE:

GOING EAST
FRI. Boston-Cam., 9.11 a.m.; 3.19, 8.20 p.m.
Sundays, 6.00, 7.00 a.m.

RET. WARE-Cam. 8.00 a.m.; 1.20, 4.00, 5.45 p.m.
Sundays, 12.00, 5.45 p.m.

FOR WORCESTER, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

RET. WARE-Cam. 8.00 a.m.; 1.20, 4.00, 5.45 p.m.
Sundays, 12.00, 5.45 p.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

The Lost (At Last)-Chord.

Seated one in my study,
I was anxious and ill at ease,
And I tapped at the window willy
And rattled a bunch of keys;
I knew I could manage to scare him
All hope of repose was feared,
For some like a wall on an easterly gate
I heard that dread "Lost Chord!"

I made ambiguous signals
That I wanted the tune to cease,
For I had work to finish,
And he was a foe to peace;
But the gladder only answered
With a fixed and gloomy grin,
And steadily turned the handle,
And poured his distracting din.

I knew not of what he was dreaming,
As softly I turned aside,
And thoughtfully lifted a couple of nails,
And opened the window wide;
Though I judge from his satisfied slumber
That his dreams were of anything but
Of a blackened mound and a muffled sound
And a window suddenly shut.

It may be they'll take the pieces
To his far Italian home,
And carve from his loaves musical notes
My such. Many mothers have told me of their Excellent effect upon their children's Dre, C. C. Emerson,
Lowell, Mass.

THE CENTRAL COMPANY, 77 Murray Street, N. Y.

BOSTON & MAINE R.R.

SOUTHERN DIVISION
(CENTRAL MASSACHUSETTS)

WINTER ARRANGEMENT, OCTOBER 4, 1891.

TRAINS LEAVE WARE:

GOING EAST
FRI. Boston-Cam., 9.11 a.m.; 3.19, 8.20 p.m.
Sundays, 6.00, 7.00 a.m.

RET. WARE-Cam. 8.00 a.m.; 1.20, 4.00, 5.45 p.m.
Sundays, 12.00, 5.45 p.m.

FOR WORCESTER, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

RET. WARE-Cam. 8.00 a.m.; 1.20, 4.00, 5.45 p.m.
Sundays, 12.00, 5.45 p.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

FOR GILBERTVILLE, 7.00, 9.11 a.m.; 3.19 p.m. Sun-
days, 7.00 a.m.

Miss Mattie A. Cobb of Providence, R. I.

Undoubtedly many diseases may be prevented if the blood is kept pure and the general health-tone sustained by the use of Hood's Sarsaparilla. When this is done, the germs of

La Grippe, Diphtheria

Pneumonia, Scarlet and Typhoid Fevers, Malaria, etc., cannot lodge in the system. After all such protesting diseases, Hood's Sarsaparilla has been found of inestimable value in restoring desired health and vigor, and purifying the tainted blood.

For example, read the following from Miss Mattie A. Cobb of Providence, R. I., and her mother. Miss Cobb is a young lady of 18, a and is in the front rank in her studies in the High School. Her father is a well-known police officer.

Picture of Health

"I was, C. H. Hood & Co.:

"I wish to tell how good Hood's Sarsaparilla has done for me. Sometime ago I had diphtheria and was sick for a year after, being

Weak, Blind and Helpless

I used one bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla and it made me feel strong." MATTIE A. COBB, South Chester Avenue, Providence, R. I.

"As my daughter wanted to write how well she liked Hood's Sarsaparilla, I thought I would say a few words. I think it is the Greatest Blood Purifier

ever brought before the people. Some of my friends say 'go away with your medicine.' I said the same once, but since my daughter has taken

Hood's Sarsaparilla

My opinion has changed considerably." Miss G. H. COBB, Providence, R. I.

HOOD'S PILLS do not weaken the system like other cathartics, but actually use up and give strength to the patient.

It is nature's best and safest remedy.

It may restore you to strength and vigor.

Do you want to know more about it?

Send us your name and address, and we will be glad to send you a book, free of all charge, that will positively bring joy to your heart and the means of health to your body.

S. H. PLATT, M.D., Med. Director,
40 MAIN ST., SPRINGFIELD, MASS.

PRICE $100.

WITH CUSHION TIRES, $100.

Manufactured by

The Hartford Cycle Co.,

75 and 77 COMMERCIAL ST.,

HARTFORD, CT.

Ball Bearings.

INTERCHANGEABLE PARTS.

GUARANTEED.

CATALOGUE FREE.

Chandler Bros.,

AGENTS FOR PALMER.

D. W. FOSKETT,

Grain Dealer

FOSKETT'S MILLS.

RAKES,

YANKEE, ROYAL, STANDARD, TAYLOR, NATIONAL.

MOWING MACHINES,

TRIUMPH, NEW MODEL, BECKEY.

HAY TEDDERS,

AMERICAN, MUGGETT, THOMAS

Hand Rakes, Scythes, &c.

OUR STOCK CONSISTS OF ALL THE BEST GRADES OF PLOWS, DISC CUTWAYS AND ACME HARROWS, HORSE HOES & CULTIVATORS.

A TELL LINE OF SHOVELS, FORKS, RAKES AND HOES OF the best makes for the best money. Anything in the line of Agricultural Implements not in stock we will procure for you at short notice.

OUR PRICES WILL BE AS LOW AS ANY DEALER.

D. W. FOSKETT,

32-54 PALMER, MASS.

PALMER SAVINGS BANK, PALMER, MASS.

DEPOSITS FROM 9 A. M. TO 12 M. TO 1 P. M.

J. H. SHAW, PRESIDENT.

EXOS CALKINS, of Palmer, GEORGE MOORE, of Thorndike, T. D. POTTER, of Springfield.

TRUSTEES.

EXOS CALKINS, JAS. H. SHAW, GEORGE MOORE, S. S. TAPP, C. F. FISKE, H. G. LOOMIS, O. P. ALLEN.

BOARD OF INVESTMENT.

EXOS CALKINS,

NEIGHBORHOOD NOTES.

MONSON.

The new postal cards, both sizes, are now in stock at the post office.

Seth A. Thresher died last week Thursday at the age of 83 years.

The foundations of the new bank building are beginning to put on shape.

A horse belonging to J. T. Stevens died last Saturday from colic.

Frank L. Broadway has taken a position with C. D. Holbrook of Springfield.

S. N. Harris has captured another fox last week. The Fox Club is doing well.

The straw workers of Monson will soon give a concert and ball at Memorial Hall.

J. A. Seales of Tufts Divinity School preached at the Universalist church Sunday.

A good number from here attended the concert and ball at Palmer Wednesday night.

Monson people are glad to see some more snow, and hope for good sleighing this time.

Some of the lower schools had no session yesterday afternoon on account of the snow storm.

Mr. Blackford of Tufts Divinity School will preach in the Universalist church next Sunday.

Either the morning train will be a little late or the town clock a little faster; the two don't agree.

Charles Hiram Bradley died Monday after a short illness with pneumonia. He was 72 years old.

Advertisements for this week: Patrick Tenckley, Hiram E. Bradley, F. A. Bliss, James Hughes, Edward Smith.

A. D. Norcross has taken about 20 prizes in the Bull Catches this year at the Worcester, Hartford and other country shows.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist church held a social in the vestry Wednesday evening, supper being served from 6 to 8.

Mrs. Harlow Chapin and Mrs. Thall had been attending the department convention of the Woman's Relief Corps at Boston this week.

Work is progressing rapidly on Flynn's enlarged store, which will, when completed, take in all the room now occupied by Merriam's news room.

Mr. Hatch gave a talk at 6 o'clock Sunday evening on "A Day Spent With Three Noted Men," Charles Spurgeon, Dean Stanley, Cardinal Manning.

E. J. Morris, Amherst '91, will have a position as instructor of botany at the Worcester Natural History Camp at Lake Quinsigamond next summer.

Mrs. Charlotte Menlove, aged 62, died suddenly Tuesday after a short illness with lung hemorrhage. The funeral was yesterday at 2:30 p. m., Rev. J. A. Priest of Newtonville officiating.

J. W. Murphy has been in Albany this week to identify a man who answers the description of the fellow who lured Carlton Stephens out of prison, and stole a horse and carriage from L. G. Chisham.

The entertainment at the Congregational church parlor Friday evening was a great success. There were first several beautiful pictures composed of living subjects, then charades, etc., and after the entertainment a supper of cake and coffee was served.

J. A. Butler and A. L. Spier of Wesleyan Academy, Wilbraham, will have charge of the service at the Methodist church Sunday morning. Mr. Butler has labored with Thomas Harrison in evangelistic services to a considerable extent, and is a very sweet singer of the Gospel.

Squire & Company have received this week a consignment of 120,000 shingles, which is a very large amount. Probably very few persons have any idea of the quantity this really is, and an illustration may be given. Each shingle is supposed to be four inches wide and 15 inches long, and if they should be placed end to end they would make a band four inches wide more than thirty-four miles in length; about two acres of ground could be completely covered by them; placed one on top of another they would make a tower 18 inches wide and about 89 feet high could be built. Some of the large shingle mills of Michigan produce four or five carloads per day.

Personal.

E. L. Wales spent Sunday with his family in Franklin.

A daughter of T. G. Carow is ill with scarlet fever.

C. S. Stevens spent the first of the week in Norwich, Ct.

Stephen B. Smith is out again after a two weeks' illness.

F. E. Morris, teller at the bank, has been quite ill with colic.

A. H. and Herbert Norcross are both confined to the house.

Mrs. W. F. Crew, who has been ill for two or three weeks, is convalescent.

Mr. Hart of New York has been spending a few days with friends in town.

W. J. Randall has been spending part of the week with his parents in Boston.

Dr. and Mrs. Garrison of North Brookfield have been visiting in town this week.

M. F. Connolly, the tailor, is attending to his business again as usual, after a two weeks' illness with grippe.

Academy Notes.

Mr. Burke spent Sunday with friends in Springfield.

Mr. Burke, Miss Smith and Miss Forchard attended the concert at Palmer Wednesday evening.

Robert Hoyce has been having a two weeks' siege of the grippe, but has so far recovered as to be back at school again.

A small gold tablet with the inscription, "Presented by former pupils and friends," has been attached to the new portrait of Dr. Hammond in Academy chapel.

A. M. Amador, former instructor and first assistant at the academy, at present principal of Williamstown high school, was a guest at Hammond Hall last Saturday.

The Lino and Philo programmes for tonight have both been changed from the ones printed last week. Philo programme is: Music, Miss Habicht; reading, Miss Graves; debate, "Resolved, man's superiority of man," affirmative, Miss Brannick, negative, Miss Parker; recitation, Miss Gage; reading, Miss Perry; college songs. Lino programme is: Declaration, Classion; debate, "Resolved, that the United States is justified in excluding the Chinese," affirmative, F. D. Thayer, negative, A. S. Burke.

A meeting of the Monson branch of the Western Massachusetts Interscholastic Association was called Monday afternoon in Mr. Dustin's room for choosing officers, etc., with the following result: F. D. Thayer, '92, vice president; A. F. Warren, '92, secretary and treasurer; E. G. Crowdis, the secretary of the general association, with G. L. Thompson will go as delegates to the meeting at Amherst Feb. 20th. The president, vice president and secretary compose the executive committee.

LUDLOW CENTER.

The Methodist and Congregational churches at the Center held an excellent union service at the Methodist vestry last Sunday evening. It is proposed to have union services once a month.

Considerable interest is manifested regarding the license vote at the next town meeting. There has been a large increase in the license vote in the past two or three years, and those opposed to the saloons must needs stir themselves to keep in the majority.

Rev. Frederic Woods, D. D. of Westfield, will give his lecture on "The Black Hole of Calcutta" in the Methodist church next Tuesday evening. Dr. Woods is a fine speaker, and this lecture is spoken highly of. The lecture is under the auspices of the W. C. T. U.

WEST WARREN.

A party of twenty attended the Myron W. Whitney concert at Palmer Wednesday night.

Miss Mabel Ammon and Robert Brown were married Monday evening by Rev. S. B. Sweetser of Warren.

There will be a crazy ten party given by the young people in the M. E. church parlors next Thursday evening.

The house of Mr. and Mrs. John Scott in Nashville, Tenn., has been entered by burglars and their gold watches stolen. Mr. Scott was at one time bass currier and spinner at No. 4 mill, also superintendent of the Congregational church Sunday school.

HOLLAND.

Mrs. Olivia M. Kinney was in town one day last week.

A. J. Bagley is now covering his house, giving it an improved appearance.

William L. Webster is having quite a lot of wood cut this winter for market.

Frederic Wallis of Springfield, and his sister Abbie of Palmer, were home last Sunday.

N. E. Wallis found one of his herd of cattle dead in the barn last Monday morning. It ate its breakfast all right and no cause could be found for its death. Mr. Wallis sold his butter last year to parties at West Warren amounting to 70 or 80 pounds per week during some parts of the season. He has concluded to let his cream go this year to the Worcester County Creamery at Warren. The cream is taken at his door, saving him considerable time and expense in making and carrying off his butter.

WALLES.

A. F. Pepper is suffering with a smashed finger, caused by getting it between two logs.

William Moran's flock of sheep has been worried by dogs, for which he claims damages.

H. A. McFarland, J. C. Barley and George S. Rogers have been appointed appraisers of the estate of the late John A. Smith.

Mrs. Fox, Misses Alice Pepper, Amy Arnold, Lena Roberts, Annie Felton, and other attended the festival in Sturbridge Wednesday evening.

The Valley mill is getting under headway, orders enough having been secured from the companies sent to market to insure several months of busy work.

Three young fellows attempted to drive by a large team Monday and were capsize in the ditch. The horse went on, leaving the occupants under the seat and robes, with tin pans, fish lines and a bag of whisky, which fortunately was broken and the contents lost. The fellows escaped with slight bruises.

NORTH WILBRAHAM.

E. F. Rice of Brookfield visited friends in town Tuesday.

Myra L. Gates is recovering from an attack of scarlet fever.

Miss Helen J. Bell is taking vocal lessons of Waite in Springfield.

Mrs. H. E. Gates returned Tuesday from a visit in New Britain, Ct.

The Ladies' Society of Grace church met with Mrs. H. W. Cutler this afternoon and evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry LaBord are receiving congratulations on the advent of a daughter, born Sunday.

Henry Cutler and family sailed from New York last Saturday for a two months' trip to foreign lands.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Collins and Mrs. L. E. Foreman are contemplating a trip to Florida the latter part of February.

John Rowan, an employee of the paper mill, was killed by an east-bound freight train west of the station. He was seen sitting on the rail, but paid no attention to the warning whistle of the engine. He was about 23 years of age. His remains were viewed by Dr. Breck Monday, and removed to Holyoke by his brothers.

WARREN.

Mrs. Robert Ramsdell is visiting in Boston. Mrs. Newell Shepard is visiting in Rome, N. Y.

Miss Holt of Brookfield is stopping in town.

Arthur Sibley of Holyoke spent last Sabbath in town.

The new depot is lighted and presents quite a brilliant appearance.

The Ladies' Home Missionary Society met in the ladies' parlors Wednesday afternoon.

The Kellogg concert Wednesday evening had a good house and gave good satisfaction.

Miss Jennie Price is recovering from injuries she received by a fall at North Brookfield.

The King's Daughters met with Mrs. Wheeler on Main street to-morrow afternoon.

W. Fairbanks has purchased the old depot and will have it removed to his land on River street.

A debating society was organized last Monday evening at the Congregational chapel.

The Massachusetts Woman Suffrage Association will hold a convention in Warren March 7th.

Those who watched for Jupiter and Venus last Friday were repaid, as it being a clear night they could be seen distinctly.

The Choral Union will close its singing lessons by a concert next Wednesday evening at the town hall.

Mr. Sawyer, administrator of the estate of H. More, has offered the house, corner of Pleasant and Southbridge streets, for sale.

The ladies of the Universalist church are having a K. party at the town hall this evening. Supper will be served from 6 o'clock until 8.

Walter H. Whipple and Miss Maggie French, both of Warren, were married at the parsonage by Rev. Harris Hale Wednesday afternoon. They left for Boston after the ceremony, but will make their home on Bacon street.

BRIMFIELD.

Mrs. John Converse visited in Springfield Tuesday.

Mrs. Dr. Savina, who has been very sick, is convalescent.

Albert Pearson and daughter made a trip to Boston last week.

Mrs. John Noyes spent several days in Springfield last week.

W. H. Wilkinson and wife of Holyoke were in town visiting last week.

Mrs. Sumner Parker left Wednesday to visit relatives in Hopkinton.

George A. Furniss of Worcester spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. B. M. Furniss.

Mrs. Olive (Hale) Savin of Walham is visiting her brothers for a few days.

The teachers of the high school attended the teachers' convention at Westfield last Friday.

A good number went to Palmer Wednesday evening to attend the great musical event.

Will James has returned to town after being absent several weeks in New Hampshire.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brown and daughter of Port Chester, N. Y., spent Sunday at H. P. Brown's.

Mrs. Jonathan Hitchcock died at his home yesterday morning, and the funeral will be from her late residence to-morrow at 1:30 p. m.

Mrs. Lathrop, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Porter Parker, will be served during the funeral supper will be served during the funeral.

The young people of the Christian E. deavor society of the First church give an old-fashioned entertainment and supper Monday evening, Feb. 22d. All are invited.

An old-fashioned supper will be served during the evening. A number will appear in old-fashioned costumes.

Lyman Webster, who has been in feeble health for many years, died at his home Monday morning from the grippe. Private funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at 1 o'clock from his home, conducted by Rev. W. K. Poire. Relatives from Springfield, Westfield and Fiskeville were in town to attend.

Mr. BLAINE has finally ended the suspense as to his intentions regarding being a candidate for the presidency, having sent a letter to the chairman of the Republican national committee last Saturday in which he says he is not a candidate for the presidency, and his name will not go before the Republican national convention for nomination.

This ought to be conclusive as to his intentions, though it is contended in some quarters that he leaves the way open to accept the nomination if it should be tendered to him.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

It will strike many readers of the letter that it is not so emphatic in expressing a purpose not to accept the nomination as they are.

THE FUNERAL OF VIVIENNE.
Vivienne, the singer, died
At the solemn eventide;
And her women, while they wept
Crossed her hands as if she slept,
Drenched her locks with rich perfume.

Bobbed her body for the tomb,
 Set the tapers tall a-light
 And beside her watched all night.
 When the dawn was on the roofs
 Rose a ring of iron hoofs,
 And the man she was to wed
 Came to look upon the dead.
 "Take away the candles tall,
 Cross and shroud, and velvet pall,
 For a sinner these should be
 Not an angel such as she."

That I gave her on her hand,
Bring the dress she used to wear,

Bring me roses for her hair;
Scatter her from head to feet
As she lies, with bilies sweet;
Hang a wreath upon the door
Whenever she goes forth ere now."

"A vivienne, the singer, lay
In a bed of blossoms gay
Myrtle, pink and pansy-ident
When unto the grave she went.
"A vivienne was pure as snow,
Not for her the weeds of woe,
And the trappings of the dead,"
Said the man she was to wed.

Uttered לפני in Kate Field's Washington

HOUSEHOLD ECONOMIES.

It has often been said that a French live on what an American throws away. But Americans are beginning to learn how to make use of left-over odds and ends of food. Some of the daintiest and most palatable dishes may be made from food that many, especially country, families is throwing away, and the expense-ness of the waste greatly reduced. This is particularly true in regard to meats. "Hash," some one says contemptuously. While hash well prepared is not to be despised, it is seldom a necessity to a skillful housekeeper.

Leftover Bits of Roast: When all nice slices have been used, cold, the remaining pieces may be cut up into chunk cubes or even smaller, and made into pies, and a half or two cups of meat with the over gravy will make a breakfast for three. Cut up the meat. Put it into a very pudding dish; fill with the gravy, so to taste; then cover with a crust made a biscuit recipe and bake in a quick oven. The thicker the crust the longer it will cook. If there is no gravy pour hot over the meat and add a little butter; a moistened flour stirred in is an improvement. If overcooked, mashed potato may be at she it was like a from a

,"
nurses, with money he got at eggs a nice modest

According to the Boston Globe, of 130 women graduates from a certain medical college in the United States, 300 are engaged in active practice with incomes ranging from $2000 to $20,000.

Wellesley College begins this year its second semester with nearly 700 students. Edward S. Hume of Bombay high school addressed the college recently. Her speech was "The Condition of Women in India." A father secures a good husband for his daughter and the woman's husband is her, she may have a comfortable life. If, missing this chance, it seems that an Indian woman's life, married or single, is a widow's, is one of wretchedness. The brightness in all Mrs. Hume's story, she talked for over two hours, was the hope to Indian women that contact with the English and the work of Christian missionaries brings them. Mrs. Hume, daughter of Mrs. Chandler, the age of 18, whose father recently died at Anburi, and sister of Miss Gertrude Chandler, the Wellesley College Missionary Association supports in the Bombay high school.

There have been several versions of the origin of "The Old Oaken Bucket." The story is so widely circulated and popularly believed that it is as follows: When Woodworth was a young man, a journeyman printer in an office on the corner of South Chatham and Chambers streets in New York City, near-by in Frankfort street was a saloon kept and run by a man named Mallory, where Woodworth

One afternoon the liquor was munificent, and Woodworth seemed insatiable. After taking a draught he set out on the table and, smacking his lips, said that Mallory's cant de vie was surpassing anything he had ever tasted. "No, Mallory, you are mistaken; there is nothing which, in both our estimations, passed this in the way of drinking," was that," asked Woodworth, drunk. "The draught of pure spring water I used to drink from the old oaken bucket hanging in the well, after our return from field on a hot day in summer." A

DRINKED BY WHISKY. One of the Greek scholars in New York is a professor in one of the leading uni-

House, old are about 23 being the one with a n before (Indi- an) didn't no sense de walk married" 2 married (Census married" 2 married de Miss Twitter—"I want to ask you something, Mr. Penn. I hope (blush) won't think me too forward?" Ste—"Have no hesitation, Miss Twitter."—"I am going to have some kerchiefs embroidered, and I was wif it would be safe to have the initials maiden name placed on them."—"T-

NEIGHBORHOOD NOTES.

MONSON.

L. G. Cushman has his creditors in court on 81.

Both Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Newton are quite ill with the grippe.

J. H. Robbins has filled his icehouse with good clear 12-inch ice.

Deacon Morris started Saturday on a business trip to Kansas city.

There is a parish meeting of the Congregational church tonight.

Rev. Mr. Blackford occupied the Universalist pulpit last Sunday.

Rev. F. S. Hatch exchanged Sunday with Rev. Mr. Cook of Northfield.

Prof. W. R. Shipman will preach at the Universalist church next Sunday.

An office of the Postal Telegraph Company has been established at Flyn's store.

N. H. Talbot has been confined to the house for some time with rheumatism.

Mrs. L. A. Able of Millard has been the guest of Miss Mary Feather for a part of the week.

Mrs. W. P. Peck of Wales has been visiting her sister, Mrs. M. J. Bradley, this week.

Miss Carrie Gates of Hartford has been spending part of the week with friends in town.

There will be a Washington party at the Congregational church parlors next Monday evening.

Advertised letters this week are Joseph Contino, George E. Morris, Miss Blanche Shawman.

E. W. Cross has returned to Palmer after a six-weeks illness with scarlet fever at his home in town.

R. S. and William Hughes have been to Lawrence this week to attend the funeral of a brother there.

There was a dance in Central Hall last night. Fuller's orchestra furnished music and T. H. Booth prompted.

Miss Julia Underwood is reported ill at Northfield, where she is attending the Northfield Young Ladies Seminary.

Fuller's orchestra will furnish music for Rockwell's Theater Co., which will open in Memorial Hall next Monday.

A. A. Gage went as delegate from Maroon Keep Post, G. A. U., to the annual state convention at Boston last week.

The school in district No. 11 held a successful county pull in the schoolhouse the latter part of last Friday afternoon.

A certain boy in town showed his willing spirit, at least, when he offered a penny to help on the great cause of education.

Extensive repairs in the way of painting and frescoing are being made in the interior of A. B. Ellis's house by Boston parties.

Mrs. Bruce, the soprano at the Universalist church, is visiting in Hartford. Her place was filled Sunday by Miss Alice Darling.

Rev. Mr. Hatch spent the day this week in Silver Street, making calls from house to house and seeing the people in their homes.

Agencies for safety bicycles are getting numerous in town; G. L. Keeney is now agent for the American Randle machines.

Pendegast has filled his ice house with good ice, about 150 tons. He is able to do about his business again after his accident.

C. S. Wood, Monson Academy '91, at present in business in New London, was in town over Sunday. Many friends welcomed him back.

The creamery company considers itself lucky in being able to fill its icehouse this season with 200 tons of the finest and clearest ice.

Many were the people who watched with admiration the aurora borealis last Saturday evening. Surely such a sight has not been seen for many years.

The repairs on W. N. Flyn & Co's. store are rapidly progressing. Mr. Monson has been obliged to move, and has gone into Orent's Christian tenement.

The annual convention of the Eastern Hampshire Christian Endeavor Union will be held at the M. E. church next Friday evening and Saturday all day.

Several persons astronomically inclined are out daily with their glasses looking at the sun, and some in the large open hall have broken into several fragments.

The body of S. J. McIntosh was brought here for burial Tuesday morning from Chicago, Ill. Mr. McIntosh has been foreman of the motive power in the Northwestern car company.

The large derrick used in the construction of the foundation for the new bank building fell while being moved Tuesday afternoon, breaking it somewhat and nearly killing one of the workmen.

A. L. Spiller preached Sunday morning at the M. E. church on "The Power of the Holy Spirit." J. A. Betcher, also of Wilbraham, spoke and sang at both morning and evening services. Both services were greatly enjoyed.

Mrs. S. H. Talbot of North Main street has this week packed away with clothing and books, to be sent to a missionary and the newly born in North Dakota. Many a heart will be made glad by the contents, valued at $125.

Several persons from town attended the lecture given in the Free Will Baptist church by Colonel Russell Conwell of Philadelphia. Mr. Conwell is soon to visit Monson again, and from the good reputation he left last year ought to have a large audience.

Timothy Donahue, while under the influence of liquor the other day, got excited over the question of a clock that was being repaired at Mr. Merriam's, and used it on Mr. Merriam's head, making quite a cut. Dr. Jackson was called and dressed the wounds.

George C. Flyn represented the W. N. Flyn Granite Company at the meeting of the creditors of Darling Brothers at Worcester Wednesday, George E. Knowlton, E. G. Pennington, H. A. Merchant and F. G. Rogers, all residents of Monson, are employed by this firm.

A very pleasant time at the Congregational church parlors Monday night was occasioned by a visit of the Wilbraham Grange, for which the Monson Grange furnished supper. The Wilbraham Grange presented a very interesting and pleasing programme, consisting of dialogues, a musical show, and about 25 were present from Wilbraham, but as they were coming into town and struck poor sleighing the large sleigh which carried most of them broke down, and they were obliged to get a wheeled vehicle to go home in.

Academy Notes.

Edwin C. Bradley has the agency in town for the new "Life of Spurgeon."

Miss Bertha Eastman of Palmer is back at school again after nearly a half term's absence.

There's a sociable at the academy this evening, at which the new amateur orchestra will furnish music. This orchestra is made up of all academy students but two, and one of those was a student until recently. The instruments and members are: First violin and leader, M. M. Brown; second violin, A. W. Merchant; clarinet, M. C. Howe; cornet, H. T. Chapin; violoncello, A. H. Grant.

There was a very interesting debate at the academy meeting last Friday evening. There was some misunderstanding in regard to debaters, so finally they took the affirmative and Mr. Burke the negative.

The question, "Resolved that the United States is justified in excluding the Chinese from her territory," was decided by the disputants in the negative, by the house in the affirmative, the merits of question in the negative.

Mr. Duxton attended this meeting and seemed to enjoy it. He spoke of the advance some of the members had made in the power of speaking on their feet. A committee was appointed to confer with a committee from the Philanthropia concerning the public meeting of the two societies to be held March 25.

Obadiah Johnson's reminiscences of the Northern Lights in 1832.

"The Northern Lights last Saturday evening," says Obadiah Johnson, "reminds me of the scene we had in 1832. I was at Wales, had been out hunting with Partridge Shaw, and about half-past seven in the evening a man on horseback came riding by and holed 'Fire, Fire,' at the top of his voice.

We went to the door and sure enough, everything seemed to be ablaze; the snow was pink white, the heavens of a fiery hue, and everything deputed a huge conflagration. Women screamed, men turned pale, and some of the more enthusiastic said the end of the world had come. But the phenomenon passed away and then the people began to forget what would happen. It was a forerunner of war, devastation, famine and lots of other terrible things; the older people shook their heads and said something awful was going to happen. Everybody believed in signs in the sky, and if the household dropped their dish-cloth it was a sure sign of company; if a looking glass was broken it was a sure sign of a death in the family; and everybody preferred to see the new moon over their right shoulder for good luck.

When I returned to Monson I found that people here had been considerably alarmed and the ministers had been preaching sermons that would beat any looking powder or no-looked powder process. It was real red fire they dealt out to their hearers. Deacon Nathan Goodell said in the tavern that it was a visitation of the Almighty, warning them to flee from the wrath to come, but some of the bystanders took exception to it, remarking that the deacon told Ichabod Bascam that he was a bigot and a contemptible pup and used very harsh language toward him, whereupon Bascam began suit against the deacon for defamation of character, and the gossipers had a new subject for discussion. In speaking of the event, Dr. Whitaker said this was "the first intimation he had ever heard that Bascam had any character." This same Dr. Whitaker was one of the school committee, and there was some trouble in No. 12 school. The lady teacher had sent home a tall six-foot boy who was determined to run the school, and told him not to come to school again; but he came again the next day, and the teacher sent him home; he came again the third day, and the teacher told him he could not attend school, but he stayed and showed up Dr. Whitaker, the school committee, and on his arrival he told the big, strong, determined youth that he must either apologize to the teacher and promise to behave or leave the school. The boy, straightening himself up into fighting proportions, said he should not do either one. "Well," says I, "Doctor, what did you do?" "Do," says the Doctor, "what could I do?"

GLENDAL.

Presiding Elder Eaton will preach at the church Sunday.

About eighty attended the oyster supper held at James Weeks's.

James Farr was called away to New York to attend the funeral of his sister.

Marcus Daniels, who has been confined to the house by the grippe, is improving.

BRIMFIELD.

The Fossketts farm, on the Brookfield road, to be sold at auction Saturday, the 27th. The real estate is to be sold at 32m., and consists of 117 acres, with good buildings, abundance of fruit trees, etc. The personal property will be sold at 10.20 a m., and consists of hay, grain, wagons, tools, lumber, household goods and the usual assortment of miscellaneous articles. There is to be no postponement on account of weather.

WEST WARREN.

Julius Fatsch is visiting friends in New Jersey.

Mrs. Emma Sheldon and daughter of Springfield spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. A. E. Watts.

George Pepper, who has been sick for some time, died suddenly of heart failure at the home of his wife, Mrs. J. J. Pepper.

The young people gave a crazy tea in the Methodist church vestry Thursday evening. The door was left ajar and a few harmless lunatics served the people, without any fear. The young gentlemen provided a musical and literary entertainment.

NORTH WILBRAHAM.

Louis Stacy is laid up by the measles.

Mr. and Mrs. Stacy and family of Palmer called on friends in town Sunday.

A second case of scarlet fever has been reported, being the daughter of Barney Lynch on the Springfield road.

The schools in district No. 8 were closed this week as a precautionary measure against the spread of scarlet fever.

Mrs. Nellie M. Munn, nee Brown, of Suffield, Ct., has been visiting friends in North Wilbraham and Ludlow the past week.

A telegram from Henry Cutler Tuesday announced the safe arrival of himself and party at Gibraltar Monday, Feb. 15, and reports them as being well and having a pleasant voyage.

LUDLOW CENTER.

Mrs. Gilbert Atchinson is very low.

The Christian Endeavor young people of the Congregational church held a pleasant social Wednesday evening at E. N. Fisher's.

The temperance lecture in the Methodist church by Dr. Frederick Woods of Westfield on Tuesday evening was intensely realistic, and no one of the audience could fail to feel something of the force of strong drink.

The Hampshire Farmers' Institute held a meeting in the town hall on Wednesday.

The subject in the morning was "The Improvement of Farm and Home." Mrs. G. D. Atchinson read a much-praised paper on "Home Improvement," and C. W. Allen a paper on "Farm Improvement." In the afternoon Prof. Brooks of Andover, Agricultural College gave a very thorough talk on the subject of "Fertilizers." The meeting was excellent, but the attendance was not as large as it should have been. The Ludlow Grange furnished the dinner.

HOLLAND.

Landlord Ferry entertained two sleighing parties last Saturday night, one from Stafford and one from Fiskeville. Another party of twelve couples visited his house Monday night from Wales.

Miss Edith G. Webster closed her school in Wales last Friday for the spring vacation. Miss Webster having taught there for several consecutive terms, it is to be concluded that she gives good satisfaction.

Frank Dimmock and Bert Drake visited Lemuel E. Howlett's place of business in Leicester, last Friday and Saturday. Mr. Howlett moved from this town last fall and engaged in the same business in that place.

Quite a number of parties from out of town have been fishing on the reservoir, and report says several black bass have been caught. They probably came down from Lake Mashapaug, which was stocked with that variety of fish several years ago. The reservoir is three miles long and extends to within a half mile of the lake, which is the source of Quinobang river.

WILBRAHAM.

Miss Bessie Pease entertained a sleighride party from Three Rivers Monday evening.

Mrs. Wells Phelps is spending a part of the week in Boston, leaving home Wednesday morning.

Mr. Edson has opened a meat market in the building formerly occupied by Charles Pease as a store.

The ladies of the senior class of the academy had a sleighride to Palmer last Friday evening, stopping at the Converse House for supper.

Wilbraham Grange enjoyed a sleighride to Monson Monday evening, when they gave an interesting programme in the Congregational vestry, consisting of readings, tableaux, essays and a grand finale, ending with "The Helluany March," which was the principal feature of the evening. Monson grangers furnished an oyster supper in the church parlors. It is not advisable to mention the word "sleighing" to the driver of the sleigh of grangers, as that is rather a sore point with them. Wonder if they found the walking any better than the sleighing most of the way?

WALES.

H. E. Shaw and wife started Monday for Dakota.

Arthur Baker was taken to Palmer Wednesday as a station child and committed to the state school at Monson. The children of Dexter Lombard were also taken as neglected children, but the state agent not being ready to try the case it was continued until April.

Several of the young people went to Holland Monday evening for a sleighride and took supper with Landford Ferry. The main party went in a large four-horse sled, and finding considerable bare ground the gentlemen were obliged to foot it up the hills, and a one-horse sled with the lady and two boxes for a seat, and with an old-fashioned string of bells started off about 10 o'clock. The advance party-claims to have heard them soon after they started. They stopped several times on the way, and when they arrived at the hotel the sled was piled high with brush which they tried to put off on the landlord for their horse feed and supper. Parties along the road have talked of arresting for petty larceny and luskwalking.

WARREN.

Mrs. Whitney is stopping in Boston for a week.

Mrs. Humphrey of Brattleboro has been stopping at Mr. Hild's.

Mrs. Kieve of Kingston, E. I., is visiting her mother, Mrs. Strickland.

Frank Carpenter and wife were the guests of Mrs. Allen last Sabbath.

Miss Ellis of South Brookfield has been the guest of Miss Nina Gould this week.

The Young People's Library will meet with Mrs. Jerome Gould next Thursday evening.

Lyman Powers went to Worcester Monday to attend the funeral of his niece, Miss Stone of Worcester.

Rev. H. F. Monilton of St. Paul's church in Palmer exchanged with Rev. O. F. Darling last Sabbath.

A mission band has been formed by the young people of the Congregational church. Mrs. Hale is the director.

An addition is to be put on the Congregational chapel for the benefit of the younger classes of the Sabbath school.

The Sons of Temperance will give a social on the 22d. A tonic drill by some of the members will be one of the attractions.

The Brookfield Woman Suffrage League and the North Brookfield Society for the Study of the Rights and Duties of Citizenship, also friends of equal suffrage in West Brookfield, Southfield, Warren, Palmer and Monson, have been invited to attend the state convention at Warren March 7th.

The good sleighing of last week gave an opportunity for the grammar school to go to Spencer Saturday afternoon. Fifty-a dozen couples went to North Brookfield and had a very pleasant time. Monday a few couples went to North Brookfield, also a party of ladies, who exchanged their sleighs for a carriage before reaching there. The anticipated ride of the high school to Spencer Monday was deferred until another time on account of the poor sleighing.

LEGISLATIVE MATTERS.

Boston, Feb. 17, 1892.

The House took its first vote for councilor on Thursday afternoon, and the several ballots were as follows:

	1	2	3	4
Whole number.....	26	20	34	29
Necessary for choice.....	104	102	105	105
F. W. Howes.....	9	9	9	9
A. H. Evans.....	55	61	20	62
T. J. Jeffs.....	48	47	44	44
W. B. De los Casas.....	81	13	1	1

Mr. De los Casas was the Democratic vote, party left him after a complimentary vote.

The fourth ballot gave just the necessary number to Mr. Howes, and Mr. Jeffs felt amazingly. It is disclosed that there was circulated in the House a court decision in 1889, by which a decision of fraud was awarded against Mr. Jeffs. His friends claim that it was a pure technicality and that Jeffs is perfectly honest. But it hurt him on the vote.

By 32 to 2 the Senate has agreed to the mileage amendment to the constitution to abolish the present provision which writes the Legislature to deal directly with the free pass abuse.

On Friday afternoon the House of Representatives came to its vote on the free pass bill, by which it passed it to be engrossed by 125 to 50 and two yeas. No one who has watched state house proceedings can doubt that the members would have been glad to defeat the bill if they could have done so under cover. There were very generous feelings in regard to admitting that free passes exerted a bad influence. Openly, and repeatedly, was it felt that the practice influenced whatever upon the opinion of the members, and few were they who had the boldness to declare outright that the practice was a scandal. The fight for legislative purity was made mostly in the abstract, of general principle, and it was fortunate that there could not dispute the general proposition that it was a pure technicality and that Jeffs is perfectly honest. But it hurt him on the vote.

On Friday afternoon the House of Representatives came to its vote on the free pass bill, by which it passed it to be engrossed by 125 to 50 and two yeas. No one who has watched state house proceedings can doubt that the members would have been glad to defeat the bill if they could have done so under cover. There were very generous feelings in regard to admitting that free passes exerted a bad influence. Openly, and repeatedly, was it felt that the practice influenced whatever upon the opinion of the members, and few were they who had the boldness to declare outright that the practice was a scandal. The fight for legislative purity was made mostly in the abstract, of general principle, and it was fortunate that there could not dispute the general proposition that it was a pure technicality and that Jeffs is perfectly honest. But it hurt him on the vote.

A bill has been reported to raise the governor's salary from $2000 to $10,000. Now so if the members do not put their pay from $750 to $1000 for the session.

"Cassidy has the head that" swears the governor's bill, for the governor is best covered financially with appeals for help which he humbly impudently know nothing about. In this instance, it is serious of our about. In the future of the prominent to be the prey of designing people of all sorts. Not only so, but the bill is a bad one, and it has but bold petitioners for spot cash are so numerous that scarcely a day passes without a letter or a person who is lost to be for it. People who run chicanery think the governor is fair game. If any benevolent enterprise is to be the prey of the governor, it is to be the prey of the members, but there was a pocket. So the desired amendment was made and the bill will undoubtedly be passed.

Not only the governor, but his wife also, is the recipient of many requests for small fancy articles for sale. Of course anything made by the governor's wife would have a quicker sale than the handiwork of a more humble but less prominent woman. It was to these appeals that the governor referred in his letter approving the bill to make the governor's salary $10,000, instead of $2000 a year, but requesting that it should not be made to take effect, as approved, during his term.

The letter was written to Senator Drury of Middlesex, a Democrat, and was read to the Senate. It contained an appreciative recognition of the courtesy shown to the governor by the members, but there was a pocket. So the desired amendment was made and the bill will undoubtedly be passed.

Not only the governor, but his wife also, is the recipient of many requests for small fancy articles for sale. Of course anything made by the governor's wife would have a quicker sale than the handiwork of a more humble but less prominent woman. It was to these appeals that the governor referred in his letter approving the bill to make the governor's salary $10,000, instead of $2000 a year, but requesting that it should not be made to take effect, as approved, during his term.

The letter was written to Senator Drury of Middlesex, a Democrat, and was read to the Senate. It contained an appreciative recognition of the courtesy shown to the governor by the members, but there was a pocket. So the desired amendment was made and the bill will undoubtedly be passed.

Not only the governor, but his wife also, is the recipient of many requests for small fancy articles for sale. Of course anything made by the governor's wife would have a quicker sale than the handiwork of a more humble but less prominent woman. It was to these appeals that the governor referred in his letter approving the bill to make the governor's salary $10,000, instead of $2000 a year, but requesting that it should not be made to take effect, as approved, during his term.

The letter was written to Senator Drury of Middlesex, a Democrat, and was read to the Senate. It contained an appreciative recognition of the courtesy shown to the governor by the members, but there was a pocket. So the desired amendment was made and the bill will undoubtedly be passed.

Not only the governor, but his wife also, is the recipient of many requests for small fancy articles for sale. Of course anything made by the governor's wife would have a quicker sale than the handiwork of a more humble but less prominent woman. It was to these appeals that the governor referred in his letter approving the bill to make the governor's salary $10,000, instead of $2000 a year, but requesting that it should not be made to take effect, as approved, during his term.

The letter was written to Senator Drury of Middlesex, a Democrat, and was read to the Senate. It contained an appreciative recognition of the courtesy shown to the governor by the members, but there was a pocket. So the desired amendment was made and the bill will undoubtedly be passed.

Not only the governor, but his wife also, is the recipient of many requests for small fancy articles for sale. Of course anything made by the governor's wife would have a quicker sale than the handiwork of a more humble but less prominent woman. It was to these appeals that the governor referred in his letter approving the bill to make the governor's salary $10,000, instead of $2000 a year, but requesting that it should not be made to take effect, as approved, during his term.

The letter was written to Senator Drury of Middlesex, a Democrat, and was read to the Senate. It contained an appreciative recognition of the courtesy shown to the governor by the members, but there was a pocket. So the desired amendment was made and the bill will undoubtedly be passed.

Not only the governor, but his wife also, is the recipient of many requests for small fancy articles for sale. Of course anything made by the governor's wife would have a quicker sale than the handiwork of a more humble but less prominent woman. It was to these appeals that the governor referred in his letter approving the bill to make the governor's salary $10,000, instead of $2000 a year, but requesting that it should not be made to take effect, as approved, during his term.

The letter was written to Senator Drury of Middlesex, a Democrat, and was read to the Senate. It contained an appreciative recognition of the courtesy shown to the governor by the members, but there was a pocket. So the desired amendment was made and the bill will undoubtedly be passed.

Not only the governor, but his wife also, is the recipient of many requests for small fancy articles for sale. Of course anything made by the governor's wife would have a quicker sale than the handiwork of a more humble but less prominent woman. It was to these appeals that the governor referred in his letter approving the bill to make the governor's salary $10,000, instead of $2000 a year, but requesting that it should not be made to take effect, as approved, during his term.

The letter was written to Senator Drury of Middlesex, a Democrat, and was read to the Senate. It contained an appreciative recognition of the courtesy shown to the governor by the members, but there was a pocket. So the desired amendment was made and the bill will undoubtedly be passed.

Not only the governor, but his wife also, is the recipient of many requests for small fancy articles for sale. Of course anything made by the governor's wife would have a quicker sale than the handiwork of a more humble but less prominent woman. It was to these appeals that the governor referred in his letter approving the bill to make the governor's salary $10,000, instead of $2000 a year, but requesting that it should not be made to take effect, as approved, during his term.

The letter was written to Senator Drury of Middlesex, a Democrat, and was read to the Senate. It contained an appreciative recognition of the courtesy shown to the governor by the members, but there was a pocket. So the desired amendment was made and the bill will undoubtedly be passed.

Not only the governor, but his wife also, is the recipient of many requests for small fancy articles for sale. Of course anything made by the governor's wife would have a quicker sale than the handiwork of a more humble but less prominent woman. It was to these appeals that the governor referred in his letter approving the bill to make the governor's salary $10,000, instead of $2000 a year, but requesting that it should not be made to take effect, as approved, during his term.

The letter was written to Senator Drury of Middlesex, a Democrat, and was read to the Senate. It contained an appreciative recognition of the courtesy shown to the governor by the members, but there was a pocket. So the desired amendment was made and the bill will undoubtedly be passed.

Not only the governor, but his wife also, is the recipient of many requests for small fancy articles for sale. Of course anything made by the governor's wife would have a quicker sale than the handiwork of a more humble but less prominent woman. It was to these appeals that the governor referred in his letter approving the bill to make the governor's salary $10,000, instead of $2000 a year, but requesting that it should not be made to take effect, as approved, during his term.

The letter was written to Senator Drury of Middlesex, a Democrat, and was read to the Senate. It contained an appreciative recognition of the courtesy shown to the governor by the members, but there was a pocket. So the desired amendment was made and the bill will undoubtedly be passed.

Not only the governor, but his wife also, is the recipient of many requests for small fancy articles for sale. Of course anything made by the governor's wife would have a quicker sale than the handiwork of a more humble but less prominent woman. It was to these appeals that the governor referred in his letter approving the bill to make the governor's salary $10,000, instead of $2000 a year, but requesting that it should not be made to take effect, as approved, during his term.

The letter was written to Senator Drury of Middlesex, a Democrat, and was read to the Senate. It contained an appreciative recognition of the courtesy shown to the governor by the members, but there was a pocket. So the desired amendment was made and the bill will undoubtedly be passed.

Not only the governor, but his wife also, is the recipient of many requests for small fancy articles for sale. Of course anything made by the governor's wife would have a quicker sale than the handiwork of a more humble but less prominent woman. It was to these appeals that the governor referred in his letter approving the bill to make the governor's salary $10,000, instead of $2000 a year, but requesting that it should not be made to take effect, as approved, during his term.

The letter was written to Senator Drury of Middlesex, a Democrat, and was read to the Senate. It contained an appreciative recognition of the courtesy shown to the governor by the members, but there was a pocket. So the desired amendment was made and the bill will undoubtedly be passed.

Not only the governor, but his wife also, is the recipient of many requests for small fancy articles for sale. Of course anything made by the governor's wife would have a quicker sale than the handiwork of a more humble but less prominent woman. It was to these appeals that the governor referred in his letter approving the bill to make the governor's salary $10,000, instead of $2000 a year, but requesting that it should not be made to take effect, as approved, during his term.

The letter was written to Senator Drury of Middlesex, a Democrat, and was read to the Senate. It contained an appreciative recognition of the courtesy shown to the governor by the members, but there was a pocket. So the desired amendment was made and the bill will undoubtedly be passed.

Not only the governor, but his wife also, is the recipient of many requests for small fancy articles for sale. Of course anything made by the governor's wife would have a quicker sale than the handiwork of a more humble but less prominent woman. It was to these appeals that the governor referred in his letter approving the bill to make the governor's salary $10,000, instead of $2000 a year, but requesting that it should not be made to take effect, as approved, during his term.

The letter was written to Senator Drury of Middlesex, a Democrat, and was read to the Senate. It contained an appreciative recognition of the courtesy shown to the governor by the members, but there was a pocket. So the desired amendment was made and the bill will undoubtedly be passed.

Not only the governor, but his wife also, is the recipient of many requests for small fancy articles for sale. Of course anything made by the governor's wife would have a quicker sale than the handiwork of a more humble but less prominent woman. It was to these appeals that the governor referred in his letter approving the bill to make the governor's salary $10,000, instead of $2000 a year, but requesting that it should not be made to take effect, as approved, during his term.

The letter was written to Senator Drury of Middlesex, a Democrat, and was read to the Senate. It contained an appreciative recognition of the courtesy shown to the governor by the members, but there was a pocket. So the desired amendment was made and the bill will undoubtedly be passed.

Not only the governor, but his wife also, is the recipient of many requests for small fancy articles for sale. Of course anything made by the governor's wife would have a quicker sale than the handiwork of a more humble but less prominent woman. It was to these appeals that the governor referred in his letter approving the bill to make the governor's salary $10,000, instead of $2000 a year, but requesting that it should not be made to take effect, as approved, during his term.

The letter was written to Senator Drury of Middlesex, a Democrat, and was read to the Senate. It contained an appreciative recognition of the courtesy shown to the governor by the members, but there was a pocket. So the desired amendment was made and the bill will undoubtedly be passed.

Not only the governor, but his wife also, is the recipient of many requests for small fancy articles for sale. Of course anything made by the governor's wife would have a quicker sale than the handiwork of a more humble but less prominent woman. It was to these appeals that the governor referred in his letter approving the bill to make the governor's salary $10,000, instead of $2000 a year, but requesting that it should not be made to take effect, as approved, during his term.

The letter was written to Senator Drury of Middlesex, a Democrat, and was read to the Senate. It contained an appreciative recognition of the courtesy shown to the governor by the members, but there was a pocket. So the desired amendment was made and the bill will undoubtedly be passed.

Not only the governor, but his wife also, is the recipient of many requests for small fancy articles for sale. Of course anything made by the governor's wife would have a quicker sale than the handiwork of a more humble but less prominent woman. It was to these appeals that the governor referred in his letter approving the bill to make the governor's salary $10,000, instead of $2000 a year, but requesting that it should not be made to take effect, as approved, during his term.

Two Democratic members of the liquor law committee, Messrs. Sullivan of Boston and Holley of Lawrence, dissent from the bill of the majority of the committee to regulate the sale of liquor in license towns which are summer resorts.

The bill provides for a special census of the temporary population, and if the town does not have over 5000 people, the census is to be taken on the 15th of June for every 500 people of the temporary class. The census is to be taken on the 15th of June for every 500 people of the temporary class. The census is to be taken on the 15th of June for every 500 people of the temporary class.

Quite a contest has occurred over the municipal fisheries in Buzzard's Bay. They are in danger from a bill pending in Congress to give the national government jurisdiction in what has hitherto been held to be the waters of the United States, and our congressmen in Washington and Gov. Russell have urged the legislature to take action to defend the interests and laws of Massachusetts. But some other interests have set to work and affected the House so much that the proposed resolutions, adopted at first by 68 to 28, were reconsidered and the whole matter sent to a select committee. All of which seems a queer way to uphold the dignity of Massachusetts.

There may be a great variety of answers; but when asked, which is your favorite perfume? There can be only one reply—Ayer's Sassafras, because it is the purest, safest and most economical.

"I have used Ayer's Pills for the past 20 years," and am satisfied I should not be alive today if it had not been for them. They cured me of dyspepsia and other troubles. I feel like a new man. Address A. P. Drury & Co., Boston, for a free trial.

That Baby of Mine.

Auntie, three months ago had salt rheum so bad that his head was a mass of sores, and I had been to lose all hopes of raising him, but my drug-get recommended solitary bottles, and today he is as fat and chipper as any baby you ever saw, and he has not a sore on his head, and just think that after paying out so much, that a few dollars' worth of salt rheum should cure him.—Mrs. J. C. Holt, Lowell.

Be Your Own Doctor!

It won't cost you one-half as much. Do not delay. Send two three-cent stamps for postage, and we will send you Dr. Kneffman's great work, the colored plates for men, women, children, smallest, mildest, surest, 25c. Samples free, at home cure. Address A. P. Drury & Co., Boston, for a free trial.

CHILDREN CRY FOR FITCHER'S CASTORIA.

Remarkable Facts.

Heart disease is usually supposed to be incurable, but when properly treated a large proportion of cases can be cured. This Mrs. Eliza Hatch of Fitcher, Ind., and Mrs. Mary L. Baker of Ohio, both of whom have been cured of heart disease, can testify to. Mrs. Hatch, who had been suffering from heart disease for 20 years, was cured by Fitcher's Castoria. Mrs. Baker, who had been suffering from heart disease for 10 years, was cured by Fitcher's Castoria. Both of them can testify to the fact that Fitcher's Castoria is the best remedy for heart disease.

CHILDREN CRY FOR FITCHER'S CASTORIA.

Remarkable Facts.

Heart disease is usually supposed to be incurable, but when properly treated a large proportion of cases can be cured. This Mrs. Eliza Hatch of Fitcher, Ind., and Mrs. Mary L. Baker of Ohio, both of whom have been cured of heart disease, can testify to. Mrs. Hatch, who had been suffering from heart disease for 20 years, was cured by Fitcher's Castoria. Mrs. Baker, who had been suffering from heart disease for 10 years, was cured by Fitcher's Castoria. Both of them can testify to the fact that Fitcher's Castoria is the best remedy for heart disease.

CHILDREN CRY FOR FITCHER'S CASTORIA.

Remarkable Facts.

Heart disease is usually supposed to be incurable, but when properly treated a large proportion of cases can be cured. This Mrs. Eliza Hatch of Fitcher, Ind., and Mrs. Mary L. Baker of Ohio, both of whom have been cured of heart disease, can testify to. Mrs. Hatch, who had been suffering from heart disease for 20 years, was cured by Fitcher's Castoria. Mrs. Baker, who had been suffering from heart disease for 10 years, was cured by Fitcher's Castoria. Both of them can testify to the fact that Fitcher's Castoria is the best remedy for heart disease.

CHILDREN CRY FOR FITCHER'S CASTORIA.

Remarkable Facts.

Heart disease is usually supposed to be incurable, but when properly treated a large proportion of cases can be cured. This Mrs. Eliza Hatch of Fitcher, Ind., and Mrs. Mary L. Baker of Ohio, both of whom have been cured of heart disease, can testify to. Mrs. Hatch, who had been suffering from heart disease for 20 years, was cured by Fitcher's Castoria. Mrs. Baker, who had been suffering from heart disease for 10 years, was cured by Fitcher's Castoria. Both of them can testify to the fact that Fitcher's Castoria is the best remedy for heart disease.

CHILDREN CRY FOR FITCHER'S CASTORIA.

Remarkable Facts.

Heart disease is usually supposed to be incurable, but when properly treated a large proportion of cases can be cured. This Mrs. Eliza Hatch of Fitcher, Ind., and Mrs. Mary L. Baker of Ohio, both of whom have been cured of heart disease, can testify to. Mrs. Hatch, who had been suffering from heart disease for 20 years, was cured by Fitcher's Castoria. Mrs. Baker, who had been suffering from heart disease for 10 years, was cured by Fitcher's Castoria. Both of them can testify to the fact that Fitcher's Castoria is the best remedy for heart disease.

CHILDREN CRY FOR FITCHER'S CASTORIA.

Remarkable Facts.

Heart disease is usually supposed to be incurable, but when properly treated a large proportion of cases can be cured. This Mrs. Eliza Hatch of Fitcher, Ind., and

NEIGHBORHOOD NOTES.

MONSON.

The selection will hold their last meeting for the financial year March 24th. There will be a roll-call of the 25 members of the M. E. church March 10th. Forty-eight couples danced at the hall in Central Hall last week Thursday night. All the lower schools and the academy observed Washington's Birthday as a holiday. Many people from town will attend the Whitney concert at Palmer next Tuesday night.

Harry Blackford of Tufts' Divinity school will preach in the Universalist church next Sunday.

Can't something be done to improve the North Main street sidewalks? They are in bad condition.

The C. E. society of the Methodist church will give its quarterly social and entertainment March 4th.

Warren Peace of Monson and Miss Minnie Walker of New Haven were married last Friday evening.

The cost to the town of Monson in changing the grade of the highway at the Hastings crossing was $882.

The housewife of the late Julia R. Anderson will be sold at auction Saturday, March 5th, at 1 o'clock p. m.

The firm of Smith & Holloway has been dissolved. Mr. Holloway will continue the business at the old place.

C. L. Jones has resigned his position as principal of the Green Street school, and has accepted a position in Lowell.

W. N. Flynt & Sons will add several new lectures to their line of goods, after the addition to the building are completed.

The W. N. Flynt & Sons Company has purchased the Hatch wood lot in Silver Street, and will immediately begin to cut the wood.

Miss Esther R. Holmes is away on an extended trip through the South, including Washington, Mass. Ann Converse will stay with Mrs. Holmes during her absence.

Rockwell's Theater Co. has been having all houses at Memorial Hall each evening with great success.

Rev. C. A. Dinsmore of Williamstown will exchange with Rev. F. S. Hatch next Sunday. Mr. Dinsmore is a graduate of Monson Academy '84, and will be welcomed by many in town.

Mr. Merriam gains very slowly, if at all, from the effects of his blow with the clock. Frank Cook took charge of his news room and post office for a while, but that is now closed, probably for good.

Hennam & Lichten, proprietors of the upper straw shop, have offered three sets of prizes to their employees. All who will do no less than their best, second to all who do less than twenty hours; third, to all who do less than forty hours.

The communion party held in the Congregational church parlors Monday evening was a great success. A good old-fashioned supper was served, after which there was a short entertainment. About $15 was taken, and all sent to the benefit.

Timothy Daulty takes exception to the statement that he was intoxicated when he struck Mr. Merriam last week. He says he has been a member of the Monson Temperance Society in good standing for two years, and so couldn't get drunk.

The reception committee, to attend to out-of-town delegates at the Y. P. C. E. convention today and tomorrow, are: From the Methodist church, Mr. Barker, Charles Bradley and Herbert Shaw; from the Congregational church, E. G. Crowdis, A. W. Merchant and C. H. Prentiss. The entertainment committee is Mrs. Perry, Charles Bradley and Miss Flora H. Converse.

At the parish meeting of the Congregational church Friday evening it was voted to put in new stained glass windows, thus fulfilling the conditions under which the new organ is presented by Mrs. C. W. Holmes and Miss Esther Holmes. The committee appointed at that time to solicit funds, and to have charge of the improvements, consists of the following: P. E. Morris, R. P. Cushman, L. C. Flynt.

E. G. Crowdis and G. L. Thompson were the delegates from Monson who attended the meeting of the W. M. I. A. A. Amherst last Saturday, at which meeting the following officers were elected: President, E. P. Winter; first vice president, E. G. Crowdis; second vice president, C. H. Adams; secretary, P. H. Foster, Jr.; treasurer, S. A. Deane. It was decided to change the 12-month shot to 16-month, and to lengthen the hurdle race to 220 yards, with hurdles 20 yards apart. Some changes were also made in the constitution.

Academy Notes.
Prof. Dunsen spent Sunday with his father in Hartford.

Miss Ethel Newton is ill with grippe at her home on East Hill.

W. P. Bissell went to his home in Holland Saturday, returning Tuesday.

Colonel Russell H. Conwell will give a lecture in Memorial Hall Tuesday evening, March 22d, under the auspices of the senior class.

The social last Friday evening was a grand success. The orchestra played well and added greatly to the enjoyment of the occasion.

Miss Fordham spent Sunday and Washington's Birthday at Mt. Holyoke College, and Miss Smith spent her vacation at her home in Hanover, Ct.

The programme for the meeting of the Lincolnton Society this evening is as follows: Introduction, Fred Russell, E. C. Bradley '56; five-minute essays on: "The Recent Chilian Affair," C. H. Prentiss '92, "The World's Grain Production for 1891," H. L. Blanchard '91; criticism by E. B. Francis '91 on essay by H. M. Lord '92. The Philadelphia programme is: Music; recitation, Miss Perry; reading, Miss Cushman; debate, "Question, Has a lawyer ever a right to plead a wrong case?" affirmative Miss Chisum, negative Miss Keep.

Personal.
E. P. Morris has been in town part of the week.

E. H. Hall is out again after a nine-weeks' illness.

W. H. Paul is confined to his house with the grippe.

Mrs. N. H. Talbot spent Wednesday in Springfield.

W. M. Tucker has been spending part of the week in Chatham, N. Y.

Miss Carr of Williamstown has been visiting Mrs. G. W. Farrington this week.

Miss Hannah Leach has resigned her position at W. N. Flynt & Sons' store.

Miss M. Cavin is attending the spring opening of millinery in New York this week.

C. S. Stearns, of the firm of W. N. Flynt & Sons, spent part of the week in Northampton.

H. P. Miller, who has for some time been working in South Grafton, Ct., is in town this week.

E. E. Thayer, a former student at the academy, but at present of Boston, was in town Monday.

Misses Annie and Lizzie Tarrant of Norwich have been the guests of Mrs. John Leach this week.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Seymour and daughter, and Miss L. S. Ross of East Granville have been the guests of C. H. Tryon this week.

David Johnson's Recollections of the Washingtonian Temperance Movement.

"As it is getting near the time," says Odell Johnson, "that you folks down town have your annual temperance meeting, I thought me of the temperance usage of years ago when Father Charter of Springfield made a crusade in this town, and to use his familiar expression 'We are going to have meetings first in one part of town, and first in another—and want you all to be there.' He had Uncle Joe Trotter on the platform, and many other rescued inebriates to tell their experience and urge others to sign the pledge. They did good work, went from house to house and urged people to sign the pledge, and if they couldn't sign total abstinence persuaded them to sign not to drink any distilled spirits. Such work is much in contrast with the so-called temperance meetings of today. Charter and his co-workers were earnest, sincere, and honestly working for the good of their fellowmen; sometimes the students would get in a little of their unsolicited work and tell the townsmen how they ought to do and try to make a home-made speech. I recollect on one occasion when the matter was being considered of how best to stop the monster evil, and the solid respectability of the evening had suggested that persistent work in getting signers to the pledge was one of the most effective measures, up jumps a deliver in Greek and Latin and with great confidence in his knowledge of men and affairs said, 'We must stop this great evil, extending as it does beyond the confines of this town, bringing shame, disgrace and starvation to multitudes that use the accursed stuff; and the secret of uprooting this evil lies in striking at the root of the primary cause; either is the first cause of so much drunkenness, and if we can drive that out it will be easy to accomplish our ends and eradicate the appetite for the stronger stimulants.' And raising his arms in true oratorical style, with loud voice he exclaimed, 'We must strike at the root of this evil; we must show our application to this; and thus we can cure it.' He was interrupted by a questioner who asked 'What shall we do for apples for pies?' 'Apples for pies?' quickly rejoined the student, 'Why, no dried apples.' The good work done by the members of the Washingtonian society in that town was very noticeable. It was interrupted by a questioner who asked 'What shall we do for apples for pies?' 'Apples for pies?' quickly rejoined the student, 'Why, no dried apples.' The good work done by the members of the Washingtonian society in that town was very noticeable.

It was interrupted by a questioner who asked 'What shall we do for apples for pies?' 'Apples for pies?' quickly rejoined the student, 'Why, no dried apples.' The good work done by the members of the Washingtonian society in that town was very noticeable.

It was interrupted by a questioner who asked 'What shall we do for apples for pies?' 'Apples for pies?' quickly rejoined the student, 'Why, no dried apples.' The good work done by the members of the Washingtonian society in that town was very noticeable.

It was interrupted by a questioner who asked 'What shall we do for apples for pies?' 'Apples for pies?' quickly rejoined the student, 'Why, no dried apples.' The good work done by the members of the Washingtonian society in that town was very noticeable.

It was interrupted by a questioner who asked 'What shall we do for apples for pies?' 'Apples for pies?' quickly rejoined the student, 'Why, no dried apples.' The good work done by the members of the Washingtonian society in that town was very noticeable.

It was interrupted by a questioner who asked 'What shall we do for apples for pies?' 'Apples for pies?' quickly rejoined the student, 'Why, no dried apples.' The good work done by the members of the Washingtonian society in that town was very noticeable.

It was interrupted by a questioner who asked 'What shall we do for apples for pies?' 'Apples for pies?' quickly rejoined the student, 'Why, no dried apples.' The good work done by the members of the Washingtonian society in that town was very noticeable.

It was interrupted by a questioner who asked 'What shall we do for apples for pies?' 'Apples for pies?' quickly rejoined the student, 'Why, no dried apples.' The good work done by the members of the Washingtonian society in that town was very noticeable.

It was interrupted by a questioner who asked 'What shall we do for apples for pies?' 'Apples for pies?' quickly rejoined the student, 'Why, no dried apples.' The good work done by the members of the Washingtonian society in that town was very noticeable.

It was interrupted by a questioner who asked 'What shall we do for apples for pies?' 'Apples for pies?' quickly rejoined the student, 'Why, no dried apples.' The good work done by the members of the Washingtonian society in that town was very noticeable.

It was interrupted by a questioner who asked 'What shall we do for apples for pies?' 'Apples for pies?' quickly rejoined the student, 'Why, no dried apples.' The good work done by the members of the Washingtonian society in that town was very noticeable.

It was interrupted by a questioner who asked 'What shall we do for apples for pies?' 'Apples for pies?' quickly rejoined the student, 'Why, no dried apples.' The good work done by the members of the Washingtonian society in that town was very noticeable.

It was interrupted by a questioner who asked 'What shall we do for apples for pies?' 'Apples for pies?' quickly rejoined the student, 'Why, no dried apples.' The good work done by the members of the Washingtonian society in that town was very noticeable.

It was interrupted by a questioner who asked 'What shall we do for apples for pies?' 'Apples for pies?' quickly rejoined the student, 'Why, no dried apples.' The good work done by the members of the Washingtonian society in that town was very noticeable.

It was interrupted by a questioner who asked 'What shall we do for apples for pies?' 'Apples for pies?' quickly rejoined the student, 'Why, no dried apples.' The good work done by the members of the Washingtonian society in that town was very noticeable.

It was interrupted by a questioner who asked 'What shall we do for apples for pies?' 'Apples for pies?' quickly rejoined the student, 'Why, no dried apples.' The good work done by the members of the Washingtonian society in that town was very noticeable.

It was interrupted by a questioner who asked 'What shall we do for apples for pies?' 'Apples for pies?' quickly rejoined the student, 'Why, no dried apples.' The good work done by the members of the Washingtonian society in that town was very noticeable.

It was interrupted by a questioner who asked 'What shall we do for apples for pies?' 'Apples for pies?' quickly rejoined the student, 'Why, no dried apples.' The good work done by the members of the Washingtonian society in that town was very noticeable.

It was interrupted by a questioner who asked 'What shall we do for apples for pies?' 'Apples for pies?' quickly rejoined the student, 'Why, no dried apples.' The good work done by the members of the Washingtonian society in that town was very noticeable.

It was interrupted by a questioner who asked 'What shall we do for apples for pies?' 'Apples for pies?' quickly rejoined the student, 'Why, no dried apples.' The good work done by the members of the Washingtonian society in that town was very noticeable.

It was interrupted by a questioner who asked 'What shall we do for apples for pies?' 'Apples for pies?' quickly rejoined the student, 'Why, no dried apples.' The good work done by the members of the Washingtonian society in that town was very noticeable.

It was interrupted by a questioner who asked 'What shall we do for apples for pies?' 'Apples for pies?' quickly rejoined the student, 'Why, no dried apples.' The good work done by the members of the Washingtonian society in that town was very noticeable.

It was interrupted by a questioner who asked 'What shall we do for apples for pies?' 'Apples for pies?' quickly rejoined the student, 'Why, no dried apples.' The good work done by the members of the Washingtonian society in that town was very noticeable.

It was interrupted by a questioner who asked 'What shall we do for apples for pies?' 'Apples for pies?' quickly rejoined the student, 'Why, no dried apples.' The good work done by the members of the Washingtonian society in that town was very noticeable.

It was interrupted by a questioner who asked 'What shall we do for apples for pies?' 'Apples for pies?' quickly rejoined the student, 'Why, no dried apples.' The good work done by the members of the Washingtonian society in that town was very noticeable.

It was interrupted by a questioner who asked 'What shall we do for apples for pies?' 'Apples for pies?' quickly rejoined the student, 'Why, no dried apples.' The good work done by the members of the Washingtonian society in that town was very noticeable.

It was interrupted by a questioner who asked 'What shall we do for apples for pies?' 'Apples for pies?' quickly rejoined the student, 'Why, no dried apples.' The good work done by the members of the Washingtonian society in that town was very noticeable.

It was interrupted by a questioner who asked 'What shall we do for apples for pies?' 'Apples for pies?' quickly rejoined the student, 'Why, no dried apples.' The good work done by the members of the Washingtonian society in that town was very noticeable.

It was interrupted by a questioner who asked 'What shall we do for apples for pies?' 'Apples for pies?' quickly rejoined the student, 'Why, no dried apples.' The good work done by the members of the Washingtonian society in that town was very noticeable.

It was interrupted by a questioner who asked 'What shall we do for apples for pies?' 'Apples for pies?' quickly rejoined the student, 'Why, no dried apples.' The good work done by the members of the Washingtonian society in that town was very noticeable.

It was interrupted by a questioner who asked 'What shall we do for apples for pies?' 'Apples for pies?' quickly rejoined the student, 'Why, no dried apples.' The good work done by the members of the Washingtonian society in that town was very noticeable.

It was interrupted by a questioner who asked 'What shall we do for apples for pies?' 'Apples for pies?' quickly rejoined the student, 'Why, no dried apples.' The good work done by the members of the Washingtonian society in that town was very noticeable.

It was interrupted by a questioner who asked 'What shall we do for apples for pies?' 'Apples for pies?' quickly rejoined the student, 'Why, no dried apples.' The good work done by the members of the Washingtonian society in that town was very noticeable.

It was interrupted by a questioner who asked 'What shall we do for apples for pies?' 'Apples for pies?' quickly rejoined the student, 'Why, no dried apples.' The good work done by the members of the Washingtonian society in that town was very noticeable.

It was interrupted by a questioner who asked 'What shall we do for apples for pies?' 'Apples for pies?' quickly rejoined the student, 'Why, no dried apples.' The good work done by the members of the Washingtonian society in that town was very noticeable.

It was interrupted by a questioner who asked 'What shall we do for apples for pies?' 'Apples for pies?' quickly rejoined the student, 'Why, no dried apples.' The good work done by the members of the Washingtonian society in that town was very noticeable.

It was interrupted by a questioner who asked 'What shall we do for apples for pies?' 'Apples for pies?' quickly rejoined the student, 'Why, no dried apples.' The good work done by the members of the Washingtonian society in that town was very noticeable.

It was interrupted by a questioner who asked 'What shall we do for apples for pies?' 'Apples for pies?' quickly rejoined the student, 'Why, no dried apples.' The good work done by the members of the Washingtonian society in that town was very noticeable.

It was interrupted by a questioner who asked 'What shall we do for apples for pies?' 'Apples for pies?' quickly rejoined the student, 'Why, no dried apples.' The good work done by the members of the Washingtonian society in that town was very noticeable.

It was interrupted by a questioner who asked 'What shall we do for apples for pies?' 'Apples for pies?' quickly rejoined the student, 'Why, no dried apples.' The good work done by the members of the Washingtonian society in that town was very noticeable.

It was interrupted by a questioner who asked 'What shall we do for apples for pies?' 'Apples for pies?' quickly rejoined the student, 'Why, no dried apples.' The good work done by the members of the Washingtonian society in that town was very noticeable.

It was interrupted by a questioner who asked 'What shall we do for apples for pies?' 'Apples for pies?' quickly rejoined the student, 'Why, no dried apples.' The good work done by the members of the Washingtonian society in that town was very noticeable.

It was interrupted by a questioner who asked 'What shall we do for apples for pies?' 'Apples for pies?' quickly rejoined the student, 'Why, no dried apples.' The good work done by the members of the Washingtonian society in that town was very noticeable.

It was interrupted by a questioner who asked 'What shall we do for apples for pies?' 'Apples for pies?' quickly rejoined the student, 'Why, no dried apples.' The good work done by the members of the Washingtonian society in that town was very noticeable.

It was interrupted by a questioner who asked 'What shall we do for apples for pies?' 'Apples for pies?' quickly rejoined the student, 'Why, no dried apples.' The good work done by the members of the Washingtonian society in that town was very noticeable.

It was interrupted by a questioner who asked 'What shall we do for apples for pies?' 'Apples for pies?' quickly rejoined the student, 'Why, no dried apples.' The good work done by the members of the Washingtonian society in that town was very noticeable.

It was interrupted by a questioner who asked 'What shall we do for apples for pies?' 'Apples for pies?' quickly rejoined the student, 'Why, no dried apples.' The good work done by the members of the Washingtonian society in that town was very noticeable.

It was interrupted by a questioner who asked 'What shall we do for apples for pies?' 'Apples for pies?' quickly rejoined the student, 'Why, no dried apples.' The good work done by the members of the Washingtonian society in that town was very noticeable.

It was interrupted by a questioner who asked 'What shall we do for apples for pies?' 'Apples for pies?' quickly rejoined the student, 'Why, no dried apples.' The good work done by the members of the Washingtonian society in that town was very noticeable.

It was interrupted by a questioner who asked 'What shall we do for apples for pies?' 'Apples for pies?' quickly rejoined the student, 'Why, no dried apples.' The good work done by the members of the Washingtonian society in that town was very noticeable.

It was interrupted by a questioner who asked 'What shall we do for apples for pies?' 'Apples for pies?' quickly rejoined the student, 'Why, no dried apples.' The good work done by the members of the Washingtonian society in that town was very noticeable.

It was interrupted by a questioner who asked 'What shall we do for apples for pies?' 'Apples for pies?' quickly rejoined the student, 'Why, no dried apples.' The good work done by the members of the Washingtonian society in that town was very noticeable.

It was interrupted by a questioner who asked 'What shall we do for apples for pies?' 'Apples for pies?' quickly rejoined the student, 'Why, no dried apples.' The good work done by the members of the Washingtonian society in that town was very noticeable.

It was interrupted by a questioner who asked 'What shall we do for apples for pies?' 'Apples for pies?' quickly rejoined the student, 'Why, no dried apples.' The good work done by the members of the Washingtonian society in that town was very noticeable.

evening a large line of new goods will be opened.

Porter Wallbridge has been confined to his room for several days with stomach trouble, supposed to be caused by a bullet wound in his arm received while in the army. His case is quite critical.

NORTH WILBRAHAM.
The Carter Co.'s mill was closed Wednesday.

H. W. Cutler took admittance trip to New York Saturday.

W. A. Wellington of Malden was the guest of A. E. Bell Friday night.

Fred Fletcher of Springfield visited his brother, C. E. Fletcher, Monday.

J. M. Perry and family visited friends in Springfield Washington's Birthday.

The sale among allowing visitors in the paper mill is being rigidly enforced.

Friday night has turned over a new leaf and crises now before breakfast. (?)

It cost the town $102 to have the change in the grade made at the Collins crossing.

Miss E. Bell spent Sunday in Springfield.

A. D. Thibault will sell his dwelling house on the site of the one recently burned.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Collins have given up their proposed Florida trip, and may go to California.

Captain A. S. Wall has been confined to his bed for a week, having had a severe chill last Friday.

Mrs. B. R. Chase has been in Foxboro for several days, caring for Mr. Chase's mother, who is seriously ill.

There will be an illustrated lecture in St. Catharine's church March 10th by Prof. Frederick H. Jones on "Six Great Cities: Dublin, London, Paris, Antwerp, Venice, Rome," with magnificent dissolving stereoscopic views.

BRIEF.
Mrs. Albert Peirson is on the sick list.

Silas Elery left town Monday to visit his aunt in Baltimore.

Miss Annie Peirson has returned from her visit with friends in New Haven.

Mrs. Abbie Andrews of Wilbraham has been spending a few days in town.

Bert Furness, who is attending school in Worcester, was home over Sunday.

Louis S. Brown is selling out his entire stock of goods at cost, preparatory to leaving town.

Mrs. G. M. Hitchcock, who has been with her daughter in Meriden, Ct., for over three months, returned home the first part of this week.

The bean dinner given by the ladies of the second Congregational church was attended by a large number of people. The ladies realized about $20.

The Washington Reception given by the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor at the first Congregational church Monday evening was enjoyed by over one hundred people. The entertainment commenced at eight o'clock with a few short remarks by Rev. Mr. Rand on the character of Washington.

Following this there were tableaux, music and recitations. The young people were dressed in ancient costumes and looked very pretty. An old-fashioned supper and ice cream were served after the entertainment for all who wished it. The affair was a success in every way, and it is hoped they will have another reception in the near future.

WARREN.
Miss Dow has returned to town and opened her shop.

The Tuesday Club will meet with Mrs. D. H. Hitchcock next Tuesday.

Mrs. Joseph Hastings of Boston spent last Sunday at his home in town.

Frank George of Boston has been spending a few days in town visiting his mother.

The Farmers' Club met with Frank Keyes Tuesday, a large number being present.

Miss Mary Powers of Boston spent Sunday and Monday with Mrs. William Parker.

A party of young people visited Gilt's art exhibition at Springfield Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Heston of North Brookfield were the guests of N. A. Shepard this week.

The ladies of the Home Missionary Society sent a box of clothing to Straight's University this week.

The new depot was opened for use Monday and is well arranged. The people are much pleased with it, having had such poor accommodations in the old one.

Mrs. Ellen Battle of Westfield, Mrs. Lucy Stone, the president of the Massachusetts Association, and Mrs. Julia Ward Howe are to be present at the Women's Suffrage Convention in Warren town hall March 7.

The funeral of Nathan Richardson took place at his residence Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock. Rev. Mr. Rich, Rev. O. L. Darling, and Rev. H. G. Hale officiated.

Dea. Whipple, A. L. Converse, Judge Tyler, G. Baron, William Cowes, and L. O. Able were the pall bearers. Mr. Richardson has been residing in town for forty-seven years, and largely identified himself with all its interests. Having traveled extensively and being fond of books, it has been one of his great desires to have a public library in town. To this he gave largely, and was the president of the library association at the time of his death. It was a place he loved to visit, and did so as long as his health permitted. A blue portrait of him, given when the new library was opened, will keep his name long in remembrance. He will be missed by his many friends, being a genial man, always having a pleasant welcome for all. His wife died several years since, and a niece, Mrs. Andon, has lived with him, and very tenderly cared for him in his declining years. He leaves a brother, Stephen Richardson, in town, also a sister in Boston, besides several nieces and nephews. He was Unitarian in his belief, but attended the Universalist church.

WILBRAHAM.
Mrs. C. P. Mowry is visiting her father in Beantown, Vt.

E. H. Brewer of Dalton spent a few days in town last week.

Mrs. Strout of New York has been the guest of Mrs. Curtis the past week.

William Grange visited the district grange held at West Springfield Wednesday.

The ladies of the Congregational church gave an oyster supper in the chapel Thursday evening.

Rev. Ernest P. Herrick, pastor of the First M. E. church of Waltham, will preach in the Memorial M. E. church next Sabbath morning, in exchange with the pastor, his brother.

Presiding Elder Eaton held a quarterly conference in the Memorial church last Saturday evening, and preached in the church Sunday. It was his last official visit for the year.

The Methodist church held its quarterly conference Saturday and elected the following officers: Trustees, Dr. G. M. Steele, Prof. B. G. George, E. Russell, Sr., James Foster, Jesse L. Rice, Alvin Gilson, H. A. Morgan, Capt. A. S. Plagg; stewards, B. B. Wright, A. S. Plagg, E. H. Brewer, G. E. Russell, Mrs. G. M. Steele, Miss Jennie Pike, Mr. G. M. Steele, David Bower, James Stevens, Prof. Cooper, Prof. Sawyer, W. H. McGuire, Jr., Oliver Spaulding. The conference was unanimous in asking for the return of Rev. Austin Herrick, the present pastor.

The Christian Endeavor society of the Congregational church has elected these officers: President, Harry E. Clark; vice president, Mrs. W. L. Phelps; secretary, M. Adelle Pease; treasurer, Florence H. Clark; committees—lookout, Edward H. Pease, Mrs. L. E. Phelps, Frank H. Warner, J. P. Phelps, W. H. McGuire, C. A. Moody; mission, Henry E. Clark, David Moore, M. A. Pease, C. Moody; social, Henry Clark, E. C. Clark, Mary E. Howard, May F. Merriam, Mrs. E. J. Fouten; Sunday school, M. E. Holden, E. J. Olmstead, H. A. Day, E. P. Bottom; flower, Mrs. W. L. Phelps, Carrie Goodrich, Henry A. Day, Arthur Stebbins; organist, Florence H. Clark; assistant organist, Frank Warner.

WARE.
L. Cohn will open his store in Trench's block next week.

There was only one application for naturalization papers last Friday.

The Woman's Auxiliary of Trinity church is to hold an afternoon concert and apron sale at the residence of Mrs. R. C. Snow next Tuesday, from 3 to 5 o'clock.

Frederick Smith, coachman for Col. E. H. Gilbert, was badly burned by spilling a boiler of hot water upon himself in the harness room last Sunday evening.

The Ware National Bank was closed on Wednesday out of respect to Nathan Herrick.

Frederick Smith, coachman for Col. E. H. Gilbert, was badly burned by spilling a boiler of hot water upon himself in the harness room last Sunday evening.

Mrs. Joshua P. Crowell died Monday evening, aged 70. For many years she has been a member of the Methodist church, and until failing health prevented has been identified with all the interests of the church and society.

She leaves a husband, son and daughter.

Milton Perry, aged 70, died Monday after a long illness, suffering with a tumor on his throat. He has for some years been employed as a wool sorter by C. A. Stevens & Co. He was a native of Calais, Vt., but has been a resident here 41 years. He was an Old Fellow and Mason, and in the insurance companies of these orders he carried a large amount of business.

A big crowd attended the special town meeting Wednesday evening. The real question at stake all seemed to understand was whether or not to have a school superintendent or not, and the movement was defeated 218 to 55. H. M. Cony presided, and remarks were made in favor of school superintendence by Col. E. H. Gilbert, J. H. G. Gilbert and Edwin H. Baker. The other side was supported by Mr. H. M. Cony. The vote was largely against any change, but it is thought by some that there may be a different expression at the annual town meeting. It was voted that the number of constables to be voted for at the annual meeting be limited to four.

CHILDREN CIV FOR FITCHES CASTORIA.
L. G. Gillette Again.

Castoria

For Infants and Children.
Castoria promotes Digestion, and overcomes Flatulency, Constipation, Sour Stomach, Diarrhea, and Feverishness. Thus the child is rendered healthy and its sleep natural. Castoria contains no Morphine or other narcotic property.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any preparation known to me."
—H. A. Adams, M.D.,
111 South Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"I use Castoria in my practice, and find it especially adapted to the treatment of children."
—ALEX. HARRISON, M.D.,
100 E. 12th St., New York.

"From personal knowledge and observation I can say that Castoria is an excellent medicine for children, acting as a laxative and relieving the bowels, and general system very much. Many mothers have told me of its excellent effect upon their children."
—Dr. G. C. Hanson,
Boston, Mass.

The Castoria Company, 77 Murray Street, N. Y.

BOSTON & MAINE R. R.

SOUTHERN DIVISION
(CENTRAL MASSACHUSETTS)
WINTER ARRANGEMENT, OCTOBER 4, 1891.

TRAINS LEAVE WARE:

GOING EAST
FOR Boston—6:00, 7:00, 8:15 a.m.; 3:15, 4:20 p.m.
Sundays, 6:00, 7:00 a.m.

RETURNING—Leave Boston 8:00 a.m.; 1:30, 4:00, 5:45 p.m. Sundays, 1:30, 4:00 p.m.

FOR Worcester—7:00, 8:15 a.m.; 2:15 p.m. Sundays, 7:00 a.m.

RETURNING—Leave Worcester 8:50 a.m.; 2:25, 4:50, 6:20 p.m.

FOR Andover, Haverhill and Waltham—7:00, 8:15 a.m.; 2:15 p.m. Sundays, 7:00 a.m.

FOR Lowell, Haverhill and Concord—7:00, 8:15 a.m.; 2:15 p.m. Sundays, 7:00 a.m.

FOR Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington, via Poughkeepsie Bridge Route—7:00 p.m.

THROUGH PUTMAN SLEEPING BUFFET

D. J. FLANNERY, Gen'l. Pass'r. Agt.
JAMES T. FERRER, Gen'l. Mgr.

NEW LONDON NORTHERN RAILROAD.

TRAINS GOING SOUTH

Leave Brattleboro, 8:45 a.m. and 4:45 p.m. for New London, connecting at Millers Falls with the New London and Portland (Maine) R.R.

Leave Brattleboro, 8:45 a.m. and 4:45 p.m. for New London, connecting at Millers Falls with the New London and Portland (Maine) R.R.

Leave Brattleboro, 8:45 a.m. and 4:45 p.m. for New London, connecting at Millers Falls with the New London and Portland (Maine) R.R.

Leave Brattleboro, 8:45 a.m. and 4:45 p.m. for New London, connecting at Millers Falls with the New London and Portland (Maine) R.R.

Leave Brattleboro, 8:45 a.m. and 4:45 p.m. for New London, connecting at Millers Falls with the New London and Portland (Maine) R.R.

Leave Brattleboro, 8:45 a.m. and 4:45 p.m. for New London, connecting at Millers Falls with the New London and Portland (Maine) R.R.

Leave Brattleboro, 8:45 a.m. and 4:45 p.m. for New London, connecting at Millers Falls with the New London and Portland (Maine) R.R.

Leave Brattleboro, 8:45 a.m. and 4:45 p.m. for New London, connecting at Millers Falls with the New London and Portland (Maine) R.R.

Leave Brattleboro, 8:45 a.m. and 4:45 p.m. for New London, connecting at Millers Falls with the New London and Portland (Maine) R.R.

Leave Brattleboro, 8:45 a.m. and 4:45 p.m. for New London, connecting at Millers Falls with the New London and Portland (Maine) R.R.

Leave Brattleboro, 8:45 a.m. and 4:45 p.m. for New London, connecting at Millers Falls with the New London and Portland (Maine) R.R.

Leave Brattleboro, 8:45 a.m. and 4:45 p.m. for New London, connecting at Millers Falls with the New London and Portland (Maine) R.R.

Leave Brattleboro, 8:45 a.m. and 4:45 p.m. for New London, connecting at Millers Falls with the New London and Portland (Maine) R.R.

Leave Brattleboro, 8:45 a.m. and 4:45 p.m. for New London, connecting at Millers Falls with the New London and Portland (Maine) R.R.

Leave Brattleboro, 8:45 a.m. and 4:45 p.m. for New London, connecting at Millers Falls with the New London and Portland (Maine) R.R.

Leave Brattleboro, 8:45 a.m. and 4:45 p.m. for New London, connecting at Millers Falls with the New London and Portland (Maine) R.R.

Leave Brattleboro, 8:45 a.m. and 4:45 p.m. for New London, connecting at Millers Falls with the New London and Portland (Maine) R.R.

Leave Brattleboro, 8:45 a.m. and 4:45 p.m. for New London, connecting at Millers Falls with the New London and Portland (Maine) R.R.

Leave Brattleboro, 8:45 a.m. and 4:45 p.m. for New London, connecting at Millers Falls with the New London and Portland (Maine) R.R.

Leave Brattleboro, 8:45 a.m. and 4:45 p.m. for New London, connecting at Millers Falls with the New London and Portland (Maine) R.R.

Leave Brattleboro, 8:45 a.m. and 4:45 p.m. for New London, connecting at Millers Falls with the New London and Portland (Maine) R.R.

Leave Brattleboro, 8:45 a.m. and 4:45 p.m. for New London, connecting at Millers Falls with the New London and Portland (Maine) R.R.

Leave Brattleboro, 8:45 a.m. and 4:45 p.m. for New London, connecting at Millers Falls with the New London and Portland (Maine) R.R.

Leave Brattleboro, 8:45 a.m. and 4:45 p.m. for New London, connecting at Millers Falls with the New London and Portland (Maine) R.R.

Leave Brattleboro, 8:45 a.m. and 4:45 p.m. for New London, connecting at Millers Falls with the New London and Portland (Maine) R.R.

Leave Brattleboro, 8:45 a.m. and 4:45 p.m. for New London, connecting at Millers Falls with the New London and Portland (Maine) R.R.

Leave Brattleboro, 8:45 a.m. and 4:45 p.m. for New London, connecting at Millers Falls with the New London and Portland (Maine) R.R.

Leave Brattleboro, 8:45 a.m. and 4:45 p.m. for New London, connecting at Millers Falls with the New London and Portland (Maine) R.R.

Leave Brattleboro, 8:45 a.m. and 4:45 p.m. for New London, connecting at Millers Falls with the New London and Portland (Maine) R.R.

Leave Brattleboro, 8:45 a.m. and 4:45 p.m. for New London, connecting at Millers Falls with the New London and Portland (Maine) R.R.

Leave Brattleboro, 8:45 a.m. and 4:45 p.m. for New London, connecting at Millers Falls with the New London and Portland (Maine) R.R.

Leave Brattleboro, 8:45 a.m. and 4:45 p.m. for New London, connecting at Millers Falls with the New London and Portland (Maine) R.R.

Leave Brattleboro, 8:45 a.m. and 4:45 p.m. for New London, connecting at Millers Falls with the New London and Portland (Maine) R.R.

Leave Brattleboro, 8:45 a.m. and 4:45 p.m. for New London, connecting at Millers Falls with the New London and Portland (Maine) R.R.

Leave Brattleboro, 8:45 a.m. and 4:45 p.m. for New London, connecting at Millers Falls with the New London and Portland (Maine) R.R.

Leave Brattleboro, 8:45 a.m. and 4:45 p.m. for New London, connecting at Millers Falls with the New London and Portland (Maine) R.R.

Leave Brattleboro, 8:45 a.m. and 4:45 p.m. for New London, connecting at Millers Falls with the New London and Portland (Maine) R.R.

Leave Brattleboro, 8:45 a.m. and 4:45 p.m. for New London, connecting at Millers Falls with the New London and Portland (Maine) R.R.

Leave Brattleboro, 8:45 a.m. and 4:45 p.m. for New London, connecting at Millers Falls with the New London and Portland (Maine) R.R.

To the Influenza Germ.

By the sneezing fits which chill us,
By the feverish heats which grill us,
By the aches which maul and mill us,
By the quacks which maul and mill us,
By the hydropaths who swell us,
By the allopaths who bill us,
By the nervous fays which kill us,
Tell us, tell us, we beseech you,
What, and why, and where, and when?

Say, are you a germ atom?
Have you seen economic?
Are you truly unassuming?
Are you solid or liquid?
Frankly, is your cause zymotic?
Are you native or exotic?
When your business is terminated
To your stay to be protracted?
And do you intend, however,
To return again and kill us?
Do make answer, if you please!
Tell us briefly, tiny mystery,
What's your source and what's your history?
Clear the clouds of obfuscation
That surround your institution!
Pardon, without more objection,
Your related introduction.
Let us know your why and wherefore,
What it is you're in the air for.
And meanwhile, O we beseech you,
Since with morbid doubt you fill us,
Fritter, rather, than leave at once!

—London Weekly.

AMONG THE PARAGRAPHS.

THE POLITICAL POT.
The mayor's ramble for Congress.
The alderman's ramble for mayor.
The janitor's ramble for janitor.
The tax man's ramble for sheriff.
The county land for the sheriff.
The doctor's ramble for owner.

THE ADJUTANT GENERAL'S RAMBLE.
Pupils (in class in punctuation, reading)—
"Well, what would you do?" Teacher—"Make a dash after Alice." Teacher—"Right!" Pupils—"Right!"

"I see Miss Van Perkins and Harold Smith, of the Four Hundred, were married the other day." "Yes, I was there." "Was there any special feature about the wedding?" "Yes. It was a love match."

"Miss Bessie," he faltered, "do you think you could learn to love me?" "I think I might, Mr. Spoonman," she answered, with downcast eyes, "if I were taught." And the next moment he had her aunt.—Chicago Tribune.

Ginsling—"It's all nonsense to say that New Year's resolutions do no good. I swear off myself last New Year's." Long—"You did, eh?" Ginsling—"Yes sir; and I stuck it out a full week—saved $20."—New York Weekly.

BOGS.—"You wanted this horse not to be afraid of the dark, but the first time I tried to go on the string the buggy through four counties," Horse Dealer—"I couldn't have been the cars; are you sure he didn't see the locomotive?"—New York Herald.

DOCTOR (to a man).—"The best thing for your dyspepsia is to drink hot water an hour before dinner. Patient (pushing into doctor's minutes straight, and I can't swallow another drop."—Brooklyn Life.

SCHOOLMA' (to Boston).—"I am told that Willie Brown used improper language on the playgrounds. He may come forward." Willie Brown—"I didn't say no bad words. Schoolma'am—'Sister, Willie, come up so readily, I will excuse him this time."—Kittie Field's Washington.

He (tenderly).—"Ah, Miss Maria, you are the one among ten thousand altogether lovely." She (putting)—"I don't think that's a bit nice, Mr. Stockton-Bombs." She (in surprise).—"I beg your pardon." She (generally).—"Why didn't you say one among Four Hundred?"—Detroit Free Press.

Elder brother (who has to do the work for the family).—"Ed, did I hear you say the other day that you wished you knew how to milk a cow?" Younger brother—"Yes." Elder brother (benignly).—"Well, if you will which my shoes for me I will let you milk the cow tonight." The arrangement was made and performed.—Buffalo Courier.

"I've a great notion to go and jump into the river said Mr. N. Peck at the end of a little domestic discussion, as he picked up his hat and started out. "You come right back here," said his wife. "If you won't mind, you can't get into the river without getting into my such tricks as that, just much upstairs and put on your old clothes before you start."—Indianapolis Journal.

First Lady—"I saw your husband meet you on Fulton street yesterday, and I noticed that he removed his hat while speaking with you. I admired him for it. Very few men do that." Second Lady—"I remember; I told him in the morning to have his hair cut, and he was showing me that he had obeyed."—Smith Gray & Co's Monthly.

"My darling," she murmured, "you know that I love you. Is this not enough for the present?" He (who had just met a day for wedding is soon as it is possible).—"That's all right, Miranda," doggedly replied the young man, "but I hope you will remember that I've got to be married in this dress suit, and it won't last for ever."—Chickadee and Furnisher.

There is a story I heard in Ireland. A quarrel had taken place at a fair, and a youth was being sentenced for manslaughter. The doctor, however, had given evidence to show that the victim's skull was abnormally thin. The prisoner, on being asked if he had any honor, but I would ask, was that a skull for a man to go to a fair with?"—Cur. London Spectator.

Managing Editor (to proprietor).—"Floyer, our up-town man, ought to have a desk. He's the best reporter we got." Proprietor—"How's that? I thought he was a regular stick." Managing Editor—"Stick? Why, he's a genius. He found that broken rule that caused that accident on the Zig Zag Central and sat on a stone eight hours waiting for the accident to occur, so he could get the story in to-night's paper."—Frank's Magazine.

Benevolent Cellini had just finished a beautiful lamp, when Loretta Furbush entered his studio. This gentle lady admired the work in silver, but failed to grasp the meaning of the design. The design appears to me (illustrate) a Biblical episode," said she. "It does," returned Cellini; "Daniel in the lions' den is the subject." "Ah! but I see only the lions." "Unfortunately," however, you note a slight distortion of the lions' bodies?" "Yes," "Well, that's Daniel."—Jeweler's Circular.

Young Man Lodger—"Will you marry me?" Landlady—"Let me see. You have boarded with me four years. You have paid promptly. You have never grumbled at your food. No; I cannot marry you." "Perhaps if I had asked like Duffer and asked the coffee, grumbled at the severity of the letter, always been a month behind in pay, you always have married me?" "Yes, perhaps you would. As it is I will marry Duffer." "What?" "Yes, I will marry Duffer. He needs some discipline. You are too good a boarder to put on the free list."—Tit-Bits.

How's This?
We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Catarrh that can not be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. C. W. Hooper, Toledo, O.

P. J. Cusack & Co., Props., Toledo, O.

We, the undersigned, have known P. J. Cusack for the last 15 years, and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transactions and financially able to carry out all obligations made by him.

West & Traux, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O.

Walling, Kimball & Marvin, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Price 75c per bottle. Sold by all druggists. Testimonials free.

Why is HOOD'S Sarsaparilla

Such a great success, and why is it impossible for other Sarsaparillas and blood purifiers to compete with this great medicine? Because Sarsaparilla or gives as much medicine for the money as Hood's Sarsaparilla.

No Other Sarsaparilla has the careful personal supervision of the proprietor in all the details of preparation, as has Hood's Sarsaparilla.

No Other Sarsaparilla has the merit to secure the confidence of entire communities and hold it year in and year out, as has Hood's Sarsaparilla.

No Other Sarsaparilla can produce from actual cures such wonderful statements of relief given to human suffering as Hood's Sarsaparilla.

No Other Sarsaparilla possesses the combination, Proportion and Process Peculiar to Hood's Sarsaparilla, and which makes Hood's Sarsaparilla in curative effect superior to itself.

No Other Sarsaparilla commands the confidence of the community and strength as does Hood's Sarsaparilla. It is the only preparation of which can truly be said, "See Hood's Sarsaparilla."

No Other Sarsaparilla has effected such remarkable cures as Hood's Sarsaparilla, of Scrofula, Salt Rheum, blood poisoning and all other blood diseases.

No Other Sarsaparilla has equalled Hood's Sarsaparilla in the relief it gives in the severest cases of Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Sick Headache, Biliousness, Heartburn, and other stomach disorders.

No Other Sarsaparilla comes that Tired Feeling, Restores the Appetite, and "Makes the Weak Strong." It is the only Sarsaparilla with downcast eyes, "if I were taught." And the next moment he had her aunt.—Chicago Tribune.

Ginsling—"It's all nonsense to say that New Year's resolutions do no good. I swear off myself last New Year's." Long—"You did, eh?" Ginsling—"Yes sir; and I stuck it out a full week—saved $20."—New York Weekly.

BOGS.—"You wanted this horse not to be afraid of the dark, but the first time I tried to go on the string the buggy through four counties," Horse Dealer—"I couldn't have been the cars; are you sure he didn't see the locomotive?"—New York Herald.

DOCTOR (to a man).—"The best thing for your dyspepsia is to drink hot water an hour before dinner. Patient (pushing into doctor's minutes straight, and I can't swallow another drop."—Brooklyn Life.

SCHOOLMA' (to Boston).—"I am told that Willie Brown used improper language on the playgrounds. He may come forward." Willie Brown—"I didn't say no bad words. Schoolma'am—'Sister, Willie, come up so readily, I will excuse him this time."—Kittie Field's Washington.

He (tenderly).—"Ah, Miss Maria, you are the one among ten thousand altogether lovely." She (putting)—"I don't think that's a bit nice, Mr. Stockton-Bombs." She (in surprise).—"I beg your pardon." She (generally).—"Why didn't you say one among Four Hundred?"—Detroit Free Press.

Elder brother (who has to do the work for the family).—"Ed, did I hear you say the other day that you wished you knew how to milk a cow?" Younger brother—"Yes." Elder brother (benignly).—"Well, if you will which my shoes for me I will let you milk the cow tonight." The arrangement was made and performed.—Buffalo Courier.

"I've a great notion to go and jump into the river said Mr. N. Peck at the end of a little domestic discussion, as he picked up his hat and started out. "You come right back here," said his wife. "If you won't mind, you can't get into the river without getting into my such tricks as that, just much upstairs and put on your old clothes before you start."—Indianapolis Journal.

First Lady—"I saw your husband meet you on Fulton street yesterday, and I noticed that he removed his hat while speaking with you. I admired him for it. Very few men do that." Second Lady—"I remember; I told him in the morning to have his hair cut, and he was showing me that he had obeyed."—Smith Gray & Co's Monthly.

"My darling," she murmured, "you know that I love you. Is this not enough for the present?" He (who had just met a day for wedding is soon as it is possible).—"That's all right, Miranda," doggedly replied the young man, "but I hope you will remember that I've got to be married in this dress suit, and it won't last for ever."—Chickadee and Furnisher.

There is a story I heard in Ireland. A quarrel had taken place at a fair, and a youth was being sentenced for manslaughter. The doctor, however, had given evidence to show that the victim's skull was abnormally thin. The prisoner, on being asked if he had any honor, but I would ask, was that a skull for a man to go to a fair with?"—Cur. London Spectator.

Managing Editor (to proprietor).—"Floyer, our up-town man, ought to have a desk. He's the best reporter we got." Proprietor—"How's that? I thought he was a regular stick." Managing Editor—"Stick? Why, he's a genius. He found that broken rule that caused that accident on the Zig Zag Central and sat on a stone eight hours waiting for the accident to occur, so he could get the story in to-night's paper."—Frank's Magazine.

Benevolent Cellini had just finished a beautiful lamp, when Loretta Furbush entered his studio. This gentle lady admired the work in silver, but failed to grasp the meaning of the design. The design appears to me (illustrate) a Biblical episode," said she. "It does," returned Cellini; "Daniel in the lions' den is the subject." "Ah! but I see only the lions." "Unfortunately," however, you note a slight distortion of the lions' bodies?" "Yes," "Well, that's Daniel."—Jeweler's Circular.

Young Man Lodger—"Will you marry me?" Landlady—"Let me see. You have boarded with me four years. You have paid promptly. You have never grumbled at your food. No; I cannot marry you." "Perhaps if I had asked like Duffer and asked the coffee, grumbled at the severity of the letter, always been a month behind in pay, you always have married me?" "Yes, perhaps you would. As it is I will marry Duffer." "What?" "Yes, I will marry Duffer. He needs some discipline. You are too good a boarder to put on the free list."—Tit-Bits.

How's This?
We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Catarrh that can not be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. C. W. Hooper, Toledo, O.

P. J. Cusack & Co., Props., Toledo, O.

We, the undersigned, have known P. J. Cusack for the last 15 years, and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transactions and financially able to carry out all obligations made by him.

West & Traux, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O.

Walling, Kimball & Marvin, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Price 75c per bottle. Sold by all druggists. Testimonials free.

"I don't gain any strength."

Over and over again you hear this from the lips of dear ones. After a time you look up with anxiety into faces that ought to be bright, but are not.

You see a pinched and drawn face. You ask "What is the matter?" and get for answer "I don't know."

If you are wise you'll take every possible means to know.

Some enemy is at work in the system, which, if neglected now, will, before many months elapse, give you ample cause to regret.

When every organ is performing its full duty, when the blood has free course through every vein—

When the heart works with perfect regularity, and the stream is pure and warm with life,

Then—
The eye will be bright,
The drawn hand will disappear from the face,
The step will be strong and elastic,
You'll laugh and be happy.

What brings about this marvelous change?

Why, the most NATURAL of all the helpful agencies known to science.

Without it there would be no life. With it in abundance there will be the absence of all disease.

OXYGEN is the one natural and sure foe to all unnatural conditions of the body.

OXYGEN will force its way to the outer tips of arterial life. OXYGEN judiciously compounded and wisely administered gives to the tired organs the vital force they need and brings you back to the full enjoyment of health and strength.

If you suffer come to the OXYGEN PARLORS, 476 Main St., Springfield, Mass., and let us talk it over. THAT WILL COST YOU NOTHING.

If you cannot come, send us your name and address, and we'll send you a book that will be of the greatest help to you.

It will be sent you free of all charge.

S. H. PLATT, M.D., Med. Director.
100 MAIN ST., SPRINGFIELD, MASS.

MY WIFE PAINTS in the Spring most everything else can by her hands, and if your wife does the same, she wants to recommend to her the Chilton Paints. She says, tell her they are easy to put on, and that a brush-full goes a wonderfully long way. She says that she does not know or care what the paint is made of, as she knows that after it's once on it lasts longer and looks better than any paint she has used, and that she can get any shade of color she wants, and any quantity from a pint can to a barrel.

We have a Color Card for your wife.

Warranted to be also, lately fast colors, either in Salt or Potash, at the extremely low price of $100.

Warranted to be also, lately fast colors, either in Salt or Potash, at the extremely low price of $100.

Warranted to be also, lately fast colors, either in Salt or Potash, at the extremely low price of $100.

Warranted to be also, lately fast colors, either in Salt or Potash, at the extremely low price of $100.

Warranted to be also, lately fast colors, either in Salt or Potash, at the extremely low price of $100.

Warranted to be also, lately fast colors, either in Salt or Potash, at the extremely low price of $100.

Warranted to be also, lately fast colors, either in Salt or Potash, at the extremely low price of $100.

Warranted to be also, lately fast colors, either in Salt or Potash, at the extremely low price of $100.

Warranted to be also, lately fast colors, either in Salt or Potash, at the extremely low price of $100.

Warranted to be also, lately fast colors, either in Salt or Potash, at the extremely low price of $100.

Warranted to be also, lately fast colors, either in Salt or Potash, at the extremely low price of $100.

Warranted to be also, lately fast colors, either in Salt or Potash, at the extremely low price of $100.

Warranted to be also, lately fast colors, either in Salt or Potash, at the extremely low price of $100.

Warranted to be also, lately fast colors, either in Salt or Potash, at the extremely low price of $100.

Warranted to be also, lately fast colors, either in Salt or Potash, at the extremely low price of $100.

Warranted to be also, lately fast colors, either in Salt or Potash, at the extremely low price of $100.

Warranted to be also, lately fast colors, either in Salt or Potash, at the extremely low price of $100.

Warranted to be also, lately fast colors, either in Salt or Potash, at the extremely low price of $100.

Warranted to be also, lately fast colors, either in Salt or Potash, at the extremely low price of $100.

Warranted to be also, lately fast colors, either in Salt or Potash, at the extremely low price of $100.

Warranted to be also, lately fast colors, either in Salt or Potash, at the extremely low price of $100.

Warranted to be also, lately fast colors, either in Salt or Potash, at the extremely low price of $100.

Warranted to be also, lately fast colors, either in Salt or Potash, at the extremely low price of $100.

Warranted to be also, lately fast colors, either in Salt or Potash, at the extremely low price of $100.

Warranted to be also, lately fast colors, either in Salt or Potash, at the extremely low price of $100.

Warranted to be also, lately fast colors, either in Salt or Potash, at the extremely low price of $100.

Warranted to be also, lately fast colors, either in Salt or Potash, at the extremely low price of $100.

Warranted to be also, lately fast colors, either in Salt or Potash, at the extremely low price of $100.

The Way to Sleep-town.

The town of Sleep-town is not far, In Timbuctoo or China, For it's just west by the direction county. In the state of D